DAVE WARRINER

In memoriam:

This annual gala is dedicated to the memory of former BPSC club chairman Dave Warriner who passed away suddenly and unexpectedly on 22 September 2013, aged just 47.

Dave was the Chairman of Basildon & Phoenix Swimming Club at the time of his death. He was also head of the Water Polo section of the club and coached the under-13 water polo team. Dave was one of the key 'movers' in obtaining Beacon status for the club and led the club enthusiastically as chairman from January 2012 until his death. He was always prepared to go the extra mile for others and particularly so when it came to the swimming club and water polo.

Dave died of a suspected heart attack, leaving a wife, Jane, and two children, Oscar, 12, and Patrick, 10. Just weeks before he died, Dave was incredibly proud when the Basildon & Phoenix U13 water polo team, including his own son Oscar, won the London League competition, beating larger clubs from as far afield as Watford and Sutton.

Dave founded and managed the successful Go-Polo scheme for younger water polo players providing a steady stream of young players into the club. His great wish was to introduce the sport to a wider audience of new young players and also keep children involved in sport. Dave was also the water polo representative on the ASA regional board.

A former journalist who's true passion was always sport of all kinds Dave had also been a keen hockey and rugby player although his first love was always Water Polo. In his youth he was part of a very successful Hornchurch Water Polo team who became England under-18 champions and he even played in a minor game for Great Britain.

Not a man to take it easy, Dave was also a governor at Becket Keys C of E School, Brentwood and former Chairman of Havering Hockey Club. Dave will be remembered for his enthusiasm for all sports and as well as being a water polo coach he had also coached at both hockey and rugby.
