Willingham Primary School wins challenge

A creative buzz was in the air as pupils from Year 5 at Willingham Primary School joined students from Cottenham Village College and the other two feeder primary schools – Waterbeach and Cottenham. They were set a series of writing, drama and art challenges on Roald Dahl's classic tale Danny: The Champion of the World.

The pupils were invited to make storyboards for a book sequel, act out snippets and write a newspaper story on some of its themes, as well as other challenges.

Willingham won the challenge which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who took part. Most of the preparation for the challenge round was done by James Singleterry, Deputy Head at Willingham Primary.

Photo of the month

This impressive building is the Baptist tabernacle which stood on the site of the current 'Tab' on George Street. This was a huge building compared to the current modern one and could seat up to 300 people. It survived for around one hundred years until it was demolished in the 1980s. Efforts were made by conservationists to save the building but the cost of maintenance for such a large building was way beyond the congregation at that time. A copy of the building costs around 1870 shows that the land cost £466 (there was a house and four cottages on the site). The Tabernacle cost £2925 and a house for the Baptist Minister was £430. The value of voluntary labour, including 'carting 300,000 bricks' was estimated at £200. Have a look at the current tabernacle and you will see that the original gateposts remain.

Sponsored cycle for Mexico

This June I will be cycling 55 miles with two guiding friends on a triplet (three person bike) to raise money for an exciting trip to Mexico. While in Mexico we will visit Our Cabaña, one of the four Guiding World Centres and run workshops for local disadvantaged children. We each need to raise over £1800 to enable us to take part in this special experience.

I have been regularly cycling into Cambridge on the back of a tandem since I was 11 but being at the front of the triplet is a new and wobbly venture. If you spot us training around the village, on the Guided Busway or in Cambridge please give us a wave!

If you feel you can support me by sponsoring us please donate by going to <http://www.gofundme.com/gbub0>.

Additionally, for quiz lovers, I am selling a logo and slogan quiz for only £1. This can be found at the post office and you could win a £25 Tesco voucher.

Thank you for reading.

Community First Responders: call for volunteers

Willingham and Longstanton are well represented by a dedicated team of first responders. They are called into action by the ambulance service when this is deemed appropriate. Hopefully some readers can remember when a first responder has arrived to help ahead of an ambulance.

Community first responders are ordinary members of the public who volunteer to do something extraordinary. They give up their time to be trained and available so they can attend serious medical emergencies in their local community.

The scheme is a great help to the ambulance service in a largely rural area like ours because they can get to the scene quickly and in cardiac arrest situation greatly improve the chance of survival through early defibrillation.

The members of the group take it in turns to be on call when they are available. The aim is to be on the scene within minutes to give advanced first aid, including oxygen administration and immediate life support. The general types of calls they attend are medical emergencies such as chest pain, choking, fainting and cardiac arrests, not road traffic collisions and traumas.

Currently there are two active responders, Ross Turner in Willingham and Dave Milton in Longstanton, who also co-ordinates the group. We aim to do as much cover as possible outside of our busy working and social lives, but we are not expected to complete a certain amount of time on call. We attend local training courses and often meet up with fellow responders in other local villages.

We are looking for new volunteer responders to come forward so we have more chances of saving local lives. Access to a car is needed but all other training will be provided by the ambulance service.

If you would like to get involved or find out more information about what we do or our equipment, please feel free to contact Dave Milton on 07733 076469, dave.milton1950@btinternet.com or visit <http://www.eastamb.nhs.uk/community-first-responders.htm>

Sunday of Divine Mercy

On the Sunday after Easter, the Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of Divine Mercy. This feast was officially declared in the year 2000 by pope John Paul II who was inspired by the life and writings of Sister Faustina Kowalska. This uneducated Polish nun was asked by her spiritual director to write a diary. On about 600 pages she recorded the revelations she received about God's Mercy. She died in 1938 but the devotion to the Divine Mercy started to spread all over the world.

Sister Faustina was canonised (declared a saint) on the first Sunday after Easter, 30 April 2000 by the Holy Father John Paul II. In a decree dated 23 May 2000, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments stated that 'throughout the world the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come.' These papal acts represent the highest endorsement that the Church can give to a private revelation.

In the teaching of the Catholic Church, a private revelation refers to visions and revelations from God to a specific individual or group for their own good or that of others that have taken place since the end of public revelations, when the last Apostle died and the New Testament was completed. 'So called' Marian apparitions are good examples of private revelations. Well known approved Marian apparitions are our Lady of Guadalupe, Our Lady of La Salette, Our Lady of Lourdes and Our Lady of Fatima.

Public revelation must be lived by all Catholics. Private revelations cannot surpass, correct, improve, or complete public revelation. The determination of the source of private revelation is subject to the judgment of the Catholic Church.

The revelations on Divine Mercy received by St Faustina are not a new teaching but a reminder of what the Church has always taught through the scripture and tradition: that God is merciful and forgiving and that we, too, must show mercy and forgiveness.

There is a strong link between Divine Mercy and God's Justice. They cannot be separated. As we look at the history of the Church we can see that sometimes in pastoral and catechetical ministry the aspect of divine mercy seemed to be hidden in the shadow of God's justice. The parable of the merciful father, as it is often called today, was better known as the parable of the prodigal son. This simple example shows the change of the attitude leading to re-discovering the gift of God's Mercy.

The message of mercy is that God loves us no matter how great our sins. He wants us to know that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, accept His mercy, and let it stream through us to others. Devotion to The Divine Mercy involves a total commitment to God as Mercy. It is a decision to trust completely in Him, to accept His mercy with thanksgiving, and to be merciful as He is merciful. In 2002 Holy Father John Paul II said: The hour has come when the message of Divine Mercy is able to fill hearts with hope and to become the spark of a new civilisation: the civilisation of love.

Come and join us to see whether you want to become a member at a very modest annual subscription of £10. You may attend one meeting for a small charge of £2 to see what we do and to speak to members and to the committee informally.

In addition to the meetings we have an annual programme of visits to gardens and other places of interest which will commence in the spring. Dates for your diaries are Saturdays – 19 May, 14 July, and 22 September with Wednesdays 20 June and 7 November, the latter being for the Christmas Shopping trip.

The garden is described as an 'exquisitely planted garden' and has been in the Pasley-Tyler family since the 1920s. There are terraces with seasonal planting, a water garden with flamingos, Mediterranean climbing and scented plants, a conservatory and mixed rose garden. There is ample seating in this 10 acre temperate garden and woodland built in the Arts and Crafts style. Visitor facilities include a café, a garden shop and a plant nursery. Gardeners World TV programme paid the gardens a visit in 2010.

The cost of coach travel and entry is £20 per person payable on the day.

New Library Opening Hours from 2 April

As part of the comprehensive Library Service Review, the decision was made to review and rationalise the opening hours of all libraries in Cambridgeshire. Officers looked at the existing opening hours and worked on new patterns, based on the demographic of the area and on usage statistics. The figures for the catchment population were supplied by the County Council's research team once the wards served by individual libraries had been identified. A fixed number of core opening hours was established for catchment population bands. As its catchment population is less than 7000, Willingham Library will now be open for 15 hours a week as follows:

We would like to thank all our friends who have collected tokens for us in the last four weeks. Thanks to you we were presented with a cheque for £340.25 on Monday 12 March. The presentation included photographs for the Cambridge News.

We collected over 1300 tokens all together which is a fantastic number, highlighting the level of support there is for the group. The money is a much needed boost to our fundraising for new storage space.

We are very grateful for your ongoing support and we look forward to seeing you all at our forthcoming shows... more news of which will follow in the next issue of Willingham News!

Thanks again from Peter, Oliver, Hannah, Jason and Charlotte.

from Mr D G Leonard

To the memory of my wife, who died on 12 February 2012. I wish to thank the local doctors and district nurses, and Sure Care and Beaumonts, for their kindness and attention to my wife during her illness. Also the vicar of Over, Malcolm Raby, and Salvation Army Captain Emma for her tribute to my wife. I also wish to thank the vicar of St Mary and All Saints church for letting the service be taken there. Also thanks to the people who sent cards of sympathy. Also Arthur Rank and other night sitters while I got some sleep.

Janice was a woman of many talents: knitting, sewing, lace and most handicrafts. Thank you all who attended the funeral.

ETHIOPIA BULLETIN – news from Valerie McKee

Well here I am in Mekelle. I feel lucky: it is such a nice place. The streets are tree-lined and wide, (some are in flower, some are date palms), most are tarmac and the side streets are cobbled. It is cleaner here and there are even ladies who sweep the streets in some parts of the town. The only corrugated iron is around the building sites as all the little tiny cottages are dry stone walled and some are wattle and daub. The door posts tend to be painted bright colours and if any more modern buildings are painted they tend to be pastel colours – no point in using white here. There are still many beggars and the poverty is here too but I feel safer away from the hustle of the capital, Addis.

My little flat is up on the third floor, and the taxi driver managed to carry the box and case up easily enough: keen to carry anything on their heads or shoulders it seems. Anyway there are no lifts anywhere so that's not an option. The guard let us in after a debate, he is very serious and sleeps across the doorway. My new home is very basic but just right for me and I have a little balcony for my washing and watching the world go by, which can be very interesting! I now know the old man with his two cows and goats who passes twice a day, there are horses and carts, donkeys and herds of cattle at different times mixed in with the occasional car or lorry.

So far I have visited five schools and watched different ages from six to 14. The classrooms are quite big and airy and the children sit on benches linked with narrow sloped table tops two or three to a bench. Classes have ranged from 40 to 60 pupils, and in the younger ages there tend to be more exciting posters or notices around the room. There are many where there is nothing to look at. Today I asked the class of 14 year-olds at the end of their lesson what they thought of their room. Apart from being shocked by the question, I began to get the real answers: they thought it was a bit dull – putting it mildly I thought. Not counting the regulation enormous blackboard across one wall it was completely bare. I am still not sure if they know what an art lesson is and as far as I can tell there is a subject called 'aesthetics' that covers all extra things like music and art.

Next task is to make my proper plan which I have to put to the education office and VSO: it will be fine I am sure. They want me to get the teachers to be more active in the class, improve results and encourage more interested learners. It all goes together really but with such large classes and little resource it is a challenge. Everyone I have met so far is really supportive and keen to change for the better but they are not sure how to do it or where to begin.

As it is everywhere, I have to be indoors by dark which is by 6.45 pm really in order to keep safe. I can go out if I am with a group and I am trying to get the numbers of a few taxis I can use safely after dark but I am still not keen. In the day I walk everywhere which can be quite a distance. My office luckily is only five minutes away which is just as well as I have to come back here to use the loo. (I won't go into details!)

I am loving all the fresh fruits and vegetables, which is just as well as I have to shop daily pretty much (I have no fridge). I am glad here I have a fair variety – just have to be flexible and see what has been brought into the market. And what I miss? Well, soft boiled eggs, (they have to be cooked thoroughly as the flocks are not tested for anything dodgy) and being able to go out for a stroll in an evening just for pleasure.

WILLINGHAM ORIGINALZ YOUTH CLUB

The youth club will be meeting back in the Baptist Hall from 18 April at 6.30 pm. There has been good progress in our plans for the future. We are now awaiting a response from the County Council about plans submitted by our architect for a dedicated youth facility at the Ploughman Hall. This will be on two floors and will be fitted out with a kitchen.

In the meantime we are seeking funding to add to £25,000 currently held by the Parish Council which must be match funded. To help us in our funding application and general running of Willingham Youth Trust we are looking for volunteers who can help with fund raising, admin work and helping with the running of the youth club. We would like to start a second weekly session as soon as possible.

If you are willing to help with fund raising, youth work or being part of Willingham Youth Trust please contact Trevor Rowe 261193 or revtrevrowe@hotmail.com.

The Baptists are back home! The Baptist church family have returned to their own building after two months of internal alteration and now have a new much larger modern kitchen and a new access into the small hall. Everything is looking spick and span with a new coat of paint in the new hall and even the floor has been spruced up. All regular activities are now back in their usual home. We are grateful for great work done by local companies in building, plumbing, electrical, flooring and kitchen fitting work. We are also grateful to St Mary's, the Salvation Army and the Parish Council for the alternative accommodation we have been able to use during the refit. We hope to be able to make more use of the kitchen in future events.

The Over Players present

 outside Edge

by Richard Harris

May 24–26

Over Community Centre

While cricket captain Roger Dervish (Andrew Jordan) is desperately trying to assemble his team, his long-suffering wife, Miriam (Debbie Hunt), is desperately trying to assemble one of her famous cricket teas.

Although Bob (Phil Norton) only turns up to tell Roger he can't play, a ready substitute arrives in ageing Lothario, Dennis (Chas Barclay), always eager to help out.

So when demon spinner Kevin (Martin George) and star batsman Alex (Charlie Barclay) arrive, it looks like Roger has his team.

Unfortunately he has not reckoned on the players' wives and girlfriends – Maggie (Helen Foster), Ginnie (Helen Scully) and Sharon (Megan Scully) – whose arrival only serves to complicate matters.

This famous comedy is about relationships, marriage, hopes and dreams, with a little bit of cricket thrown in for good measure and is on at Over Community Centre, May 24–26.

Marathon appeal

I'm running the London Marathon on 22 April to raise money for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, which exists to find a cure for type 1 diabetes.

I'm supporting this charity as one of my close relatives has lived with type 1 diabetes for many years, so I've seen her battle with the unavoidable day-to-day problems and long-term health issues it causes. Finding a cure for type 1 would have a profound effect on the lives of the millions of people who are affected by the condition.

This is the first time I have entered a marathon and I am training hard, five days a week, in order to make sure I complete the course in less than four hours.

As a fellow resident of Willingham I'd like to ask for your support by visiting my online sponsorship page at <http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/MatthewMason>. All donations are very much appreciated.

Thank you for your support!
Matthew Mason

From our Police Community Support Officer

I will be conducting a street surgery in Willingham on 17 April between 4 and 6 30 pm. This will be held in a Mobile Police Station which will be parked opposite the One Stop shop. So if you would like to come along and get some crime prevention advice for your home or a general chat about any rising issues or concerns you may have in your area, I will be happy to see you.

I have carried out door to door surgeries in Priest Lane in Willingham and Station Road in Over. It was good to meet those of you who were home when I called and I am pleased to say that the feedback I received was good and no issues were raised.

At the recent panel meeting held on 21 February, the following two priorities have been set:

- Reduce dwelling and commercial burglary in Willingham and Over
- Support Speedwatch in Graveley, Knapwell, Dry Drayton and Conington

If you would like to report an incident at a later date please call our new non-emergency number which is 101.

If you have any issues or concerns in your area and would like to discuss them with me please contact me via e-cops or my work email. My email address is Thomas.baugh@cambs.police.uk.

Kind Regards

Village News and Events

We would like to welcome our new Councillor, Jim Watson to Willingham Parish Council.

Requests have been received regarding the need for an event to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee in June. Willingham Action Group are currently putting together some ideas for this. We will update you as soon as anything is finalised.

The village sign has completed its restoration following damage caused by wind. It is currently in its final stages of being housed suitably for relocation within the new frame.

The Parish Council has successfully bid for some community chest funding for a Village Map to be located on the green. This has now been commissioned and will highlight key locations within the village. This should prove a great feature and be of huge benefit to those visiting our village.

The Parish Council website is undergoing a re-launch and if it is not already live and full of information at the time of this publication, it will be in the very near future. The new site will make it easier for you to find out what is going on in the village and get involved with current projects. www.willingham-pc.org

You can also follow the Parish Council on twitter @willinghampc

AGM

The Annual General Meeting of the Parish Council has been set for 16 May at 7 30 pm in the Octagon. This is a great opportunity for you to come along and see the variety of groups you could get involved with within Willingham. You will be amazed at the number and diversity of them! It is also an ideal time to come and put across your views regarding how you would like the Parish Council to develop the area you live in. Full details will follow next month.

Police Issues

A police operation has been launched following more than 200 burglaries in rural Huntingdonshire and South Cambs in the past four months. This will focus on tackling burglaries in rural villages in the districts. Advice has been given to reduce the risk of becoming a victim of burglary including:

- Make your home look lived in when you are not in. Consider installing light timers.
- Install an alarm – even an empty box on the side of your house can be enough to put off a burglar.
- A 'beware of the dog' sign can also help put off an intruder, regardless of whether a dog is present.
- If the bins are due to be collected, ask your neighbours to move them on and off your drive for you.
- Lock your shed. Offenders don't like carrying tools as they may be searched en-route to a burglary.

Street Lighting

You may often notice faulty lighting around the village. Some posts are identified as South Cambridgeshire District Council and some as Cambridgeshire County Council. There is now a central number to call to report any faults, making it much easier to pass on this information. Simply call 0800 783247 and quote the number on the column.

JOTTINGS FROM YOUR COUNTY COUNCILLOR

So the planning application has finally been submitted. Sitting on my desk is a CD-ROM, which I have to confess I haven't looked at yet, although I only received it three days ago. Judging from the last Parish Forum though, there are a huge number of documents to be read in order to try to make sense of the application. I am not therefore going to try to even begin to summarise the application, but rather set out what has been happening over recent weeks and months:

Week 1 (registration and notification of application): commenced 27 February

- Once the outline application for Phase 1 and the Development Framework Document have been validated they will be uploaded to the Council's website (www.scams.gov.uk).
- Hard copies of the Planning Statement and Design and Access Statement for the Phase 1 application and the Development Plan Document will be sent to the following parish councils (along with CDs and hard copies of other documents as requested); Bar Hill, Cottenham, Dry Drayton, Girton, Histon/Impington, Lolworth, Longstanton, Oakington and Westwick, Over, Rampton, Swavesey and Willingham.
- Hard copies of all the Northstowe documents will also be sent to Bar Hill, Cottenham, Willingham and Swavesey libraries, as well as the Central Library in Lion Yard.
- An electronic pro-forma, with a link to the Northstowe documents on the Council's website, will be sent to the above parish councils giving them 42 days to comment from 5 March.
- Neighbour notification letters will go out to all properties in the villages of Cottenham, Longstanton, Oakington and Westwick, Over, Rampton, Swavesey and Willingham, as well as anyone living outside these villages who commented on the previous applications.
- A press notice will be put in the Cambridge News and site notices will be put up around the site and in the neighbouring villages. The press notice, site notices and neighbour notification letters will all give members of the public 42 days to comment from 5 March (though comments can be submitted before then).

Week 2 (consultation period formally commenced, for six weeks, Monday 5 March)

- Representations will be accepted either via the post or electronically (e-mail or through the Council's website). The Council will be using the APAS system, which is the system routinely used for receiving comments on all planning applications.

- The Phase 1 application and the Development Framework Document will both be given separate reference numbers on APAS. Documents for both the submissions will be on the same webpage.
- Where possible it will be helpful if comments were made under the relevant reference numbers, though it is acknowledged that there will be some issues that relate to both submissions.

Week 3 (public exhibitions)

There have been four 'drop in' sessions in March at Longstanton and Oakington. These were manned by District and County officers, with representatives of the Joint Promoters also attending.

Week 8 (consultation period finishes – Monday 16 April)

Officers will assess the Development Framework Document and Phase 1 outline application against all relevant National and Local Planning Policies and all material planning considerations, including those raised in the representations from consultees and members of the public.

Week 9

A response letter will be sent to the applicants outlining any amendments or additional information that may be required. If either submission is amended or additional information is submitted further consultation will be carried out.

It is not expected that the application will be determined until much later in the year.

My communication arrangements

Finally, in the interests of trying to modernise my communications, as well as Twitter, which I have been using for the last year, I am now also on Facebook. Contact details for both, as well as more traditional methods are below.

Royal British Legion – Over and District Branch

Hello Willingham

Our branch now covers Longstanton and Willingham. If you are not a member, why not come along and have a look at us? The Royal British Legion looks after ex-servicemen and women and their families in many different ways. This applies to young people as much as to the old soldiers.

We are looking to have contact in both villages in the near future, but in the meantime we are working hard on the following events.

Please come along and support us.

Saturday 28 April

A concert by the Minden Band of the Queen's Division together with The Band of the Parachute Regiment.
St Mary's Church, Over. 7 30 pm start Tickets £10.
Available from 01954-203607 or 230509

Sunday 29 April

We are dedicating a new Standard to cover the extended area that we cover, previously just Over. The Deputy Lieutenant of Cambridgeshire will be with us, representing Her Majesty The Queen.

Service commences at 3 pm in St Mary's Church in celebration of our 90th anniversary

COTTENHAM SUMMER SCHOOL 23–27 JULY

This year we have plenty of different courses: Experiments in Felt, the Art of Painting on Silk, Egg Tempera Painting, Oil and Acrylic Painting, Dichroic Jewellery plus Willow Weaving and lots more. Contact Cottenham Community Office on 01954 288751 for more details and to decide which course to go for. Don't leave it too late and be disappointed.
