WILLIAM BUNTING MEMORIAL COMPETITION

SPRING POKES ITS HEAD ROUND THE CORNER

at the "WHITE ROCK INN" Underriver

Sunday 11th March. It may have been the first day of spring in the valley at Underriver. An excellent pub, and top class well supported restaurant, in the beautiful setting of the Kent countryside. A goodly amount of 19 doubles teams played on the cosy picturesque terrain.

The 19 teams covered a wide range of abilities, with some very long time petanque players.

Appears that Club members have undertaken some spring tidying-up, including new grit on the playing surface.

WILLIAM BUNTING MEMORIAL COMPETITION

Good to see Oliver taking part in the Event.... Have not seen him play for a while. Oliver, a long term CLUB member of Seal P.C.

REPORT BY HOWARD SANDOM

Teams from all over the South East came together in the Spring sunshine on Sunday 11th March for The William Bunting Memorial Shield Doubles Competition at The White Rock Inn at Underriver, Sevenoaks.

In addition to local Kent teams from Hartley, Bat & Ball, The George Inn and hosts, Seal Petanque Club, the 19 teams included visitors from Portsmouth, Oxshott, Harrow, Borden and Crowborough which made for a great day's Petanque in the Kent countryside.

This is the second year of this open Doubles contest, originally known as The Apetito Shield going back some 20

William Bunting, Chairman of Seal PC for many years, who sadly died 2 years ago and was known to all clubs in the Kent region and beyond.

Five Leagues competed to produce a main competition in which last year's winners, Dave Chalkly and Racheed, and Seal PCs Steve Tait and Didier Thaler, went down in ...continued semi-finals to "New Blood" a team from Harrow and Jeff & Herbie from Crowborough. Eventual Winners in the Final were Theodore and Charlie (playing as New Blood) from Harrow with Jeff & Herbie the runners-up.

The score of 13 - 3 belied a very close and lengthy game which was great to watch..

The Plate finalists were "Beach Babes" - two feisty ladies from Portsmouth, who lost out to Seal PCs Susan Bunting and Howard Standom.

As Susan had the task of presenting the prizes for her late husband's event, it was particularly pleasing to see her amongst the winners. Prize money of £120 was awarded to Winners and Runners-Up of the main contest, together with vouchers for half price meals for 4 at The White Rock, kindly provided by landlord, Frank Scott.

This was a great day's competition in perfect weather conditions in a beautiful Kent countryside setting which was enjoyed by all.

Seal PCs next "open" event is The Courage Cup Triples which will be held at The White Rock, Underriver on 2nd September.

HOWARD SANDOM

As a postscript.....the original home of Seal P.C. was at the CROWN P.H. Seal. Not only one of the original petanque Clubs in Kent, but for several years was one of the largest and most popular of the Kent Clubs, holding several Open Sunday competitions and KPA/EPA competitions. Sad to say that the CROWN PH is now closed....for good by the looks of it.....with a new sturdy gate stopping access to what was the rear garden and petanque pistes....and strangely a large billboard advertising the pub as for "Offices to Let" ? Could be with or without office petanque pistes !

COLIN GILMORE-SMITH

I very much regret to inform you that our club Chairman, Colin ("Borneo") Gilmore-Smith died on 9th March.

Colin had been a mainstay of petanque in Chislehurst. He started playing at the Queens Head around 1990, then moved to The Crown, before settling at The Sydney Arms P.H. and founding our club around 1994.

I emerged late from The Tiger's Head in early 1995 to discover that - having never even played "beach-boule" - dear Colin had appointed me as Sec/Treasurer!

The Sydney Arms enjoyed considerable success in the 1990's, reaching Division 2 of the KPA, and Colin was consistently our best player by a country- mile. He was always supported by his partner, Mary Farrier, also a very useful player.

His recent ill-health had been matched by a decline in our club's league position, but Colin had remained as enthusiastic and supportive as ever.

He will be greatly missed by all petanque lovers.

ADRIAN RUFFLE

On a personal note.....I can remember playing against gentleman Colin and his team many years ago in a Wednesday night Summer League Match at Chislehurst. One of our team had the surname of "FLOWERDAY".....causing Colin to remark - what a wonderful language the English language was.

the K.P.A. WINTER LEAGUE CUP & PLATE FINALS

Held at Hartley Country Club on Thursday 1st March 2012. The finals were organised by MICK NASH the Winter League organiser and the evening was well supported by players from various Clubs.

A good night, good games and well supported, then into the bar

gardening section

Spring approaches, and winter fades into the distance, now is the time to attend to the important piste gardening duties, before the foot stomping petanque players arrive for the first games of the season.

Once again, as if proof was needed, last season's "dog-ends" still litter the piste and have not germinated to produce healthy tobacco plants. They still remain soggy unattractive dog-ends.

A sure bet that at each Club the same two or three players who tidied up the piste for the last three years will also be the same two or three players who will clean up this year. Come the start of the season, the pistes will look and play all the better for a clean up, and by and large the aesthetics of pistes and terrains at Clubs around the County are a lot better than they used to be.....a pleasure to play.

Most pistes suffer from nasty bits of unwanted debris and mucky bric-a-brac, empty fag packets, fox crap, cats crap, ultra strong weed killer.....agent orange land waster spray, or some such evil chemical.....that needs to be attended to. However some players do not feel the need to wash their hands after a game, and some players have a liking for licking their fingers prior to taking aim with a boule during a game. A resulting suggestion that petanque player mutations may appear in the near future. The days when English players followed the examples of the French (men) players by taking a pee against a tree as close to the piste as possible have more or less disappeared, favouring the luxury of the not so conveniently located toilet.

The never ending argument as to what constitutes the ideal petanque playing surface is split by as many beliefs as possible, however unlike French pistes which tend to be evolved from well worn village squares, or car parks.....most if not all Kent pistes are man made to the desires and requirements of a few, or to the mistaken desires and requirements of a few. The belief that a few house bricks and broken bits from a supermarket trolley on the piste produce an interesting game.....is an option favoured only by the few. Or even the French option of playing an intimidating game on the nearby grubby farm track, part tarmac and part tractor ruts is not always to the liking of the travelling Brits.

And always "tap" the piste with your foot, within at least two metres of where you intend pitching the boule.....good for the image !

A point worth noting is that most venues now provide a much needed addition...a string boundary, a positive indication of the total playing area....with a small "roll-off" margin.....not so common a few years ago. Needless to say....one of the many attractions of Petanque is the varied types of playing surfaces, size and contour and location of the many venues. Good players always seem to have the ability to adapt their style of play and prosper to suit the "local" terrain.

A gardening fact for the next "Quiz Night".....the record by Chris Barber/Lonnie Donnegan called "Digging my Potatoes" recorded in 1956 was one of the first records banned from air play both in the U.S. and by the BBC in the UK.....apparently "digging my potatoes" is sex slang for "getting up to the nonsense" in some southern American States.

news from the sunshine

Faye and Steve Golder of Tovil P.C. live a wonderful double life in the sun.....summer in the U.K. and winter in Tenerife.

The Gazette showbiz department enquired as to how they were faring over the winter....and Faye's reply is as follows.

Well...where do we start ?

We have totally avoided the winter at home thank goodness, although the locals are saying the past few weeks have been the coldest Tenerife has seen, sometimes as low as 16 degrees!

Think we are acclimatised to the heat though....cos that feels very cold to me...Steve has even bought a jumper!

Any way, apart from this small glip, generally it has been a steady 23 degrees and was hitting 30 degrees at Christmas.

We have been involved in our community out here and helped organise Christmas. We bought and Wrapped presents and then helped Father Christmas give them to all the children round the pool on Christmas Day. Then cooked Christmas dinner for ten people, and ate it on the balcony.....was wonderful !

We organised and labled up the tombolo, which ran on Christmas Eve, the mince pies and sausage rolls, wine, beer and sangria (we made 18 litres of it) and served it free in our reception whilst singing carols around the Christmas tree. Was very Christmassy, and we were kept very busy.

We have totally refurbished our apartment over the past two years, the balcony being the last to do since we've been here this time. Now complete...we are now concentrating on Petanque.

news from TENERIFE

We are members of Los Hermanos Petanque Club, here in Los Cristianos. There are 16 pistes beside the sea.

Many nationalities play here every afternoon except Sundays. As in England, Petanque players are like a family and we have made many friends and have much fun trying to understand the different languages that are spoken. Many players throw underarm and those who get frustrated at "scooting"....stay away. We play four against four to enable everyone to play and have melee competitions every month.

Everyone receives at least a bottle of wine. You soon realise the stronger players and we have often had friendly grudge matches with and against some Belgium and German friends....always faring quite well ! Some of us also play other Clubs in return matches.

Once a year they have a ladies carnival competition which is fancy dress only. This was last week and a great day, meeting with some of our Welsh Petanque Association friends Julie, Ian and Andy....all on holiday.

After play, we meet in a Spanish bar...."La Castanuelas"....for a cold beer or wine, after all it is thirsty work playing in the sun ! They provide picky food for us as well at no cost.

They have also sponsored us with "T" shirts and are very good to us.

Mum is OK. Had a few scares with her health but she has rallied each time. Everyone absolutely loves her and makes a great fuss of her. She sits in the sunshine watching us play petanque or lays around the pool with us, sunning herself. Her and Steve are as brown as berries.....I'm still very pasty which in itself brings conversation with people.

We've had many visitors since we've ben here which has been lovely.

We return to the UK on 1st April, so unfortunately miss the Home Nations Qualifier....we are looking forward to seeing everybody again and catching up.

Faye & Steve.... Tenerife

Many thanks to Faye and Steve for providing an insight into another world of winter, look forward to seeing them soon.

You may experience problems in getting your password accepted when registering with the EPA on-line ! old for new Old style new houses just completed on the site of the old Colyers Arms P.H. at Betsham. Nice houses. Colyers P.C. was one of the oldest petanque Clubs in Kent, and over the years many top Kent and England players played at the Colyers.

KPA award to play in the DUNKERQUOISE

These awards will be made based on top teams playing in the Regional Triples Qualifiers, the Dunkerquoise award going to the top triple overall of the five Qualifiers, and the Zeist award going to the triple that is leading after the first three Qualifiers. Refer to 2012 Qualifier Rules for details.

David Baxter has been in contact with the two European Clubs to set in motion the preliminary arrangements....this a copy of the reply received from the organisers of the Dunkerquoise

Poster Designed By
 ISOBEL PINDER
 2012

Arguably the driving force behind the start of Petanque at the Duke of Wellington, is and was KEN PINDER ex-of Gravesend Rugby Club Petanque. He has been more than willing to lend a hand to making the D.O.W. into the excellent Petanque venue that it now is, under the overall guidance of landlord Jonathon. And then it comes to a poster to advertise a forthcoming event at the D.O.W.
 KEN --Nuffin!

It would appear than KEN went to school with Harry Redknapp....don't do computers, and the last time that he used crayons and a ruler was some 50 years ago whilst sitting in school, dodging doodle bugs and spivs selling sausages made from saw-dust.

Like Harry....Ken is good at man management...."I can't do a poster"..."get someone else to do it".

The resulting poster above was originated by Ken's granddaughter ISOBEL, who applied the design principle of aiming the poster at Juniors....which has worked.... and is a very good effort from a youngster of 12 years of age.

So....you youngsters.....get your dad or granddad to join you at this competition in May.
