Camp Perry Opens National Matches with Resounding First Shot

By Craig Shoup, Fremont News-Messenger

ERIE TOWNSHIP - Cris Stone, vice chair for the Civilian Marksmanship Program at Camp Perry, said there are three “ping” sounds that link Camp Perry, Augusta, Georgia, and Omaha, Nebraska.

Stone, who opened the national competition matches at Camp Perry on Monday with the traditional First Shot Ceremony, said everyone is probably familiar with the ping a baseball makes off a metal bat during the College Baseball World Series.

Some are familiar with the ping sound a golf ball makes off a metal club at August National Golf Course, home of the Masters golf tournament.

“But the ping of an aluminum bat is not nearly the authoritative and resonant ping of a clip being ejected out of an M-1 rifle,” said Stone.

Nothing sounds quite like the boom coming from a rifle sending a piece of lead barreling several hundred yards away at a speed of hundreds of feet per second.

“There are only a few places known only by their locations rather than what happens there,” said Stone. “And that’s because of their history.

“College baseball players talk about the road to Omaha, or they say, ‘If we win this one we can go to Omaha,’” stone continued. “These places are famous destinations, because of the greatness of what has happened there.”

Mr. Cris Stone, Vice Chair, CMP Board of Directors and long-time competitor and CMP supporter fired the official First Shot of the 2019 National Matches at Camp Perry.

SFC Dana Bowman, a former U.S. Army Golden Knights skydiver and double-amputee, gracefully paraglided into the First Shot ceremony by plane with a 60-foot American flag in tow.

A Message from the COO:

The CMP is pleased to provide this special printed edition of the Final Results of the 2019 National Trophy Rifle Matches. We hope this publication, with its featured information and photos, will be a memento of your unforgettable National Matches experience.

Though we had to make the difficult decision to cancel the 2020 National Trophy Rifle events, we are taking this opportunity to fondly look back upon last year's event – to the memories that were made and the champions that were named.

The 2019 National Matches rifle events began on 16 July with the return of CMP's refreshed lineup of Smallbore events and extended through 9 August, concluding with the new series of Long Range matches. Returning events to the rifle schedule also included CMP Cup Series Matches, such as Aggregate matches, an EIC match and a 4-Man team event, along with classic National Trophy and CMP Games competitions.

Training events held during the National Matches for adults and juniors alike included the Marine Corps Junior Clinic, Rifle Small Arms Firing School and the Advanced Clinic, led by members of CMP's highpower team.

As always, the matches featured many incredible shooting performances by noteworthy marksmen and women that included the following:

- SSG John Coggsball, 34, of the U.S. Army National Guard team, who topped the President's Rifle event with a score of 390-14x.
- Brad Schoenemann, 19, of Lodi, WI, who was named the High Junior of the President's Rifle Match and finished 15th overall. Robert Gill, 60, of Visalia, CA, earned the High Senior title and 11th overall, as SSG Erin McNeil, 31, of the U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit, earned High Woman and 17th overall.
- James Fox, 34, of Albany, OR, who earned the Mountain Man Trophy as the overall competitor in the President's, NTI and NTT events with an aggregate score of 1287-60x. For his performances, Fox received several honors, including 13th overall in the President's event, the second-highest scoring civilian of the NTI and fourth overall, the Alice Bull Trophy as the High Civilian of the President's and NTI, the Pershing Trophy as the highest individual of the NTT and the Pietroforte Trophy as the High Civilian of the NTI and NTT matches.
- Nathan Russell, 37, of Emlenton, PA, who was the overall winner of the M16 Rifle Match, with a score of 394-14x and cleaned both the slow fire prone and rapid fire prone stages.
- SP4 Daniel Lowe, 26, of the U.S. Army Reserve, who earned an impressive score of 497-15x for the win in the National Trophy Individual event.
- SGT Patrick Sunderman, 24, of the Army Marksmanship Unit, who was the overall competitor in the Open category of the Smallbore Prone 6400 Aggregate Championship and the Prone Any Sight competition. Mark Del Cotto, 59, of Lexington, KY, topped Sunderman by three points to earn the overall title in the Iron Sight Championship.
- SP4 Jared Desrosiers, 22, who claimed the overall Open Aggregate win in the Three-Position Smallbore event and also led the Any Sight Championship. Howard Pitts, 54, of Taft, TN, led the Iron Sight Championship.
- Antonio Gross, 19, of Ontario, NY, who led the Smallbore Junior 6400 Aggregate and the Any and Iron Sight Three-Position Championships.
- Larry Stonecipher, 67, and Roger Farley, 53, who became the first Civilian members to win the Hearst Doubles team event.
- The Virginia Firearms Education and Marksmanship, Inc. (VFEMI) members, who won the National Trophy Infantry Team Match with a score of 1283.
- Brad Schoenemann and Thomas McGowan, who won the Freedom's Fire Trophy as the winners of the National Trophy Junior Team event.
- Victor Betzold, 64, of Bel Air, MD, and Brian Williams, 45, of Granby, MA, who respectively claimed wins in the M1 Carbine, Modern and Vintage Military, Garand and 3- and 4-Gun Aggregate events during the CMP Games Matches.
- SSG Amanda Elsenboss, 30, of the Army Marksmanship Unit, who was the winner of the Coats Brown Memorial Trophy as the overall aggregate winner of the Long Range events.

The CMP extends sincere thanks to everyone who made significant contributions to another remarkable National Matches, including the indispensable organizations, school and clinic leaders, award donors and ammunition suppliers. Photo galleries of events may be viewed on our photo website at cmp1.zenfolio.com. We encourage you to download your photos for free and share them with friends and family.

We wish we could soon be seeing all of you at our 2020 National Trophy Rifle Matches, but we remain sincerely focused on your health and well-being during this unprecedented time. However, although we are unable to gather together as we have in the past, we have created our new CMP Home Range Appreciation Series of events as an alternative way of competing with one another. The series features a variety of rifle, pistol, smallbore and air rifle competitions that can be fired from your local range – with results returned to the CMP to compare alongside our other adult and junior competitors from around the country. Learn more about this exciting opportunity on page 3 of this bulletin.

Though the ranges of Camp Perry will be strangely still over the summer months this year, we are hopeful for the future and look forward to the days when we can again meet on the firing line. Until then, stay well, and good shooting to you all.

Mark Johnson, COO

National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. national championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U. S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard and U. S. Army Reserves also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

CMP Home Range Appreciation Series

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

The Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) has prepared a solution to allow everyone to keep shooting and compete with one another during the summer months – right from the comfort of everyone’s local range!

The CMP Home Range Appreciation Series is a collection of rifle, pistol, CMP Games, smallbore and air rifle competitions (open to both adult and junior athletes) which will be fired in local club matches and once scorecards are submitted the scores will be compared against overall scores from around the nation and prizes will be announced and awarded.

All matches must adhere to social distancing rules and obey CDC and local/federal government guidelines for group settings while also complying with standard range safety practices. Although we are eager for our competitors to return to the ranges, demonstrating mutual respect and safeguarding the welfare of everyone remains the highest priority at all of our events.

The CMP Home Range Appreciation Series is comprised of the following matches:

- o White Oak 1600 Rifle Aggregate – Competitors in the 1600 Aggregate will compete in two CMP 800 Aggregates at 200, 300 and 600 yards. If shot as a team match, an 800 Aggregate Course of Fire must be followed. In place of the National Elihu Root Team typically selected during the National Matches, leading competitors of this event will be invited to the November Talladega 600 by White Oak to compete individually and as an overall team.
- o 200-Yard Reduced Course 800 Rifle Aggregate – This match will be fired entirely at 200 yards. Competitors may only enter once.
- o Garand/Springfield/Vintage/Modern Military Rifle Match (GSMM), 30-Shot Match Only – Fired completely at 200 yards, competitors may only fire each rifle one time. No re-entry or Unlimited classes will be permitted.
- o Rimfire Sporter Rifle Match – Consisting of an O-Class, T-Class or TU Class, this match will be fired at the usual 50 and 25 yards. Competitors may fire once in each class.
- o CMP Pistol 2700 – This match will be held at 50 and 25 yards with a .22 Rimfire Pistol, a Centerfire Pistol and a .45 caliber pistol (to total 2700 possible points). Only juniors may use a .22 Rimfire Pistol for all phases.
- o Smallbore 3x20 – Two separate 3x20 smallbore events are available, which may be fired at 50 Yards/Meters and/or 50 Feet – both from kneeling, prone and standing positions.
- o Smallbore Prone 3200 (Metallic and Any Sight) 50 Yards, 50 Meters, 100 Yards – Fired over a two-day period (one for metallic sights, one for any sights), with scores entered by category. Match directors may also opt for a single day of Prone (1600).
- o Air Rifle 3x20 – For juniors only, this match is fired at prone, standing and kneeling positions. Juniors have the opportunity to earn Excellence-In-Competition (EIC) points toward a Distinguished Badge in this match. 2020 high school graduates are eligible to qualify for EIC points.
- o Air Rifle 60 Shot – For juniors and adult competitors, the match will be scored in the decimal sum and should be scored electronically using electronic targets or the Orion Scoring System.

All competitors firing in the CMP Home Range Appreciation Series will receive one special t-shirt and one commemorative coin to be mailed out after the event is complete (only one of each per competitor, regardless of the number of events entered).

All matches MUST be fired by Sept. 8, 2020, and results must be received by Sept. 14 to qualify. Late results will not be accepted. Results will be final on Oct. 1, 2020. All scores from this competition will be available for viewing on the CMP Club and Competition Tracker at <https://ct.thecmp.org/homerangeResults>.

For participating clubs, the CMP will supply specially designated scorecards, match report forms and return envelopes (if applicable for the match). Detailed instructions on submitting scores back to CMP Headquarters at Camp Perry will be emailed to match contacts, after matches are approved. We also ask that all clubs submit photos of their events to the CMP.

To recognize outstanding competitors, several awards will be distributed at the conclusion of the series, including:

- o Overall Winner, High Junior, High Women, High Senior and High Grand Senior certificates for each rifle/pistol event.
- o Three-Position Air Rifle certificates to first, second and third places in sporter and precision classes.
- o A unique opportunity for junior air rifle competitors to earn EIC points toward their Junior Distinguished Badge. The top 25 percent of all non-distinguished 3x20 junior shooters will receive between 6 to 10 points toward their Distinguished Badges.
- o Additional prizes from Match Sponsors.

Applications may also be requested by contacting the CMP at competitions@thecmp.org or 419-635-2141.

Sponsorship opportunities for event award donors and t-shirt logo placement are also still open to interested organizations and companies. Contact Christina Roguski at 419-635-2141 ext. 714 or croguski@thecmp.org with questions. Download a Sponsorship form from the CMP website at <https://thecmp.org/competitions/home-range-appreciation-series/>.

Though we remain apart, we hope that you will join us in this opportunity to return to what we enjoy most in the world of competitive marksmanship – excitement, fun and friendly competition. We remind everyone to stay safe and healthy while competing, and we look forward to seeing the many excellent scores that will find their way back to Camp Perry in the coming months.

Good luck, and good shooting!

CMP Cup 1000 Aggregate and Team Matches

By Serena Juchnowski, CMP Feature Writer

X-Philes took first place of the match rifle teams with a 1951-78x. Presenter: Mrs. Shannon Hand

July 2019 saw the return of the CMP Cup Team Match and two-day 1000 Aggregate. The field of competitors increased from just over 200 in 2018 to just over 300 in 2019. The CMP Cup Aggregate consists of a 4-man team match followed by two days of 1000-point matches.

Many competitors used the Cup Matches as an opportunity to confirm zeroes and to shake off some Camp Perry match jitters before the President's 100 Rifle Match and National Trophy Individual Rifle Match. All three days of the Cup Matches were fired upon electronic Kongsberg targets, which greatly appealed to competitors before some long days of pit duty over the coming week.

An awards ceremony followed a shooter's reception on July 25. Shooters were recognized for performances in the team match, on day one, day two, the aggregate and for aggregate stage scores in both service rifle and match rifle.

Joe Hendricks Jr. fires at 200 yards from the standing position. Joe Hendricks Jr. claimed High Match Rifle in the 2019 CMP Cup Aggregate.

James Fox was the 2019 CMP Cup Service Rifle Champion.

The team match is a standard 50-shot National Match Course of Fire. USAMU Team Craig claimed the service rifle team title with a score of 1980-88x. Firing members included SGT Christopher Hudock, SFC Brandon Green, CPT Matthew Rawlings, and SGT Ben Cleland. SFC Walter Craig coached the team with Cleland as Captain.

X-Philes took first place of the match rifle teams with a 1951-78x. Coached by William Gelet with Dr. Jack Jones as Captain, firing members included Allen Castle, Fritz Hempelmann, Jack Jones and Terry Paul. USMC SSgt Stephen Ferguson topped the 4-Man Team Individual Results with a 497-24x. He beat out SGT Christopher Hudock (497-22x) and SSG John Cogshall ARNG (497-21x) by X-count.

Each day of the 1000 aggregate has five stages: 20 shots standing and two strings of rapid-fire sitting at 200 yards, two strings of rapid-fire prone at 300 yards and two stages of 20 shots slow fire prone at 600 yards with two sighters for each stage.

On day one, July 24, Matt Eden claimed High Civilian Service Rifle with a 984-43x. SSG Erin McNeil USA took High Military Service Rifle with a 989-46x and Joseph Hendricks Jr. placed High Civilian Match Rifle with a 988-38x. The second day, July 25, saw a completely different field of overall winners - keeping the race for the overall aggregate a close one. Day two winners in service rifle included High Civilian James Fox with a 996-63x and High Military CPT Matthew Rawlings. Robert Gill claimed High Civilian Match Rifle with a 993-45x.

In the overall service rifle aggregate, James Fox shot a 1980-96x out of a total of 2000, claiming the title. SSG Mc-Neil and SP4 Daniel Lowe USAR finished right behind with a 1980-94x and 1980-73x, respectively. Amber Kingshill placed first among junior competitors in service rifle with a score of 1958-61x. Vincent Van Hoven was High Senior in service rifle with a 1957-63x.

In the overall match rifle aggregate, Joe Hendricks Jr. beat out Robert Gill by one point to claim the Overall High Match Rifle award. Hendricks shot a 1977-76, Gill a 1976-88x. Gill's score did earn him High Senior Match Rifle. The High Grand Senior Award went to James Schieltz with a 1956-66x.

Concerning the service rifle stage aggregates, Greg Krebaum topped the standing charts with 395-16x out of 400 (High Civilian), followed closely by High Military SP4 Lowe with a 395-9x and High Junior Haley Robinson with a 390-10x. The sitting rapid stage saw clean scores of 400 from High Military SGT Cleland (400-32x) and High Civilian Matt Eden (400-27x). Stage High Junior Zevin Linse, dropped only one point, shooting a 399-21x.

The 300-yard prone rapid stage saw tied clean scores of 400-19x from stage High Junior Thomas McGowan and High Civilian Alan Summers. SGT Cleland claimed stage High Military and beat the stage high junior and stage high civilian by X-count with a 400-31x.

Jeffrey Clark claimed High Civilian for the first 600-yard prone stage with a 400-22x, Roy Mitchell, Jr. claimed it for the second slow prone stage with a 400-20x. High Military for the first slow prone stage went to USAR SP4 Bryant Wallizer USAR with a 399-30x. SFC Green claimed stage two with a 399-17x. Slow-fire prone High Junior went to Lauren Wood for stage one (395-23x) and to Miles Grove (395-20x) for stage two.

In the civilian match rifle stage aggregates, Joe Hendricks Jr. shot a 394-10x in standing, Allen Castle cleaned the sitting rapid-fire stage with a 400-20x, and Jack Jones topped the 300-yard rapid-fire prone stage with a 399-13x. Robert Gill claimed High Civilian in both slow-fire prone stages with a 399-23x and a 400-25x.

Joe Hendricks Jr., the 2019 CMP Cup Match Rifle Overall winner, spoke to the high level of competition, especially with the military teams present and high winds present on the first day of the cup.

“The wind was switching direction and velocity quickly,

Cup Matches Continued

and if you missed a change you were definitely going to be out of the 10 ring,” he said.

Even with the challenging winds, Hendricks managed a personal best in day one of the 1000 aggregate, only to improve it by one point the next day (989-36x).

Likely speaking to the thoughts of many, regardless of final scores, Hendricks attested, “The CMP always runs great matches. I don’t think I’ve ever gone to a CMP match and not had a good time.”

No rain dampened the CMP Cup, though the days were hot and long. The windiness of the first day of the aggregate was a nice reprieve, but its effect showed in lower scores.

Concerning the double stages of slow-fire prone that significantly lengthened the day, competitors were happy to have a break between strings to rest their arms, their vision and to take off their heavy shooting gear in the heat. Electronic targets allowed for this downtime, as well as gave competitors not shooting or verifying the opportunity to visit with friends from across the nation.

The current draft of the 2020 National Matches indicates a return to three days of 800-point matches rather than two 1000-point days. Save the Date for 2020: CMP Cup Team Match – July 20; and CMP Cup 800 Agg Matches – July 21-23.

Coggs Hall Earns President's Rifle Win

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

SSG John Coggs Hall was the overall winner of the President's Rifle event.

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – The Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) 2019 National Trophy Rifle Matches brought several individual and historic firsts. From long-sought wins to those that seemingly arose out of fate, the tradition of the unexpected again brought excitement to the grounds of Camp Perry just as it has for over 110 years during the summer months.

During the prestigious President's Rifle event, SSG John Coggs Hall, 34, of the U.S. Army National Guard (ARNG) team, topped the field of 1,063 competitors with a score of 390-14x.

"I can't really explain it right now. It doesn't seem real," he said, following the accompanying Shoot Off where he secured his victory. "I've always thought of myself as a competitor that had the ability, it's just some years didn't pan out."

Coggs Hall has made the President's Shoot Off since 2004 and has previously made it as high as eighth place overall. His past experiences at the National Matches and in the challenging event prepared him for the range conditions and the pressure that builds on the firing line.

"After I shot 100 standing, I knew I was on the right track," he said. "I just felt natural shooting. It all came together."

The 2019 National Matches was a milestone for Coggs Hall, who has been making consecutive trips to Camp Perry each summer since 1999 when he came as a junior competitor from Connecticut.

"[The President's Rifle win] was a good way to cap off that," he said.

In attendance for Coggs Hall's big moment on the range was his junior coach, SFC Bradford Palmer (retired). Along with Coggs Hall, Palmer was also the junior coach of Coggs Hall's former junior teammates and current outstanding marksmen, 2015 President's Rifle winner SSG Kristoffer Friend and U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit member and the 2019 Overall High Woman competitor, SSG Amanda Elsenboss.

"You just give them the information and let them go out there with it," Palmer said modestly.

Coggs Hall collected the actual target that was used downrange during the Shoot Off as a memento from his remarkable win. He plans to proudly display it in his house as a reminder of the hard work he's put in as a marksman, military member and as an individual.

“Being a Guard soldier, being able to take time off of work as an electrician and still be able to come out and do this is something I’m very proud of. That’s what I take away from it,” Cogshall said, with a smile.

High Junior of the President’s Rifle Match was Brad Schoenemann, 19, of Lodi, WI, who finished 15th overall. Robert Gill, 60, of Visalia, CA, earned the High Senior title and 11th overall. High Woman was SSG Erin McNeil, 31, of the U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU), who fired a respectable score of 384-11x for 17th overall.

In the National Trophy Individual Match (NTI), SP4 Daniel Lowe, 26, of the U.S. Army Reserve earned an impressive score of 497-15x. Only his third trip to the National Matches, Lowe, an Olympian in Men’s Air and 3-Position Rifle, had reached as far as 12th place in the match – besting his previous scores and landing only a few points shy of the current NTI Record currently held by SFC Brandon Green.

Representing the CMP Rifle team was Nick Till, 45, of Howell, MI, who earned the High Civilian honor and third place overall, along with Sara Rozanski, 41, of Elmore, OH, who nabbed the High Woman title and fifth overall – only falling to Till in a close x-count. High Junior of the match was Koa Van Hoven, 16, of San Rafael, CA, with a score of 491-17x.

James Fox, 34, of Albany, OR, arose as one of the biggest success stories of the Matches – earning the Mountain Man Trophy as the overall competitor in the President’s, NTI and NTT events with an aggregate score of 1287-60x. For his performances, Fox received several honors, including 13th overall in the President’s event, the second-highest scoring civilian of the NTI and fourth overall, the Alice Bull Trophy as the High Civilian of the President’s and NTI, the Pershing Trophy as the highest individual of the NTT and the Pietroforte Trophy as the High Civilian of the NTI and NTT matches.

Nathan Russell, 37, of Emlenton, PA, was the overall winner of the M16 Rifle Match, with a score of 394-14x – cleaning both the slow fire prone and rapid fire prone stages. The match accompanies the Small Arms Firing School conducted each year. Top scorers receive Excellence-In-Competition points towards a Distinguished Badge.

The High Individual earning points in the match was junior Seth Hartbarger, 17, of Hayden, AL. Hartbarger finished fourth overall in the match with a score of 392-9x.

Civilian Team Makes Hearst History

Written by Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – Making history at the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) 2019 National Trophy Rifle Team Matches was Larry Stonecipher and Roger Farley who connected to become the first Civilian pair to take over the Hearst Doubles event in its 13 years of existence.

Stonecipher, 67, and Farley, 53, both hail from Oklahoma and regularly compete together as individuals and have also competed together in the National Trophy Team Match but have never paired up for the Hearst Doubles event. The combining of the two winning talents wasn’t as much methodical as it was just a casual occurrence.

“A couple of days before the match, I asked Roger if he had a teammate,” said Stonecipher. “When he said, ‘No,’ I asked if he would be interested in shooting together. Roger’s a great shooter.”

As it turns out, Stonecipher isn’t too bad himself at shooting – finishing fifth overall of individual Hearst Doubles competitors. Farley gave a notable performance as well as he finished just behind at eighth overall.

The duo made it through the offhand portion of the match by only giving up a few points. Then, in the slow fire prone phase, they individually made wind calls at 300 and 600 yards and compared their estimates to make a final decision.

“Roger kept me in the center with favoring calls during the rapid fire string, and with a slight adjustment to the sight setting I used, he was in the center from the start,” Stonecipher recalled. “Our monthly matches at home are usually won by the shooter that reads the mirage best at 600 yards. Mirage was easy to see at 600 yards during pair firing, and we were able to alternate giving hold up and favoring calls.”

Oklahoma’s Larry Stonecipher and Roger Farley teamed up for the CMP’s Hearst Doubles Team Match. They are the first civilian team to win the Hearst Trophy, firing a team score of 589-14x.

As for becoming the first Civilian team to capture the win in the event over many other skilled individuals and military personnel, Stonecipher remained humble.

“I realize that the Hearst Doubles is a relatively new event, but yes, it does add a little winning it as the first civilian team,” he said. “I count as friends a number of the people that were on the winning military teams. Any time you don’t do something stupid and your equipment doesn’t break, you have a chance, and being a little lucky doesn’t hurt.”

The National Trophy Rifle Team (NTT) Match saw another win by the USAMU Craig, which has topped the event for the last three years. Team members SFC Brandon Green, SGT Christopher Hudock, SGT

Ben Cleland, SSG Amanda Elsenboss, CPT Matthew Rawlings and SSG Cody Shields fired a combined score of 2960-123x – 20 points above the second place competitors. Team captain was SFC Chadwick Prater, and team coach was SFC Walter Craig.

High Civilian team was Texas State Rifle Association, which finished fourth overall with a score of 2924-95x. Team members were Justin Utley, Hugh Reich, Greg Troxell, Harold Pate, Danny Arnold and Kyle Hoelscher. Coach was John Hefner, and team captain was John Ilzhoefer.

In addition to the team competition, the NTT recognizes the six highest scoring individual civilian competitors of the match who earn Elihu Root gold medals and a spot of the honorary National Civilian Team. This year's members are James Fox, Justin Utley, Jeremy Castle, Nick Till, Charles Spiker and Thomas McGowan.

A National Junior Highpower Team is also recognized, consisting of the Top Six juniors of the President's, National Trophy Individual and NTT aggregate. This year's top juniors were Brad Schoenemann and Thomas McGowan of Wisconsin and Koa Van Hoven, Amber Kingshill, Nathaniel Nye and Miles Grove of California.

Winning the National Trophy Infantry Team (NTIT) event for the second time was the Virginia Firearms Education and Marksmanship, Inc. (VFEMI), with a score of 1283. The team first won back in 2014, becoming only the fourth Civilians champions in the history of the NTIT – an event that has fired since 1922. Members of the 2019 team were Alvin Bethel, Jeff Browning, Marc Cichowicz, Gene Gerhiser, Robert Menuet and James Otto. Team coach was Clyde Bryant, and team captain was Nelson Ocasio.

High Junior Team of the match was California Grizzlies O'Connell (another Civilian team that has won the NTIT, in 2009). Grizzlies finishing fourth overall were Dustin Carr, Miles Grove, Amber Kingshill, Nathaniel Nye, Koa Van Hoven and Loet Van Hoven.

Captain was Sara Rozanski, and coach was Tom Greenwood.

Earning the Freedom's Fire Trophy as the top two-person team in the National Trophy Junior Team event was Wisconsin Cheddar. Team members were Brad Schoenemann and Thomas McGowan.

The Greatest Schoenemann: Junior Marksman Puts On A Show At 2019 National Rifle Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Brad Schoenemann of Lodi, WI, has left many footprints on the stage of Camp Perry's Hough Theater, constantly delivering stunning performances. But the shows he puts on start before he even steps into the building.

During the 2019 National Matches, the 19-year-old found himself on the historic stage at the Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) National Trophy Rifle Awards Ceremony several times to accept the honors he had earned on the firing line. The stage is a highly respected landmark in the marksmanship world, serving as the venue of some of the world's best champions and treasured talents for over 100 years.

This year's achievements began for Schoenemann when he finished as the High Junior of the President's Rifle Match and the 15th overall competitor. The President's Rifle event attracts many esteemed athletes in the country as one of the most prestigious events of the Matches.

Top military and civilian marksmen gather together on the range, ending with a shoulder-to-shoulder 10-shot shoot off. To reach that honor is a life-long objective for some competitors, and Schoenemann has already captured the feat.

"It is absolutely unreal to compete on the line with some of the best shooters in the world," he said. "And the pressure to perform, especially in the shoot off was a once-in-a-lifetime experience."

This year, Schoenemann was the High Junior and the only junior in the President's Rifle Shoot Off.

Brad Schoenemann had an incredible showing at the 2019 National Matches and even earned his Distinguished Badge.

Schoenemann went on to join his Wisconsin Cheddar teammate, Thomas McGowan, to overtake the National Trophy Junior Team Match with a score of 978-28x – only one point away from the National Record score.

Reaching the High Individual competitor title during the match, Schoenemann received the Col. Bill Deneke Trophy as the leading junior competitor in the President's, National Trophy Individual and National Trophy Team events as well as a spot on the honorary National Junior Team.

He also took his abilities indoors by firing in the AiR-15 Challenge, a 40-shot re-entry match held within the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center air gun range. He reached a top score of 396-8x and held the lead until SFC Brandon Green of the Army Marksmanship Unit ultimately outshot him by two points to earn the win. Schoenemann had earned second in the event in 2017 and finished in the Top 10 in 2018, making it known that he is as powerful of a force with a simulated AR-15 as he is with the real thing.

Currently a sophomore at University of Wisconsin-Platteville, studying business, Brad has always shot growing up, starting in his backyard. He didn't become fully interested in marksmanship until he was 11 years old, after taking a hunter safety course at his local gun club. There, he was introduced to a smallbore program, which eventually guided him into the highpower world.

"And I've been enjoying it ever since," he said. "My favorite part about marksmanship is that every shot counts, and it is almost a big mental game, as far as staying focused."

After seeing the Wisconsin team at the same matches he was attending, Brad noticed the excellent and fun program the members had cultivated and decided to join them.

"The whole experience with the team is just a blast, whether it's on or off the range," he said.

Since joining, Schoenemann has been a major contributor to the team by helping its members excel to multiple National Match titles. He's enjoyed his experiences at Camp Perry for the past few years and hopes to continue the tradition with the friends he's made and those he has yet to meet.

"I had always wanted to go to the National Matches ever since I started shooting, and it had always been one of those things that I would maybe someday like to do,” Schoenemann explained. “My favorite part about the National Matches is just the comradery of all the different people from all over the United States.”

With all of his success, Schoenemann capped off his 2019 National Matches by walking the theater floor, reaching the stairs and taking the final climb to his new Distinguished Rifleman Badge – marking his legacy on the awards stage and on the grandest stage that is Camp Perry. the grandest stage that is Camp Perry.

In 2017, Schoenemann earned second overall in the AiR-15 Challenge.

Sara Rozanski’s Record Score Wins Women’s National Trophy

By Steve Cooper, CMP Training & Education Manager

Sara Rozanski, of Elmore, Ohio topped all female competitors in the National Trophy Individual Match (NTI) with a new record score of 496-22X, winning the Women’s Trophy at the National Matches here Tuesday, July 30.

Rozanski’s performance eclipsed the previous women’s record of 496-19X by center shot X-ring tie-breaker, last set by the U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit’s Amanda Elsenboss in 2017.

“It’s been a rough year, so this will most definitely be the highlight. It felt amazing to be able to pull it together and perform well,” Rozanski said following the match.

“I went back to 600 yards thinking –just do my best,” she said. Rozanski’s scores by stage were 100-2X standing, 98-2X rapid sitting, 99-6X rapid prone and she completed the course with 199-12X prone at the 600-yard line.

In a very competitive knot at the top of the ranks amongst all competitors, she finished fifth overall after tie-breakers, just one point out of first place and four points from a perfect score of 500. A total of 992 competitors fired in this year’s NTI match that dates back to 1904 - the second year of the National Matches, originally fired at Sea Girt, NJ.

“It’s an honor to set a new women’s record since the level of competition is so high. It gives one a sense of accomplishment knowing you are competing against the best competitors this sport has to offer,” Rozanski said.

The NTI course of fire, with no sighters, consists of 10 shots standing slow fire at 200 yards, followed by 10 shots sitting (or kneeling) from standing, rapid fire in 60 seconds at 200 yards, 10 shots prone from standing, rapid fire in 70 seconds at 300 yards. The match concludes with 20 shots prone slow fire in a time limit of 20 minutes at 600 yards.

A native of Toledo, just 28 miles from Camp Perry, Rozanski has been competing in highpower rifle events since she was 16 years old, when she learned to compete with the semi-automatic civilian equivalent of the Army’s M14 rifle, commonly referred to as the M1A.

Rozanski serves as the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s highpower rifle program coordinator at its facility in Port Clinton, Ohio.

The National Matches were moved to the Ohio National Guard’s Camp Perry

Sara, originally from Toledo, OH, started competing in Highpower Rifle Matches at age 16.

near Port Clinton in 1907, having run out of room at Sea Girt after four years. Camp Perry’s ranges included ample pistol facilities and rifle ranges out to 1,000 yards and boasted the longest continuous firing line in the world.

James Fox Takes Home Multiple 2019 HP Rifle National Awards

By Steve Cooper, CMP Training & Education Manager

James Fox, 34, of Albany, OR, was a frequent guest onstage at the National Trophy Rifle Awards at the conclusion of the 2019 CMP Cup and National Matches, thanks to consistently great performances in July and August.

Fox, who began his highpower rifle career as a teen in the 1980s, competed in several CMP Cup Matches and National Match events. It's part of the most prestigious annual national pistol and rifle championship events held at the 113-year-old Camp Perry Ohio National Guard training site on the shore of Lake Erie east of Toledo.

During his time on the firing lines at Perry, Fox sent several hundred rounds downrange from July 25 to the close of highpower rifle on August 2. Despite an 11-year hiatus from shooting, coming back into the sport in 2017, Fox had little difficulty shaking off the rust to rise to the top of the civilian ranks in highpower rifle at Camp Perry.

In the CMP Cup Matches, which was shot on electronically scored targets on Viale Range, just prior to the National Matches (on paper targets), Fox shot very well in a pair of 1,000-point aggregate matches with scores of 984-33X and 996-63X, respectively on July 24th and 25th. On Day 1 he was overshadowed by Matthew Eden by X-count, 984-43X to 33X, but Fox prevailed after the second day with an aggregate total 1,980-96X of a possible 2,000 points.

The event consisted of a combination of standing slow-fire, sitting rapid-fire, prone rapid-fire and prone slow-fire competition over two days.

"The President's 100 match did not go the way I wanted. It started out rough in standing, shooting a 95-3X. While that score can be attributed to the wind, I don't think that was the only reason - the P100 brings out the nerves more than any other match I've shot in," Fox said.

Despite his concerns, Fox continued shooting well, placing 13th overall in the President's 100 in a field of 1,063 competitors. He made the prestigious 10-shot shoot-off amongst the top 20 competitors and his final score of 386-11X out of a possible 400 was just four points behind SSG John Coggshall, U.S. Army National Guard, who won the trophy with a total of 390-14X on a wind-swept day. The top 20 finalists were separated by a mere six points - 390 to 384.

"Going into the Trophy match week after winning the CMP National Cup aggregate, my goal was to win the Mountain Man Trophy to become the overall winner of the National Trophy matches," Fox related.

"I have always felt that I have been more of an aggregate shooter than a single day shooter, as I tend to have consistent scores day by day, and therefore I can wear down the competition."

"After what I thought was a dismal standing performance, I pretty much gave up hope thinking that I had a chance to even make it into the shoot-off, and from there was working on damage control to limit how many points I lost for the Mountain Man aggregate.

"I do feel I got lucky at 600 yards with the wind conditions being the most favorable on my relay. After all the shooting was done, I was quite happy and surprised that I made the shoot-off," Fox said.

He said he knew he had his work cut out for him if he was going to come close to placing in the top 10, given the caliber of shooters within a few points from him.

"Alas, the wind in the shoot-off got the best of me, as I could not seem to get ahead of the changes. After the match I was very happy to find out that John Coggshall won - we competed as juniors back in the day, and I felt that he is one of the nicest competitors on the line," Fox said.

Fox's President's Rifle and National

Trophy Individual (NTI) match aggregate scores earned him the Alice Bull Trophy, awarded to the high scorer in that pair of National Trophy events. His total 496-23X placed him fourth in the NTI, finishing second in the civilian field to fellow Team CMP shooter, Nick Till, 34, of Howell, MI, who was awarded the Nathan Hale Trophy.

The NTI weather was better, but the Oregonian said he felt the challenge going into the standing stage at 200 yards - "the morning of the National Trophy Individual match I was relieved the wind was much calmer. I still found myself struggling to hold the rifle still. Looking back, I don't think I've ever worked as hard as I did that day to shoot a 99-0X," he said.

"Sitting (rapid-fire) was a struggle given how high the humidity was. I could hear my heartbeat in my ears, and I knew I was in for some pulse transferring to my hold, which was 9-ring to 9-ring on the other side. I was very thankful to have barely squeaked out a clean," he explained.

In prone rapid at 300 yards, Fox said he got the wind call spot-on, firing a 99-7X. Having dropped two points heading back to 600 yards Fox said he felt he was out of the hunt for the win on the day, and then focused on keeping himself close for the overall aggregate.

“I was able to stay ahead of the wind at 600 after going on light for the first shot and shooting a nine. The second nine was out the top. Finishing with a 496-23X I was certain that I was nowhere close to the top” he said.

As it turned out, Fox, Till and Sara Rozanski, all Team CMP team members, finished in the top three civilian places (third through fifth overall) in the NTI, with Till second and Rozanski in third as High Woman, receiving the Women’s Trophy.

“At the end of the day, given how many excellent shooters there are competing, it’s tough to be able to place in the top 10, much less the top 5, and having all three of us right up there is quite the feat,” Fox said.

In the National Trophy Team (six-person) rifle match, Fox was the high individual scorer in the match with a score of 497-28X, just three points away from a perfect score in his string of 50-shots. His Oregon State Shooting Association team finished third just seven points behind the leader – Texas State Rifle Association.

As the high individual in the team match, Fox received the Pershing Trophy in honor of US Army General John “Blackjack” Pershing.

As the high civilian firing in the National Trophy Individual (NTI) and Team (NTT) matches, Fox took home the Pietroforte Trophy with an aggregate score of 993-51X of a possible 1,000 points. In the three-match aggregate of the President’s Rifle, NTI and NTT, Fox earned the Mountain Man Trophy with a combined score of 1,287-60X.

The Oregon standout was second in the Overall Individual Service Rifle standings and High Civilian, posting a total score of 1,577-71X. That combination includes the President’s, NTI, NTT and Hearst Doubles matches. SFC Brandon Green of the US Army Marksmanship Unit placed first with 1,580-66X.

“The entire week, I always found myself thinking about how great shooters are, how we will help each other out even if we are in competition with each other, and the level of competition that exists is mind blowing - you have to be near perfect in this group to be able to take the top honors.”

Nick Till Wins High Civilian National Trophy, 3rd Overall in NTI

By Steve Cooper, CMP Training & Education Manager

Nick Till, 45, of Howell, MI, entered the National Trophy Individual (NTI) rifle match with high hopes. As fate would have it, his intuition was spot on, capturing the Nathan Hale Trophy with a score of 496-25X, placing third overall in the event at the annual National Matches here Tuesday, July 30.

“I started the day out with hopes to win high civilian,” Till said afterward. “I’ve been close before, years ago, losing by X’s to Jim O’Connell, of California.”

In the match’s civilian ranks, Till, James Fox, 34, of Albany, OR, and Sara Rozanski, Elmore, OH, couldn’t have finished much closer, first to third, respectively. All three fired matching scores of 496, with Till firing 25X, Fox 23X and Rozanski 22X. The trio also fire together as members of the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s highpower rifle team during the course of the year at select events in the U.S.

“I’d like to say thanks to the CMP for letting me be a sponsored shooter, traveling and shooting around the country. It helps me maintain a competitive average that I need to hang at the top with the best shooters in the country,” Till said.

The NTI course of fire, with no sighters, consists of 10 shots standing slow fire at 200 yards, followed by 10 shots sitting or kneeling from standing, rapid fire in 60 seconds at 200 yards, 10 shots prone from standing, rapid fire in 70 seconds at 300 yards and concludes with 20 shots prone slow fire in 20 minutes at 600 yards.

Till said his day started out with a 98 in the standing stage. He fired a 99-7x in rapid-fire sitting, but it became challenging in the prone rapid series at 300 yards.

“It was the most nerve-wracking position - I put on my elevation and guessed on the wind,” he said. “I took my first two shots and tried to scope them but couldn’t see them. I was worried that I could be off on the wind.

“But the target came up with a 100-7x, so that was a big relief - it kept me in the running for my day’s goal.

Till, a skilled masonry tradesman, has been participating in the shooting sports since he was a junior. His steady hand with a trowel and mortar has apparently also pay off in leveling the rifle.

“My 600 yards scores had been good all week, so I was looking forward to shooting the 600,” he said. “The pressure was bringing that first shot in and it was a 10.

“I finished the 600 with a 199. I was happy with my total for the day. I regret losing a point at sitting,” he reflected later. “Talking to my teammates afterward was fun - we all had the same score, but I had the most X’s among us,” he added with a smile.

Till’s performances also factored in to several individual and team aggregate accomplishments as well.

Nick Till is a member of Team CMP and helps instruct new competitors during the Rifle SAFS and CMP Highpower Clinics.

2019 Small Arms Firing School

By Serena Juchnowski, Feature Writer

Very few things are “one size fits all,” but the Rifle Small Arms Firing School (SAFS) comes close. An annual event conducted by the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) and Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU), participants receive one-on-one instruction on how to safely handle and fire an AR-15. SAFS has something to offer those looking to shoot a rifle for the first time, improve their skills or for those more experienced competitors hunting their introductory Excellence-in-Competition (EIC) points.

The course is a full two days, with a classroom and live-fire portion on the first day, followed by the accompanying M16 Rifle EIC match on the second. Every SAFS begins with a safety brief and basic overview of the standing, sitting and prone positions. For repeat students and/or those with more rifle experience, there is an advanced class in which more in-depth concepts are discussed and individual questions are addressed by members of the AMU. While the advanced class is conducted, the rest of the SAFS class heads to the range for hands-on position training and dry-fire practice.

At the conclusion of practice, all students fire in a 40 shot M16 EIC Match at a chance to receive a score high enough to earn their EIC points.

Repeat match winner Nathan Russell of Emlenton, Pa., reclaimed his title from 2018 with a 394-14x. Eligible competitors who scored at or above 376-8x out of a total of 400 earned four introductory EIC points.

George Kerg, of Olmsted Falls, Ohio, had set a goal of earning four EIC points at the 2018 SAFS during his first visit to Camp Perry. After missing the cut last year, Kerg spent a lot of time practicing, hoping to earn points this year. His work paid off, with a score of 379-7x earning him 26th place overall as well as the EIC credit he was so hoping to earn.

Kerg attributes some of his success to thoroughly rehearsing every shot in his head the night before the match. He recalls 2019 SAFS, saying, “Definitely an experience I will always remember. A lot of hard work both physically and mentally to get there, but it definitely paid off.”

Not everyone attending SAFS is seeking EIC points. Anthony Wilder of Nisula, Mich., found himself encouraged by a close friend to explore service rifle.

“After competing in bullseye pistol for the past five years at Camp Perry, I never knew what it was like to shoot in the rifle matches - standing at the 200-yard line with a rifle, waiting for the targets to rise and then dropping into position to shoot was really exciting.” Wilder plans to attend Rifle SAFS again in 2020 in addition to the pistol matches.

George Kerg smiles, waiting for the command to load before the sitting rapid-fire string of the M16 EIC match.

SAFS begins inside Hough Theatre with instruction from the United States Army Marksmanship Unit. The Advanced class takes place after where more in depth concepts are addressed.

Rifle SAFS Continued

Katie Payne's highpower journey began this year. An experienced hunter and competitive archer, she was a spectator during the CMP Cup Matches and with a little encouragement from her fiancé, Zachariah Walker, and coach, Jamey Williams, Payne made the trip from Helena, Mont., to Camp Perry for the SAFS.

She stated, "SAFS helped me immensely by answering questions about position refinement and wind reading/adjustment, two things I was still quite unfamiliar with."

Payne went on, "The best part of my experience at SAFS was definitely befriending and learning from an incredible female shooter from the Army Marksmanship Unit, Amanda Elsenboss.

Amanda was kind but firm in correcting me on my positions and trigger control, and my groups grew a lot tighter through my time shooting with her."

She describes Elsenboss as a role model and is excited to continue learning from her and from others across the highpower community. She also summarized her time at SAFS while encapsulating that of others.

"I grew a lot through SAFS as a marksman and look forward to applying the principles learned in practice at home. I overheard a few veteran shooters talking about how they've learned something new every time they've taken SAFS, and I believe it," Payne said. "There is no limit to the growth and knowledge you can obtain."

Competitors are paired up with experienced coaches during the Small Arms Firing School. Instruction is provided both in the classroom and on the range.

CMP Highpower Clinics Held At Camp Perry

Written by Serena Juchnowski, Feature Writer

The 2019 USMC Junior Clinic started out with a new presentation on optics.

While the Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) National Rifle Matches are most well-known for the President's Rifle Match and other prestigious National Trophy Individual Rifle matches, the CMP offers several training programs for shooters of all levels.

Each year, the National Matches at Camp Perry in Ohio present an opportunity to learn on and off the range. Clinics offer competitors an opportunity to receive outside feedback and instruction from experienced shooters before the big matches. This may fix issues before they cause lost points or prevent potential ones!

The Small Arms Firing School (SAFS)

is most tailored to new shooters and is also of interest to shooters looking to earn introductory Excellence-in-Competition (EIC) points. Junior competitors (those at his/her 20th birth year or younger) can sign up for the USMC Junior Highpower Clinic. Experienced adults experienced as well as juniors seeking something different may find Team CMP's Advanced Highpower Clinic a better fit.

The United States Marine Corps (USMC) Junior Highpower Rifle Clinic offers personalized training, dry-fire and live-fire practice and an opportunity to confirm zeroes. Many juniors attend the USMC clinic year after year, using the opportunity to sharpen their skills before the bigger matches, to reconnect with friends and to meet new juniors and to learn from members of the USMC Shooting Team.

A classroom session is held on the first day of the USMC clinic where basic safety and other information is covered. The 2019 clinic included a new presentation on optics, considering the rise in their popularity after the use of optics in service rifle was legalized a few years ago. Following this segment, previous students attended a dry-fire practice at Petrarca Range, while newer shooters remained in the classroom for more instruction. Following the extended classroom portion, newer students finished their day at Petrarca with dry-fire practice.

The Marines give several examples of their own standing, sitting and prone positions and break them down before having all participants get into their positions and dry fire. Coaches are 2019 was SSgt Ferguson's last year helping with the USMC Clinic, having been a favorite coach of the juniors in 2015, 2017, 2018, and 2019.

Benjamin D'Angelo of New York attended the clinic for the first time, focusing on learning how to shoot position with the AR-15.

2019 CMP Advanced Clinic Class

open to answering questions and to helping each junior to find the positions that work best for him or her.

SSgt Stephen Ferguson calls the clinic, “the best part of our year.” SSgt Ferguson, who is retiring, has coached the clinic for four years and will be missed in the future.

Gabriel Gaddie of Mason, Mich., spoke specifically of SSgt Ferguson in his recollection of this year’s clinic. He has attended the clinic for five years, along with his brothers and the Michigunners junior team. This year, Gabriel had the honor and learned a considerable amount about shooting a .308 from SSgt Ferguson.

“He was respectable, and I really wanted to listen to him and he made it really fun,” Gaddie said. “He’s a great guy that I really enjoyed learning from, especially because I was able to get to know him.”

Benjamin D’Angelo of Jamestown, N.Y., is relatively new to highpower, having learned about the sport three months ago from his smallbore coach. D’Angelo is one of two members of the recently revived New York Junior Highpower Rifle Team. Realizing that he has a lot to learn and hearing that the clinic was a good place to start, D’Angelo decided to attend.

“I learned that my positions all needed a lot of work and they were giving me a lot of pointers and how it is different from smallbore,” he said.

Even so, D’Angelo did find some similarity in the way the wind affected the .223 bullet at 600 yards, comparing it to shooting smallbore at 100 yards. He plans to return to the matches in 2020, for both smallbore and highpower and encourages juniors to attend the USMC Clinic giving them this advice: “Absolutely do it...there’s always new stuff that you can learn.”

Team CMP conducts the Advanced Highpower Clinic each summer and this year added a live-fire portion for the first time. The Advanced Clinic starts out with a classroom question-and-answer portion before dry-fire practice and position work on Petrarca Range.

This year Team CMP split the students into rotating groups: mental management, wind reading and live-fire standing practice. Live-fire practice was conducted in the Gary Anderson Competition Center with AiR-15 air rifles. This added a new dimension to the clinic that allowed for near immediate application of what students learned earlier in the class.

While most juniors choose to attend the USMC Junior Clinic, some opt to learn from Team CMP instead. James Friend, 19, of the Illinois Hard Dogs Junior Team, has been shooting highpower since 2013 and attended Team CMP’s clinic for the second time this year.

“I’d definitely go again,” he said. “I think you can always pick up different tips and tricks from different people.”

This year, Friend focused on rebuilding his prone position and improving mental skills. He calls the clinic “a really great place to move to the next level.”

Eva Kanupke of Maryland found special interest in the classroom portion, learning about her data book and the importance of good zeroes from James Fox and Nick Till. Their instruction helped Kanupke to relax and to realize what she should focus on to improve.

“I am used to shooting on a reduced course with no wind,” she said. “I rarely have to touch those dials, but I learned the hard way that my ‘hands off the dials’ approach is not going to cut it at Camp Perry!”

What Kanupke valued most was the one-on-one instruction from fellow left-handed female shooter Sara Rozanski. Rozanski helped Kanupke to find a position that worked for her and to develop a process that she could repeat.

Rozanski also has the praise of John Cuntz of West Chester, Ohio.

Kris Mossor practices offhand using the Air-15 rifles at the Gary Anderson Competition Center. This was the first year the clinic included live-fire.

“Sara picked coaches that are not just great highpower shooters but also great coaches that know how to coach,” he said.

Cuntz made the point that most highpower shooters do not have access to great coaches such as those at the clinic on a regular basis. He has been shooting highpower since 2011, when he got out of the Army. He made the President’s 100 for the first time this year and gave a lot of the credit to Team CMP.

“I could never have made P100 or High Master without it,” he said. “Sara [Rozanski], Bob Gill and James Fox coaching me – you just can’t get that kind of coaching anywhere else.”

Williams and Betzold Nearly Sweep Games Events

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – Victor Betzold, 64, of Bel Air, MD, and Brian Williams, 45, of Granby, MA, were nearly unparalleled during the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) Rifle Games Matches – collectively overtaking seven of the 10 challenging events on the schedule.

Betzold and Williams have been sharing the firing line as well as the top of the results list for several years now. The two are regulars at CMP vintage rifle matches and have made themselves known as both seasoned competitors and sought-after opponents.

“There’s always three or four guys, and it’s the same three or four guys that we chase,” said Williams. “It’s a good time. You become pretty good friends with those guys. I chased Victor for a long time – we’ve created a good relationship.”

Betzold returns the feelings for Williams as a competitor, saying, “Oh, what a challenge. He’s just a phenomenal standing shot, and that’s really where the games are won and lost – in standing. Any time I can challenge Brian, that’s a real big deal.”

Williams, sticking close to Betzold, led in the John C. Garand Match with a score of 291-9x, along with overtaking the 3- and 4-Gun Aggregates during the 2019 National Matches. Williams has proven himself a talented marksman with the vintage rifles, having gone unbeaten in the 4-Gun Aggregate Brian Williams has been unbeaten in the Four-Gun Aggregate competition.

(winning each year the competition has been in existence).

“My goal for the last three years has always been the 4-Gun Aggregate, so in order to do that you’ve got to do well in a couple of different things. That’s always the focus,” Williams said. “This year, I just got lucky. I got lucky with the Garand and ended up scoring a little better than everybody else. But, it’s keeping those high scores across the whole week – one or two shots can take you out of it. It’s difficult.”

Betzold, a multi-time past winner of the 3-Gun Aggregate and always on Williams’s heels during Games events, was the overall winner of M1 Carbine (377-15x, only beating Williams in x-count), Modern Military (by one “x,” with a score of 293-12x) and the Vintage Military matches (292-12x, two points above Williams, who currently held the National Record in the event).

Williams was also a member of teams that won overall with a Garand in the National Trophy Team and National Trophy Infantry Team events.

Betzold stayed humble about surpassing Williams in a few events, remarking on his win margins by smiling and saying, “Ehhh, not by much.”

Eventually, Williams and Betzold paired up during the Matches in the Service Rifle Hearst Doubles event and created a super team for the Vintage Sniper event. The duo earned the overall win in the Semi-Auto class with a score of 382-9x – Williams using a 1903 and Betzold a 1941 Springfield.

“We enjoy each other’s company,” Betzold said, warmly.

Also using a 1941 Springfield was Glendale Rutherford, 67, of Tallapoosa, GA, who was the High Individual in the Sniper Match – cleaning both slow-fire prone stages with a combined score of 200-6x. Rutherford and his teammate, Doug Armstrong, 59, of Lexington, NC, topped the Manual class with a score of 395-15x. The men have won the event multiple times together in the past and currently hold the Vintage Sniper National Record (398-23x) that they set back in 2014, which they had previously set before in 2012.

Armstrong was also the winner of the Roosevelt Commemorative Match, with a score of 289-4x.

Keith Schachle, 61, of Brooks, GA, was the overall competitor of the Springfield Match, with a score of 293-6x, just one point above Brian Williams. Schachle was also the High Senior of the Modern Military Match and the Vintage Military event.

Others earning “High” honors were Meghann Beaver, 20, of Indianapolis, IN, who nabbed the High Woman title in the Modern Military Match, along with High Junior titles in the Springfield and Roosevelt Commemorative matches. Her brother, Andrew, 17, was the High Junior of the Modern Military Match.

Thomas McGowan, 14, of Hortonville, WI, coming off of successes in the Trophy Rifle Matches, was the High Junior of the Vintage Military, Garand and Springfield MIA events.

Records and Junior Success Mark 2019 National Rimfire Sporter Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Fresh faces, returning supporters and new National records all made appearances on the firing line during the Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) National Rimfire Sporter match, fired on Sunday, July 21, 2019. Over 350 entries spread over the range throughout the day, with individuals from as far as Ireland competing in one of the most diverse events fired during the National Matches season.

The Rimfire Sporter event is designed to be an introduction to competition shooting – gathering both adults and juniors on the firing line with .22 rifles and a simple Course of Fire from 50 and 25 yards. Three separate classes of rifle are held during the event, including the O-Class (open-sighted rifles), T-Class (telescopic rifles) and TU-Class (tactical and unlimited rifles, any sights).

Jake Perry, 34, of Genoa, OH, led the TU-Class with a score of 592-27x. Scott Schindehette, 74, of Saginaw, MI, attained the High Senior title, as Davis Sodders, 20, of Baltimore, OH, was named High Junior for the second consecutive year.

Jean Redicker, 55, of Vallonia, IN, earned High Woman, fourth overall and also secured a new National Record score of 588-27x in the TU-Class. Schindehette entered the record books for himself by narrowly breaking a decade-old T-Class High Senior record score of 589-21x, set back in 2009, with his score of 289-26x.

Overtaking the T-Class was junior Marissa Bensch, 19, of Stillwater, OK, who came out on top of over 200 other entrants with an aggregate score of 595-39x.

Bensch has had successful showings during the National Rimfire Sporter events, also flourishing this year in the O-Class as High Woman. In 2017, Bensch was named the High 4-H competitor of the T-Class and was the High 4-H competitor of the O-Class at last year's National Rimfire event. This year, her brother, Brayden, 15, took her place as the High 4-H Junior competitor of the O-Class.

Regulars to the National Matches, Brayden and Marissa both said the conditions during the match were fair, with typical summer temps for the area warming up competitors as the day went on. The heat brought more challenges for participants, but the brother-sister duo relied on their experiences to help them through the match.

"The second relay was tough because when the heat hit, you started to get the mirage," said Brayden.

Marissa and Brayden Bensch's 4-H team proudly represented Oklahoma at the Rimfire Match.

Marissa added, "But it was still pretty cool, a lot cooler than Oklahoma."

Brayden and Marissa came with the rest of their Oklahoma 4-H Shooting Sports Club. The growing group practices .22 rifle, shotgun, muzzleloader, archery and air rifle.

"Basically everything that we can," Marissa said, with a smile.

The 2019 National Matches was Marissa's fourth and Brayden's third, with many returnees from their 4-H Club and even some new faces brought into the tradition. The juniors credit their skills, both on and off the firing line, to the knowledge they've received from being a part of a 4-H organization.

"We have really good coaches and really good competitors," said Brayden. "Everyone who shows up is really nice and it's a really good program to get started into."

The Bensch family got involved in 4-H after participating in YHEC – a Youth Hunter Education Challenge for juniors ages 9 to 19. The training they received there got them hooked on the sport and led them to discovering even more about the fundamentals of competition shooting.

"After we learned about it, we tried our best to shoot as good as we could," said Brayden. "Then we found goals and got good coaches, good friends taught us a couple things and we just kept shooting to the best of our abilities, which we took on pretty well."

Marissa went on, "Really, 4-H has become our second family. Everyone's got good spirits about everything – well-trained sportsmen. It's a great program, especially for younger youth starting out, even if it's not in shooting sports."

"It teaches a lot of leadership skills and just life skills starting out and continuing to go on as young adults," she said.

"You can also get to know pretty much anyone from around the state or around the country," Brayden added. "It's really good people, good friends."

In other T-Class results at the 2019 Rimfire event, Nathan Tornow, 18, of Gibsonburg, OH, earned High 4-H Junior as Rachel Slizewski, 18, of Commerce, GA, took home the High Junior title. High Woman of the T-Class was junior Brenna Steger, 17, of Sandford, NC, who landed fourth overall.

Steger went on to earn the overall win in the O-Class with a score of 590-24x. Shannon Heist, 20, of Heath, OH, was named High Junior, and Timothy Ovaert, 60, of Notre Dame, IN, finished third overall with a score of 572-15x – claiming the High Senior title.

New and Familiar Faces Top Standings During National Air Gun Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – The Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) National Air Gun events, fired each year alongside the National Trophy Pistol and Rifle Matches, gives experienced competitors and those simply looking for a fun challenge the rare opportunity to compete on a national level. With a variety of air rifle and air pistol competitions designed to accommodate most ages and abilities, everyone is welcome to come and give their best shot at becoming a champion.

Winning the 60 Shot Air Pistol Championship was Javier Medina, 52, of Morouis, PR, with a score of 566-13x. He also outshot second place competitor Scott Beyer, 47, of Lebanon, IL, by just one point for the win. Medina went on to also be the top competitor in the 30 Shot Air Pistol event, with a score of 287-7x.

High Woman of the 60 Shot event was Shelly Liu, 49, of Cary, NC, as Sam Kwon, 20, of New York, NY, claimed the High Junior title. Ben Amonette, 64, of Radford, VA, finished as the High Senior and fourth overall with a score of 560-12x.

Ronald Morales, 62, of Rocklin, CA, fired a score of 369-6x to top the 40 Shot Air Pistol Match.

In 60 Shot Air Rifle, the ladies led as Samantha Shultz, 17, from Fort Wayne, IN, claimed the top spot by one point, with a score of 611.9. She beat out fellow female competitor Abi Winegarden, 36, of Pittsboro, NC, who fired a score of 610.2. Junior Claudia Muzik, 13, of Green Springs, OH, finished in the third place position, with her score of 601.8.

Winegarden and Nicholas VanRyswyk, 17, of Coopersville, MI, fired exact scores in the 30 Shot Air Rifle Standing event, compiling scores of 300-20x. Jacob Day, 14, of Columbus, GA, trailed by just one point – having dropped a point in his first round of 10 shots and ending with 299-20x.

SFC Brandon Green, 34, of the Army Marksmanship Unit, earned the overall win in the AiR-15 Challenge, impressively only dropping two points for a score of 398-14x. He narrowly beat out competitor Brad Schoenemann, 19, of Lodi, WI, who earlier in the week had accompanied Green on the firing line during the President’s Rifle event, claiming the High Junior title.

During the Challenge, competitors fire in a 20 Shot Match using AiR-15 lead pellet air guns that mirror the look of highpower service rifles. Unlike previous years, where the Top 20 would compete in a shoulder-to-shoulder elimination Shoot Off, the Highest Scoring competitor of the event was named the winner.

In Bench League competition results, Rodney Snyder, 63, of Fremont, OH, overtook the AiR-15 match by firing a score of 309.2. Larry Kiraly, 66, of Perrysburg, OH, led the sporter match with a score of 314.7, as Philip Edwards, 71, of Marblehead, OH, earned the precision win, with a score of 319.7.

Thomas Wonderly, 73, of Portage, OH, led the 40 Shot Vintage Air Rifle Pneumatic Sniper Match, with a score of 394-9x.

A Top Center Shot competition was also held during the 30 Shot Standing Rifle and Pistol matches, where the competitors firing the top eight closest shots to center receive monetary prizes, based on the number of entries. In pistol, Glenda Hurt, 48, of Red Oak, IA, received $210 for earning the closest shot, while Frank Baumgartner, 16, of Fort Wayne, IN, received $51 for the closest rifle shot.

Sunderman Overtakes Prone 6400 Agg.

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – SGT Patrick Sunderman, 24, of the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU), was the overall competitor in the Open category of the Prone 6400 Aggregate Championship, fired as part of the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) National Smallbore Matches lineup of events. SGT Sunderman compiled a score of 6385-500x in his win.

Returning to Camp Perry in 2018, the National Matches Smallbore program expanded in 2019 to give competitors even more opportunities on the firing line. The Prone 6400 Aggregate was part of the additions, along with a smallbore Small Arms Firing School. As a result, participation in the events grew, with competitors traveling from as far as Australia and Ireland to compete in the fresh smallbore schedule.

“Coming into the matches, it felt pretty good,” said Sunderman. “We’ve been on the road for a little while shooting other matches. I felt prepared. It’s also good wind training for us too so it was a lot of fun to get to shoot and see how it all worked out. We tried some new stuff, learned some new things and it was pretty fun.”

SGT Sunderman was also the overall winner of the Prone Any Sight competition, with a score of 3195-258x. Sunderman secured the win only in x-count over new teammate SP4 Jared Desrosiers, 22, who was successful earlier in the week during the Three-Position smallbore events.

“He’s one of our newer guys, but he’s a good team player. Very supportive,” said Sunderman. “It was a lot of fun to see him do well and actually win the 3P. You know, good for him. He worked hard for it. He’s a great teammate – they all are actually.”

Sunderman and his team, USAMU Gold fired a score of 1598-119x for the overall win. Helping him towards the title was SPC Brandon Muske, SP4 Desrosiers and SGT Kevin Nguyen.

From here, members of the AMU will be preparing for the 2020 Olympic tryouts, set to take place in the coming months.

SGT Patrick Sunderman was the overall winner of the National Prone 6400 Agg. Smallbore Match.

“That’s a whole other racket,” Sunderman joked. “But it should be fun.”

In the Iron Sight Championship, Mark Del Cotto, 59, of Lexington, KY, topped Sunderman by three points to earn the overall title. John Whidden, 43, of Nashville, GA, earned third in both the Iron and Any Sight competitions – also coming in just behind Sunderman in the 6400 Aggregate as the second place competitor.

Antonio Gross, 19, of Ontario, NY, led the Junior 6400 Aggregate, landing fifth overall in the Open category with his score of 6367-430x. Gross was also the top junior in the Any Sight Championship (earning fourth overall) and came in second in the Iron Sight match behind Scott Rockett, 16, of Cary, NC, who fired a score of 3181-209x for first.

Gross had given exceptional performances during the three-position events, leading in the Junior Aggregate event as well as the Junior Iron and Any sight matches. He kept his cool on the line, despite the level of competition and used his physical and mental training to find success.

“It is Nationals, so there’s a little bit of pressure, makes you prepare and get ready for things like equipment malfunctions. But you just treat it like every other match,” he said.

A member of the University of Akron rifle team (majoring in automated manufacturing engineering technology), Gross has been practicing all year long and keeping up his training twice a week in the off-season. He came to the National Smallbore events as a member of the New York State Rifle & Pistol Association team, which went on to win in the Three-Position Team Championship.

The growing National Smallbore Matches added a new Freedom’s Fire three-position junior two-member team event. Winning the match this year was Putnam County Gun Club members Mitchell Nelson and Zach Jackson, with a score of 1101-23x.

Antonio Gross excelled in many categories during the smallbore matches, including the Three-Position event.

Other Three-position Smallbore Results:

SP4 Jared Desrosiers of the AMU claimed the overall Open Aggregate, with a score of 2305-93x. He earned the win by outshooting AMU teammates SPC Brandon Muske, 24, and SGT Patrick Sunderman, who took second and third with scores of 2297-89x and 2290-101x, respectively.

SP4 Desrosiers also topped the Any Sight Championship, with a score of 1155-47x – just four points over teammate SPC Muske. Junior Antonio Gross fired a score of 1149-47x for third.

In the Junior Aggregate, Gross led overall with a score of 2287-79x over second place competitor Mitchell Nelson, 19, of Charleston, WV. Scott Rockett earned third.

Gross also led the juniors in the Any Sight and Iron Sight Championships.

Howard Pitts, 54, of Taft, TN, led the Iron Sight Championship, with a score of 1198-90x. Following in second was Michael Naylor, 51, of Lakewood, OH, with a score of 1194-78x, as Ed Foley, 75, of Louisville, TN, earned third with a score of 1185-65x.

Taking over the State Association Team Championship was New York State Rifle & Pistol Association Wolfe Pack, with a score of 2140-55x. Junior team members were Abigail Benson, Antonio Gross, Michael Dziabo and Edward Hahn. Pennsylvania Rifle & Pistol Association Gold led the Junior Team match, with a score of 2084-35x.

As last year, smallbore events were scored with the help of Orion Scoring System, an innovative scoring software app was designed to read shot scores by snapping a photo. After firing concludes for each stage, CMP personnel walk downrange with a handheld device to take photos of each target, which links directly to the Orion scoring system to identify shots and score accordingly.

Photos of the smallbore events can be found on CMP's Zenfolio page at <https://cmp1.zenfolio.com/f430049319>.

History of Smallbore at the National Matches:

The National Matches made its debut in 1903 and first appeared at Camp Perry in 1907. Through its long history in the following decades, which included two World Wars and other military conflicts that periodically halted the annual event, the National Matches has seen events come and go, and come again – including smallbore.

The first smallbore rifle events in the National Matches were held in 1919 at the initiative of the CMP's predecessor, the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice. The National Rifle Association (NRA) became active in smallbore activities in the 1920s and 1930s, with a focus on youth, Dewar Team Matches and U. S. international team trials.

The smallbore rifle prone 3200 Aggregate became an established national championship in the years after World War II and was conducted in several locations during those years before it returned to Camp Perry in 1953.

An NRA national position championship was first fired at Camp Perry in 1958, with prone and position championships continuing as parts of the National Matches until 2014 when the NRA moved its smallbore rifle competitions to Indiana.

Returning to its 1919 roots, on July 17, 2018, the very first CMP smallbore event, and the first National Matches smallbore event held on Camp Perry's soil in 5 years, fired on Rodriguez Range – beginning a new tradition of smallbore at Camp Perry.

Tight Scores Prove High Level of Talent Seen During 2019 National Long Range Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – In only its second appearance at the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) National Matches, the Long Range events have attracted some of the most talented contemporary marksmanship athletes currently firing the circuit – as seen by the impressive and consistent final scores marked up during the 2019 competitions.

The 2019 National Long Range Matches returned with an updated, extended schedule of events to accommodate the popularity reached during its inaugural showing in 2018. Displaying a variety of individual and team events, the Long Range Matches provide 1,000-yard competition that both challenge and commemorate the spirited legacy of the National Matches, Camp Perry and those who secured and continue to establish marksmanship freedom for the United States.

Athletes in the series of events fire Long Range, Service or Palma rifles during competition, with awards dispersed accordingly. The level of talent on the firing line consisted of skilled military marksmanship unit members and civilians who produced scores so close that many winners (some of whom recorded perfect scores of 200) were determined by x-count only. With others separated by only one or two points, it’s clear that the National Long Range Matches at Camp Perry offer the unique opportunity to fire alongside some of the country’s best.

Winning the overall Long Range Rifle Aggregate was SSG Amanda Elsenboss, 30, of the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU), with a score of 1641-95x. In her overall win, Elsenboss also claimed the top spot in the Viale Memorial Match, Critchfield Memorial Match and the Henry Memorial Match and finished within the top five competitors in the remainder of events.

Earning the win in only x-count above Elsenboss in the Baesel Memorial Match was teammate SSG Erin McNeil, 31, with a score of 197-12x. Elsenboss also reached the runner-up position in the McMaken & Speaks Memorial Match, matching the same score but eventually falling to civilian competitor Robert Gill, 60, of Visalia, CA.

In team events, Elsenboss joined her AMU comrades to earn the overall win in the Bataan Memorial Match. SFC Brandon Green, SP4 Forrest Greenwood and SGT Ben Cleland helped achieve a score of 795-41x to narrowly overtake the event by x-count.

SGT Cleland, 26, claimed an overall win of his own in the Kerr Memorial event by a one-x margin, with a score of 200-14x.

The Overall Aggregate for Service Rifle was SGT Verne Conant, 23, of the AMU, with a score of 1608-67x – just 11

SSG Amanda Elsenboss was the overall Long Range Rifle competitor of the National Matches.

x’s above second place competitor and teammate, SSG Scott Peterson. Conant was also the overall winner in the Critchfield Memorial Match, while Peterson, 35, overtook the top spot in the Henry, McMaken & Speaks and Baesel Memorial Matches.

Aggregate winner of Palma competition was Keith Hoverstad, 64, of Cary, NC, with a score of 1634-92x. Hoverstad also led overall in the Viale, Kerr (firing a perfect 200) and Camp Perry Palma events. Coming in second was former AMU head coach Emil Praslick, 52, of Woodinville, WA, who claimed the win in the Henry Memorial by firing a perfect 200 score.

Other winners of the Long Range events include:

Viale Memorial Match:

Service Rifle: SGT Jonathan Wannemacher – 197-10x

Match Rifle: Matthew Zagorski – 198-8x

Critchfield Memorial Match:

Palma Rifle: SSG John Cogshall – 198-12x

Match Rifle: Matthew Zagorski – 195-7x

Kerr Memorial Match:

Service Rifle: SGT Lane Ichord – 198-8x

McMaken & Speaks Memorial Match:

Palma Rifle: Daniel Altman – 200-10x

Before he squeezed the trigger and sent a bullet barreling into the distance at Rodriguez Range to officially open the national matches, Stone said Camp Perry is one of those places, like Augusta and Omaha, that is known more by name, then the event that takes place.

Stone, a West Point cadet, once shot at Camp Perry, saying it was a goal for many of the cadets to qualify for their team, because that meant they would shoot at famed Camp Perry.

“I knew if I made the intercollegiate team, then I would go to a place called Camp Perry,” Stone said. “I didn’t know Camp Perry, but I knew it had to be a special place.”

Many war heroes have shot at Camp Perry over the 113 years of its existence.

Stone’s shot is the latest in a long line of openings to the national matches where close to 4,000 shooters from around the world will compete in air rifle and pistol matches.

Mr. Cris Stone opted to fire his own M1 Garand for the First Shot Ceremony.

Top photos: Distinguished guests, including (left) Cris Stone, CMP CEO Judy Legerski and Congressman Bob Latta of Ohio’s 5th district, attended the First Shot Ceremony.
