PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

DOUGIE SKELTON

Good afternoon and welcome to Sandhill Lane for our second home game of the season on what promises to be a very exciting week-end of rugby union.

Today we welcome Bradford Salem who, like Selby, have a fifty percent record so far having had a win in their opening fixture followed by a narrow defeat last week. Injury and availability meant that it was a much changed Selby team that went head to head against Heath. Selby gave a good account of themselves to earn a point and there were some encouraging first team debutant performances from two of our young players Joe Ramsay and Harrison Green. It was also good to have a couple of our older heads back in action.

There was some good rugby played by our U18 ladies and by our Colts who were in action last Sunday and it was really good to see that we were able to turn out three adult sides last week on just the second Saturday of the season. We hope to go one better by fielding a fourth team at home today.

The men in the middle today are Mr Gavin Pender on the first team pitch and Mr Mark Rees looking after the fourth team fixture. We welcome both of them to Selby. Referees do what they do for the love of the game. We are always very grateful to them and strive to look after our officials and make their refereeing experience at Selby a good one. The referees also measure and grade that experience. Throughout the season whenever our referees officiate a game at a Yorkshire club they complete a short questionnaire online to rate their overall experience at the club. They rate clubs on criteria including; the discipline of the players on the field of play, facilities available (such as the pitch being correctly marked with spectator barriers) and of course how hospitable the home club have been. The scores from these are added up and averaged out over the season with the highest scoring club being the awarded the Whistlers Trophy. I am delighted to announce that the Whistlers Trophy for last season will be presented to Selby after the full time whistle today. I am hoping that club stalwart and champion of the Whistler's Trophy award, Les McMorris will be well enough to join us to receive the trophy on behalf of the Club.

We also have some other rugby starting this weekend in Japan. The Rugby World cup gets under way with the home nations getting involved on Sunday starting with Ireland v Scotland followed by England and Tonga, Wales enter the fray on Monday. May I take this opportunity to wish all the teams involved the very best of luck. It would be nice to see a Northern Hemisphere winner. For those of you with strong constitutions the club bar will be open to give refreshment or steady nerves during the games. For those of us whose days as "seasoned tourists" are behind us Dawn and Jenny will be doing very nice pre match breakfasts. So please jump out of bed bright and early on Sunday, put on your best team colours whatever they are and enjoy the world cup on the screens here at Selby.

Please don't forget the Presidents charity Quiz night on Friday 27th September 2019 in aid of Yorkshire Air Ambulance and the very special event being organised by Chris Young bringing the Physical Disability Rugby League Tournament (PDRL) to Selby on Sunday 29th September 2019. See all details on the Club web site.

As always I would like to wish the best of luck to all our Selby teams from First XV to Fourths XV, U7's to U16s, Colts and our ladies teams taking part in rugby competitions this weekend. I trust that all players and all spectators will conduct themselves in a fitting manner around the pitch and in the ground that is at all times in keeping with the best traditions of Rugby Union to ensure that all games at Sandhill Lane can be enjoyed by everybody.

Have fun and enjoy your rugby at Selby RUFC.
