ABOUT BCS SPORTS ACADEMIES

BCS Sports Academies were developed to provide a platform for young athletes and pupils to reach their potential in sport. We work to create an environment where the pupils feel happy to push themselves to their limits and are supported in doing so. The academies primary aim is individual improvement which also feeds into whole school sport improvement.

Training takes places around school lessons, before and after school and we aim to have minimal impact on academic studies. The academies can boast international and national gold medallists as well as grade 9 and A* A level academic grades across various subjects. We are passionate about the academies and have worked hard at building them from their roots.

COACHING PHILOSOPHY

Our team of coaches are all sportsmen in the true sense of the word, encouraging our pupils to win, but also preparing them to act as suitable ambassadors for their sport and their school.

Many of our pupils are being trained for elite success, but as a school our Sports Academies have been designed to ensure that Academy members maintain their sense of reality, of moral living, of sportsmanship and of the need to support their teammates.

As a school, the Academy has been designed to not only deliver the very best sporting opportunities, but also to make sure that the educational, pastoral and social needs of the Academy pupils are carefully and expertly nurtured.

BCS has a range of top coaches and support staff who have local, national and international experience in their chosen fields. The expertise that these experienced coaches and staff bring to the school has enabled our own sports and physical education department to excel, and the school teams are more successful than ever.

AECC PARTNERSHIP

AECC University College provide sport science testing and support through their Sport Performance Centre facility to Bournemouth Collegiate School (BCS) Sport Academy. Students at BCS gain specialist fitness, performance, movement, physical and psychological support delivered by the University College's specialist expertise, propelling student athletes to the next level and assisting them to reach their potential.

The Sport Performance Centre provides a range of sport science, performance and rehabilitation testing, analysis and intervention services to external clients and user groups. Staff in the Sport Performance Centre have extensive experience working across a broad range of sports and at different levels of expertise.

Staff have also worked with performers and teams across a comprehensive range of sport and performance settings including: athletics, badminton, cricket, cycling, football, golf, lacrosse, martial arts, rugby, sailing, squash, tennis, triathlon, volleyball, and ultra-distance running.
