

HOLMESDALE MAKE WELCOME RETURN TO KENT CRICKET PREMIER DIVISION

Holmesdale Cricket Club have won themselves promotion back to the top flight of Kent Cricket after despatching Bromley Common for just 107 runs on the final day of the season.

Wickets fell with glee and Callum Gallagher was at the top of his game as he took four wickets for just 39 runs. Ben Fawcitt (23/2); James Poulson (10/2) and Rupert Harbig (2/2) completed the bowling stats. William Harby secured the majority of the runs when he hit 59 off 57 balls, with Luke Budden (38/75) and Antony Bissett (7/8) completing the innings. Holmesdale will now return to the top flight of Kent Cricket and face their neighbours Sevenoaks Vine once again.

SEVENOAKS TOWN SLAY ISTHMIAN PREMIER GIANTS KINGSTONIAN 2-1 IN FA CUP ROUT

Two goals from Man of the Match Ryan Gondoh secured Sevenoaks Town's progress to the next round of the FA Cup after they defeated Isthmian League Premier Division side Kingstonian on Saturday afternoon. Despite the referee adding an extraordinary additional 10 minutes at the end of the second half, Sevenoaks held on to make it through to the Second Qualifying round of this prestigious cup. They also won £2,250 in prize money plus a guaranteed £1,125 in the next round, going up to £3,375 should they win. Sevenoaks' cup dream is very much alive though, and their next match will be played on Saturday 17th September.
