TOP 100 SITES 2015

A HOLIDAY PARK can really make or break your trip. Whether it's large or small, if something's not quite up to scratch, you could easily find your trip ruined.

It's crucial to get campsite recommendations and read reviews: those who have been before can give you a true insight into what to expect.

That's why we believe our annual Top 100 Sites Guide to be so vitally important. Each and every year, thousands of you – more than 13,000 for 2015, in fact – have your say about the UK sites that you think deserve recognition and praise for the service that you've received. Our team of experts considers each and every entry, before finalising this list: it's your handy, all-in-one guide to the best UK campsites and holiday parks.

This year you'll find a huge variety of sites; so, whether you're in a caravan or motorhome, camping under canvas or renting out a caravan holiday home for a week, you'll find somewhere here that's sure to make your trip the best it can possibly be. Enjoy your travels!

Northern Ireland

What's not to love about beautiful Northern Ireland? It offers a wonderful combination of stunning scenery, welcoming locals, fascinating historic landmarks and vibrant, buzzing cities. It also has a host of great campsites, two of which feature in our Top 100 this year.

If you're visiting the rugged, wild north coast, Ballyness is a great place to stay; you'll easily be able to access the Giant's Causeway, the Bushmills distillery and the rest of the many attractions in this area. Rushin House, meanwhile, is perfect for those touring around Enniskillen and the northern reaches of the Republic.

Wherever you're staying in Northern Ireland, don't miss a trip to fabulous Belfast, with its handsome architecture, great restaurants and atmospheric vibe.

Touring pitches 50, all hardstanding Pitch+2+hook-up £25

We say...

Ballyness Caravan Park scores consistently well in our Top 100 sites guides, and continues to do so for 2015: it's one of just two Northern Irish sites to make it as finalists this year. It's well located for a tour in the area: Giant's Causeway, Bushmills and the spectacular Antrim coast are all within easy reach.

Back on site you'll find 50 pitches spread across three areas; all touring pitches are hardstanding and have electric, water and drainage hook-up points. Other facilities at Ballyness include free Wi-Fi, an indoor games room and a motorhome service point.

You say...

- “A very well-maintained site. Very friendly owners. Toilet blocks are kept spotlessly clean.”
- “Utterly fantastic. Impeccably clean, underfloor heating in showers. Power showers with properly hot water. Beautiful site with a small lake and swans and a nice walk. Plenty of space between caravans and lots to do in the area. Also some great restaurants.”
- “Clean and tidy, and the toilet facilities were excellent. The space between units is far greater than at other sites. The site is also planned in such a way that each unit has a high degree of privacy.”

TOP 100 SITES 2015 REGIONAL WINNER

We say

This popular site in Co Fermanagh has taken the top spot in the Northern Ireland region over the past few years, and holds its position again for 2015. Each time you tell us how much you love the facilities, the welcome and the views, and we can't argue – this is a top-class site that continues to impress.

Rushin House is right beside Lough MacNea, and enjoys tremendous vistas across the water. The 38 touring pitches are individually serviced, and the site prides itself on its eco-friendly facilities, including wind-generated electricity, outdoor furniture made from recycled materials, and movement sensors on park lighting. So it's not surprising that it was the first site in Ireland or the UK to be awarded the EU Flower, recognising environmental quality.

We're pleased to award Rushin House our regional award for this year; it's a worthy winner once again.

You say...

- “Beautiful views, and the cleanest site I have ever been on. All Tarmac pitches with loads of room. Great outside play park for kids and small football pitch. Owners are very welcoming and extremely helpful.”*
- “It was like a hotel! Toilet facilities were immaculate and the site was so clean and tidy. Staff were very helpful, too.”*
- “Our hosts were extremely friendly and welcoming, and could not have done enough for us. The site and its facilities were spotlessly clean, and the children's play park was a great success. We've already booked for next year!”*
- “Very safe and spotlessly clean – a very tidy, well-presented caravan park. Free Wi-Fi (good signal on all pitches – tried this out) is a bonus. We are seasoned motorcaravanners and always select very carefully which caravan parks to stay at.”*

Scotland

Wonderful Scotland really is a country that's just perfect for those who love the great outdoors – it's incredibly easy to find yourself a bit of peace and quiet, whether you're in the Highlands and islands, or visiting the beautiful Borders area. It also has some of the UK's greatest and most vibrant cities, including Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dundee, Inverness and Aberdeen.

A total of five top Scottish sites have made it through to our Top 100 shortlist this year, and each and every one of them is worthy of a visit. You can really escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life at Seal Shore, on the lovely Isle of Arran: it proved particularly popular with those staying in tents. Kippford Holiday Park makes a great base for exploring the fascinating and historic Borders, while Sands Caravan and Camping Park occupies an idyllic position close to the beach, with views right out across the water. Finally, if you're a whisky lover, don't miss a stay at the Granttown-on-Spey or Aberlour Gardens caravan parks – they're both in Speyside.

Aberlour Gardens

Caravan Park

Address Aberlour, Speyside, AB38 9LD Tel 01340 871 586

Web www.aberlourgardens.co.uk Open 1 March-27 December

Touring pitches 73 (16 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £20.15-£25.10

We say...

A quiet and relaxing break is sure to be had by all visitors to the pretty Aberlour Gardens site, which lies in Speyside, north of the Cairngorms National Park; it's open to tourers and tents, with a wooded area specifically dedicated for those who choose to camp. There's a well-stocked shop where you can purchase local produce, a motorhome service point, and a fish-and-chips van that visits the site on Thursday evenings – perfect if you don't fancy cooking. A two-bedroom holiday home is available for hire to guests who fancy staying in static accommodation.

You say...

- “We loved the quality of the caravan that we stayed in, and the cleanliness of the park in general.”
- “This is a very well-kept site, and very peaceful. We found that the owners would do anything to help in any way that they could.”
- “This site is in nice surroundings, and there are a lot of distilleries in the local area!”
- “Well maintained, as well as home to wonderful wildlife. Nice, friendly and welcoming owners. The toilets were lovely and cleaned each morning. There are lots of interesting walks to be enjoyed around the site, too.”

We say...

Beautiful Dumfries and Galloway is the location of Kippford Holiday Park, which is a great place for a relaxing break away for those of all ages. The site offers a variety of accommodation, including numerous lodges (some with private hot tubs), comfortable beach huts, spacious caravans and an attractive touring and camping area. Facilities accessible on the latter include a launderette, electric hook-ups and a shop that's open for much of the year.

Kippford village itself is only a 15-minute walk from the site. There you'll discover a couple of pubs and two sheltered beaches.

You say...

"The whole site is very impressive, well set-out and visually attractive."

"Even though this is a large site, it doesn't feel like it. There are loads of walking and cycle tracks, as well as golf opposite, and bus stops outside the park. It's perfect, and one of our favourite sites."

"Very clean and well-presented. Fantastic showers. Very friendly and great for families. Lovely area, and staff were really friendly and helpful. Lots of information and help about where to go and what to do in the area."

Sands

Caravan and Camping Park

Address Gairloch, Wester Ross IV21 2DL Tel 01445 712 152

Web www.sandscaravanandcamping.co.uk Open 27 March-2 November

Touring pitches 70 Pitch+2+hook-up £18.50-£21

We say...

If you're touring to the western Scottish Highlands, don't miss a visit to Sands Caravan and Camping Park, one of our finalists for 2015. It welcomes touring units, with two separate areas set aside for tourers and tents. You can choose where to pitch up, selecting a spot with a view across to the Isle of Skye or a more sheltered location. If you don't have a tourer or tent, you can stay in one of 10 heated wooden 'wigwams', a caravan holiday home or the six-person Sands Holiday House.

Facilities on the site include a games room, play and picnic areas, a shop (open from April-October), a dog-walking area and the lovely Barn café.

You say...

"The overall layout is excellent for pitching; there's no need to be close to anyone else, even at the height of summer. All the facilities are superb, from the excellently stocked shop to the indoor cooking area to the toilet and shower blocks. It has a really family-friendly atmosphere and a stunning location."

"They have absolutely everything you need. It is so relaxed and family-friendly, with plenty of space for everybody and an amazing beach. You couldn't ask for more. We love it!"

Granttown-on-Spey Caravan Park

in the Heart of the Cairngorms

Located in the heart of the Highlands and within the Cairngorms National Park, our picturesque park is only a half mile from the historic town with its many shops, pubs and restaurants. The area is a haven for walking, golfing, and fishing in the famous River Spey. Park facilities include a modern children's play park, luxury toilet blocks, Wi-Fi Internet, two laundries, and superpitches with satellite Sky TV included and Sky boxes supplied by us.

Our friendly staff offer advice and have walking trails ready prepared for you. Teeming with wildlife, the nearby forests and trails are also a paradise for dogs.

Web www.campingarran.com Open April-October

Touring pitches 40, 10 with hook-up Pitch+2+hook-up £20

We say...

This beautiful, quiet, family-run site on the Isle of Arran is a regular in our Top 100 Sites Guide, and for many good reasons. For starters, there is its location close to a private beach; on a good day you'll be able to see right across to Northern Ireland. Fresh fish is available to buy from the owner, who is a registered fisherman, and local wildlife is in abundance: visitors can spot otters, basking sharks and grey seals.

The site has 10A electric hook-up to the touring pitches, Wi-Fi, a TV room and a launderette. Two large camping pods were added last year, so you can stay even if you don't have a caravan, a motorhome or a tent.

You say...

"This is the best site I have visited in a long time. It has great facilities and stunning views. The friendliness of the owners makes this the only site to visit on the Isle of Arran. On arrival, we were treated like old friends by the owner and his daughter, and throughout our stay they could not have been more helpful with advice on places to visit. This is the perfect place to relax and recharge your batteries."

"We have been camping for 30 years, but we wish that we had found this site earlier."

15-18 May 2015Isle of Arran Mountain Festival

Various locations, Isle of Arran

Lace up your walking boots and take to the hills of the lovely Isle of Arran, for the area's annual Mountain Festival. There will be almost 20 events for various levels of fitness in which to take part, but bear in mind that most of the walks include quite an ascent, and some demand scrambling. All of the events begin and end at Arran Adventure, which is alongside the Playbarn at the Auchrannie Spa resort; transport is provided from there to the start of the walk.

REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

This year's Top 100 regional winner for Scotland is the fabulous Granttown-on-Spey Caravan Club-affiliated site. You told us how much you loved its location, facilities and the welcome that you received, and we agree with everything that you said. It's open to both club members and non-members, including those staying under canvas.

Facilities at the park are of a high standard, and include clean, tidy, heated washrooms, Wi-Fi access, a games room and a shop. Elsewhere on the site you'll find some lovely wooden 'wigwams', which even have Sky TV.

There's much to see in the surrounding area. Attractions include the town of Granttown-on-Spey itself, the Speyside Way and the Cairngorm Funicular Railway.

You say...

- "The site is extremely well-maintained, with friendly staff, and very good facilities and services. It was recommended to us and has lived up to our expectations."*
- "I have been visiting this site for 45 years and I'm always made welcome. Improvements show it is moving with the times."*
- "We loved everything here: the perfection, the cleanliness, the staff. I even saw workers sweeping the road. The play park was ideal for the kids, and the choice of pitches was brilliant."*
- "We appreciated the level of cleanliness and the layout of the site. We were particularly impressed with the underfloor heating in the toilet block; even in summer, the warm feeling when you step out of the shower is bliss."*

Wales

Wales is a hugely popular holiday destination, so it's not surprising that so many great campsites there feature in our Top 100 year after year. In our 2015 guide you'll find that there's a good spread across the far reaches of the country: from Tyddyn Isaf and Homefarm on the beautiful Isle of Anglesey, to Llandow Touring right down in the south. The latter is just perfect for allowing you to explore the bustling and fantastic city of Cardiff, where you can enjoy some shopping, watch a game of rugby and take in the wonderful Doctor Who Exhibition.

Central Wales is less well-represented this year: Woodlands Caravan Park is the only site you'll find in the region. However, it makes a great base from which to visit lovely Aberystwyth and surrounds.

Finally, you'll be spoilt for choice if you're planning to visit the north of Wales, with a number of great sites there making it into our Top 100 once again.

Bodnant

Caravan Park

Address Nebo Road, Llanrwst, Conwy Valley LL26 OSD Tel 01492 640 248

Web www.bodnant-caravan-park.co.uk Open 1 March-31 October

Touring pitches 35 (20 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £19.50-£20.50

We say...

Bodnant Caravan Park – near Llanrwst in the lovely Conwy Valley – is a family-run site that's renowned for its beautiful landscaping; it has won a Wales in Bloom award for many years running. Not only does it look pretty, but it's also a haven for wildlife. Visiting bird species include nuthatches, herons, sparrowhawks and buzzards.

Those with a touring unit will stay on one of 35 full-service pitches with connections for 16A electricity, TV, water and waste-disposal. There are 14 tent pitches with electric hook-up, and two caravan holiday homes are available for rental, each of which will sleep four.

You say...

“Could not fault a thing. As a bonus, lovely to have a Welsh-language welcome, as well as Welsh/English signage.”

“Beautiful and very well-kept gardens and pitches. Everywhere and everything spotlessly clean. Wonderful mountain views in all directions. Warm and welcoming owners. Even the holidaymakers were friendly. We loved the ducks and chickens. This site has now become our firm favourite over all others.”

“The amenities were cleaned regularly and accessible. The owners are approachable and very kind.”

Bron Derw

Touring Caravan Park

Address Llanrwst, Conwy LL26 0YT Tel 01492 640 494

Web www.bronderw-wales.co.uk Open 13 March-31 October

Touring pitches 35, all hardstanding Pitch+2+hook-up CL under £16, other sites £21-£23

We say...

Visitors to Bron Derw have a choice of three separate touring areas: the main park, an adults-only area and – for members of the Caravan Club – a five-pitch Certificated Location. Each has its own unique atmosphere, meaning that you can select a pitch that will best suit your needs and those of your travelling companions.

The site is just five miles from Betws-y-Coed, which is a gateway to the Snowdonia National Park. As such, it makes the ideal base for walkers or cyclists keen to explore the area. It's also within easy reach of the pretty North Wales coast and its many attractions.

You say...

- “This is a very clean site with well-maintained grass areas. The toilet block is cleaned every day, and it has plenty of hot water. There's a nice view across the valley.”
- “Excellent clean and luxurious facilities. Park grounds immaculate. Lovely large pitches all fully serviced at a reasonable price. Close to all major attractions, including the seaside and Snowdonia. The staff were helpful but were not in your face. One of the best sites we have stayed on.”
- “The site is pretty, clean and tidy, and the owners are so very friendly and helpful.”

Home Farm

Holiday Park

Address Marian-glas, Ynys Môn LL73 8PH Tel 01248 410 614

Web www.homefarm-anglesey.co.uk Open 27 March-1 November

Touring pitches 102 Pitch+2+hook-up £21.50-£31.50

We say...

Visitors to the Isle of Anglesey will love Home Farm Holiday Park, which welcomes caravans, motorhomes and tent campers. There's a separate section for private holiday homes. The latter is sub-divided into three further areas, each of which offers easier access to certain parts of the park. A number of spacious pitches are available for large RVs.

The camping section is also separated into a trio of areas, and most tent pitches offer electric hook-up. Site facilities include clean washrooms, a shop and an indoor children's play area.

You say...

- “Very peaceful, extremely well-maintained, lots of trees, shrubs and planting, including dedicated wildlife areas. Our neighbours included rabbits, a robin, blue tits, magpies, wood pigeons... The washrooms are really well-designed with lots of thoughtful touches, such as soap dispensers at the washbasins that aren't in cubicles, clean cloths to wipe down all washbasins, free hairdryers and efficient electric hand-dryers that really work.”
- “It is very clean and tidy, and the landscaping is immaculately maintained. The staff are very friendly and helpful.”

Web llandowcaravanpark.campstead.com Open 1 February-30 November

Touring pitches 175 Pitch+2+hook-up £17.50-£21.50

We say...

This popular touring park in the Vale of Glamorgan is just a few miles from Wales' southern Heritage Coast, so it's perfect for those with children who fancy a trip to the beach. It's also well-placed for visiting the vibrant cities of Swansea and Cardiff. Moreover, it is easy to reach from the M4 motorway.

Back on site – where you're assured a warm welcome – you'll find free Wi-Fi, laundry services, a children's play area and a shop. Touring caravans, motorhomes, tents and trailer tents are all welcome at the park, which is split into two areas: the main site, which is the more family-friendly, and a newer touring area.

You say...

“The wardens were very friendly from the moment we booked to the time we'd pitched the tent. The site is kept in great condition and has very good facilities.”

“Helpful staff, ideal location for visiting beaches and towns. The site was very clean with excellent facilities, and had a dog walk on site.”

“Great location for the beach, the valleys and the attractions of Cardiff. Excellent facilities but most of all the friendliness of the wardens. The owners make visitors so welcome. They go above and beyond in every way.”

BEST SITE
Small

We say...

If you're looking for a great place for a quiet getaway in South Wales, you won't go far wrong with the adults-only Llwynifan Farm site. It's a member of the Tranquil Touring scheme, and has great facilities, including heated washrooms, dishwashing sinks, a dog-walking area and Wi-Fi access.

All pitches are hardstanding, while full-service pitches have water, electric, grey-water disposal, a courtesy light and a picnic bench.

Improvements for 2015 include the installation of a washing machine and tumble dryer, and there are plans afoot to offer 'days out' via a local taxi service.

You say...

“Great welcome from the owner. Informative welcome pack. Small site with terrific views from all pitches. Quiet area. Good toilets and showers. Central to many nice places to visit. I have stayed here many times now and each year they have made new improvements.”

“The layout of the pitches means every van is treated to a most spectacular view. Fresh individual hand towels in the toilets which are spotless. Every detail is attended to and the owners always on hand. Certainly among the top three sites we have visited.”

A friendly park between Overton-Ellesmere on the Wales and Shropshire border on the A528. The park is a perfect base for relaxing or exploring the Welsh and Shropshire countryside. Touring pitches are fully serviced and deluxe, all hard standing with free wifi and fishing. A dog walk is adjacent to the park. Open all year.

Touring pitches 54 Pitch+2+hook-up £17.50-£19.50

We say...

Twelve acres of beautiful countryside make up Plas Farm Caravan Park. It opened in 2007 and has since become popular with caravanners, motorcaravanners and tent campers alike.

There are lots of amenities that will help you enjoy a comfortable stay at the site, including clean washrooms, a launderette and washing-up sinks. The park has its own area of woodland, too, where you can watch wildlife in true peace and quiet.

Local attractions include Conwy Castle and the town of Llandudno. There are also lots of walking routes nearby to follow.

You say...

- “The site is stunning. We appreciate the attention to detail, the cleanliness and the upkeep of the site and amenities. We got the warmest of welcomes. We stayed four years in a row, and will return as soon as time allows!”*
- “The tent site was well-kept, with tables and lush grass. A lovely forested walk is attached, as are good facilities. There was also a kitchen and fridges for the campers. After walking around the caravan site, I was amazed at the beautiful and secluded pitches for caravans. The reception appears to be open most of the time, too!”*

Web www.riverviewtouringpark.com Open 6 March-15 November

Touring pitches 62 (46 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £17-£21

We say...

River View Touring Park is proud of its ecological initiatives, and rightly so. It has an extensive environmental policy, the washrooms are fitted with solar heating, and native species of trees and shrubs have been planted around the site. Unsurprisingly, the site holds numerous David Bellamy Gold awards, which recognise the work on green issues that has taken place here.

All the facilities at the site are of a high standard, and are sure to make your stay comfortable. The washrooms have underfloor heating, there's a shop stocking local produce, and the pitches have 16A electric hook-up.

You say...

- “The site is maintained to a very high standard, with pleasant staff and superb facilities. The staff are constantly working around the site to maintain the high standards.”*
- “It's clean, friendly and, most important, quiet and safe.”*
- “Excellent facilities, immaculately clean and tidy throughout the day. Very plentiful piping-hot water for washing, showers, and washing up. Site very well laid-out and beautifully maintained. Very friendly, with efficient booking and reception systems.”*

Touring pitches 100 Pitch+2+hook-up £23-£26

Adults
only

We say...

Tyddyn Du regularly appears among our Top 100 Sites; each year, you tell us just how much you love the facilities, the location and the welcome that you've received. The adults-only site accepts touring units as well as tents. The site also hires out a two-berth static caravan. Special deals on seven-night stays on a touring pitch are available throughout the year.

The site offers tremendous views across Conwy Bay, right over to Anglesey. There's plenty to do in the immediate area, too, with the towns of Conwy and Llandudno just a few miles down the road. Tyddyn Du is also well-placed if you're planning to explore the Snowdonia National Park, and it is close to a lovely, award-winning beach.

You say...

"Lovely site, very friendly, everything clean and tidy. Great location for North Wales. Great views and sunsets!"

"Immaculate grounds, which were tended frequently to keep them that way. The toilet block and laundry blocks were spotlessly clean. There was no litter at all."

"Nothing is too much trouble. It's like being at home!"

Web www.tyddynllwyn.com Open 1 March-1 November

Touring pitches 120, all hardstanding Pitch+2+hook-up £18-£28

We say...

It's the standard of facilities at Tyddyn Llwyn – at the foot of Moel-y-Gest mountain – that you really love. A lot of thought and effort by the team has gone into providing everything to make your stay special.

There's so much to do here, thanks to the licensed bar and grill, secondhand-book library, children's play area, games room and more. All caravan pitches have an all-weather surface, and the stunning washrooms won the park a platinum Loo of the Year award in 2014. Assistance is also available if you're a new caravanner and are worried about pitching up.

You say...

"Every time we go, the staff are so helpful and friendly."

The site is ideally located, so you can walk to town or the beach. I recommend this site wherever I go!"

"We have a seasonal tourer there. The site is well laid-out."

They now do evening meals in the pub on site. The staff are very friendly and helpful. We've been going for five years and we are very fussy. We love the place."

Touring pitches 21 (14 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £25-£34

We say...

If you're looking for a quiet, peaceful break in North Wales, the Willows should certainly be on your shortlist of places to stay. It's a small site but offers excellent facilities, including free Wi-Fi, a dog-exercise field and dog-minding service, smart toilets and showers, 16A hook-ups and a tourist information point.

You'll still enjoy your visit if you don't have a touring unit or tent; you can also stay in one of the lovely 'hobbit' wooden units, the site's park home, or the unusual Eye-Pod – a cosy circular cabin fitted with a TV, DVD player, convertible bed and lots more.

You say...

"The people who own it are extremely friendly and very helpful. The toilets and showers are the cleanest I've seen outside a spa. The site is immaculate and quiet, and the views are amazing!"

"The cleanliness is second to none. The friendly owners cannot do enough to help. They do not allow large noisy groups to use the site, which is really refreshing and makes for a relaxing stay. There is no overcrowding, thanks to its spacious, marked pitches."

"Clean, peaceful and not overcrowded. Children can play safely. A small and select site."

We say...

Devil's Bridge is a pretty village in Ceredigion, close to the famous waterfalls of the same name. It's also the location of Woodlands Caravan Park, a popular site that has pitches for tourers and an area of static caravans that are for sale. A self-catering bungalow is also available for rental.

The touring area is set away from the static caravans, and has level pitches. There's a campsite shop with tearoom adjacent that sells drinks and snacks, as well as a children's play area and heated washrooms – the latter were new for 2014, and also feature a family room and separate facilities for the disabled.

You say...

"Cleanliness and tidiness of the site were perfect, friendly nature and helpfulness of staff was also second to none – really helpful. Their knowledge of the area is superb; they are happy to share the little hidden gems of the area. Facilities are spot-on; the toilet block has been referred to in online reviews as better than many hotels'; they are not exaggerating! We didn't want to come home. Simply the best site we have ever stayed on."

"Always clean and tidy, well-stocked site shop and tearoom. Fantastic new toilet block."

SITES
2015
REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

Tyddyn Isaf Camping & Caravan Park has won a whole host of awards over the years, including the AA's Wales Campsite of the Year 2014. It can now add its status as our 2015 regional winner to its long list of accolades.

What's more, it received more than twice as many votes as any other Welsh site.

Holiday homes are available to buy here, but there's plenty of space dedicated to touring units and tents on two good-sized fields with views over Lligwy Bay. Those staying on site can use the attractive bar and coffee shop, while children will enjoy spending time at the play area or pool table. The Terrace Restaurant offers home-made meals, while the small on-site shop stocks essentials. If you fancy stretching your legs, you'll be able to take a wander through the park's woodland, too. With so much on offer, it's easy to see why you voted this your favourite site in Wales.

You say...

"It's run by a family concern; this is evident in the upkeep of the facilities. The bar and restaurant are a definite bonus to the site with locally sourced food on the menu. We would recommend this site to anyone with high standards."

"There's easy access to the beach and coastal path. This really is a lovely, quiet site."

LOOK 066 01/15

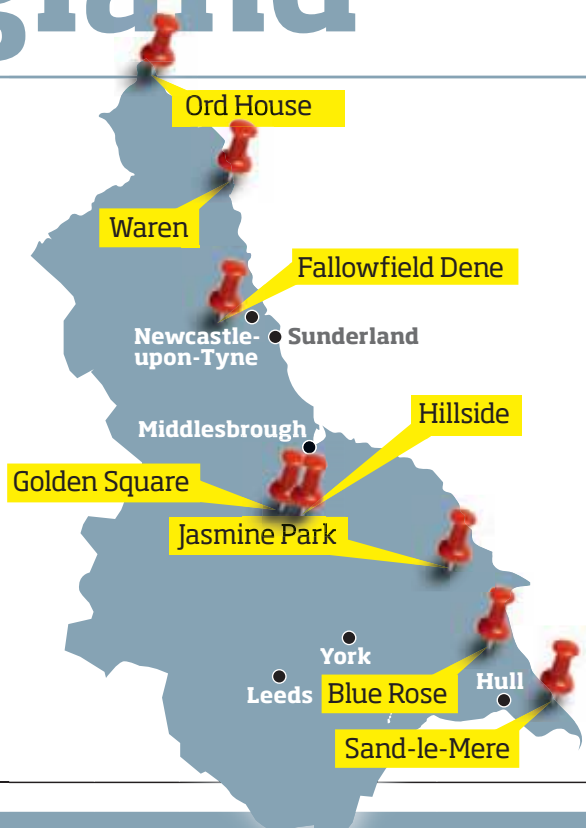

North-East England

This region's coastline has been hugely popular with holidaymakers for centuries, and the locations of our Top 100 finalists for 2015 really reflect this. They all are situated within easy reach of the rugged beaches and rocky shores that make up this stretch. Among the highlights here are the lovely towns of Whitby and Scarborough, both perfect as family-getaway destinations.

But if city breaks are more your thing, you're also spoiled for choice for somewhere to stay. Among the great urban areas to go here are the vibrant cities of York, Leeds, Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Hull. No matter where you want to visit, you'll easily find a campsite that's near enough for a day's exploration.

Those who enjoy walking should be sure to make England's North-East one of their must-visit destinations: the North York Moors offer tremendous rambling opportunities, as do the miles of path that run alongside historic Hadrian's Wall.

We say...

Blue Rose Caravan Park is a quiet, restful place to stay – no wonder that among its visitors it can count numerous forms of interesting birdlife, including bullfinches, yellowhammers, barn owls and woodpeckers. Human guests at the site, meanwhile, can enjoy fully heated washrooms, a launderette, fully hardstanding pitches with electric hook-up and many other great-quality amenities.

Blue Rose is well-placed if you fancy walking the Yorkshire Wolds, and is a 20-minute drive from the lovely beach at Bridlington. It's also only 15 miles from Hull, so is handy for a quick break before catching a ferry.

You say...

“How friendly everyone was – the owners and the warden. The site was immaculately looked after, nothing was too much trouble for them.”

“Lovely site. Because this is adults only, it's quiet with a great location and lots to do. Great warden and owners. Super pitch is a bonus. When we return it's like coming home.”

“Very clean and well laid-out. The site is well-maintained and very pleasant. The staff and other visitors were all very friendly. The toilet block was spotlessly clean, with plenty of hot water.”

We say...

Hadrian's Wall is a popular place with history lovers and walkers; if you're planning a visit, be sure to consider a stay at lovely Fallowfield Dene Caravan & Camping Site, which is handily located close to the A69 trunk road. Despite this, it's a peaceful and quiet site that offers all visitors a relaxing break.

Fallowfield Dene has been thoughtfully landscaped with trees, so that pitches feel secluded; all of the latter have 16A electric hook-up, too. The cafe@TheDene serves sandwiches, snacks and afternoon teas, while the dedicated walking area is sure to prove popular with dog owners.

You say...

"The site is set out in a lovely way, very well-cared-for and managed. The site wardens make the site even better, they are friendly and full of smiles; a very warm welcome and friendly banter throughout our stay."

"The site was beautifully maintained and the facilities are always clean. The site is secure and at night always quiet. The pitches are big and the areas are spacious. The seasonals have their own secluded pitches and no pitches are uniform or the same."

"A peaceful location but close to Hexham"

We say...

The AA's 2015 Campsite of the Year winner in the North-East England category can add another accolade to its tally this year: it's also a finalist in our Top 100 Sites awards. It's located in the North Yorkshire Moors National Park, and offers some lovely rural views. Unsurprisingly, there are plenty of walking trails to enjoy in the area, and fishing and pony-trekking opportunities are available.

Back on site you'll find luxury toilet blocks, a shop, play areas, and some deluxe, all-service pitches. There is also a waste-water disposal point suitable for those touring in a motorhome.

You say...

"From the stunning views to the spotless toilet block and the brilliant play parks in between, our family loves this site. Staff are very thoughtful and helpful and the site has everything we were looking for. Really is very difficult to find anything negative to say."

"The staff were very friendly and helpful and the site was clean and tidy. There is also plenty of space available."

"We loved everything, but particularly the peacefulness, cleanliness and very friendly staff."

We say...

Our North-Eastern regional winner for 2012 returns to our listings for 2015; you voted for it in droves, telling us how much you enjoyed your stay there during the past year. Fifty fully serviced pitches are available for tourers, each of which has electric hook-up, gravel hardstanding surface, fresh- and waste-water connections, and a TV aerial point. There are also 15 extra-large super pitches, which are around the park's attractive lake.

Elsewhere on site you'll find smart washrooms with underfloor heating, a children's play area, a washing-up point and a launderette. Hillside is close to the North York Moors National Park, with all that this stunning area has to offer.

You say...

"Extremely well-presented site, so well-maintained and peaceful. The family that runs Hillside always gives a warm welcome, and the atmosphere is serenity itself."

"Very friendly and helpful owners. Big pitches, great toilet block, very clean. Overall friendly atmosphere."

"This site has been well thought-out. We have a 40ft American RV, but the pitches are more than big enough to accommodate us with no overhang to prevent other vehicles passing."

Jasmine Park

Address Cross Lane, Snainton, Scarborough, North Yorkshire YO13 9BE Tel 01723 859 240

Web www.jasminepark.co.uk Open 1 March-1 November

Touring pitches 65 (40 of which are seasonals) Pitch+2+hook-up £22-£37

We say...

Jasmine Park is a beautiful site that's located between Scarborough and Pickering; its proximity to the lovely Yorkshire coastline is sure to appeal to visitors of all ages, who will be able to enjoy the pretty beaches, SEALife Centre and many other attractions.

There are numerous luxury two-berth static caravans to rent at Jasmine Park; all have a stylish, open-plan layout and are fully equipped. Those with a touring unit (including tents), meanwhile, will be able to pitch in one of a number of fields. Available for everyone is the licenced shop, information centre, Wi-Fi internet (chargeable) and more.

You say...

"It's lovely and clean, tidy and everyone seems very respectful of each other. There is never any noise late at night and the staff are very helpful."

"The site is stunning, hanging baskets are tended to with scissors, the camping fields are a true utopia! I'm very torn writing this because I don't want it to become so popular that when I ring in future I might hear 'I'm sorry we are fully booked' but credit where credit is due."

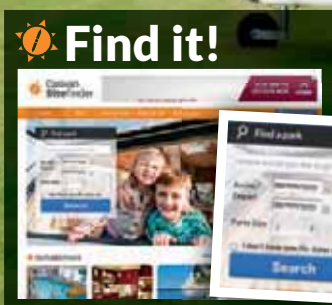

"Really nice setting. It's well-maintained, The people are friendly. The amenities are excellent. We love this place."

You'll truly be spoiled for choice for things to do at Sand-le-Mere Caravan Park. This is a full-facility site that's just perfect for those looking for a fun family break. Activities to enjoy during the day include fishing, crazy golf and swimming in the indoor pool complex. In the evening you can visit the bar and restaurant and be entertained by a variety of performers, at the same time as the children dance at a kids' party. Most activities are included in the cost of your stay.

Site accommodation includes lodges and caravan holiday homes, and there is also an area for touring units. Those with a tourer are welcome to use the site facilities and take part in activities.

You say...

"Everything about this site is amazing, from the staff on reception to the maintenance man. It is clean and, as a single parent, I was well-looked-after; they were always there to help out."

"Something to do for all the family. Clean and tidy public areas. Friendly staff. Excellent entertainment."

"The caravan was clean and big for three adults, three children and a dog. The beach is on the doorstep and the staff were very helpful."

We say...

Waren Park makes a fantastic base for exploring the numerous highlights of Northumberland: just some of the many attractions within easy reach are a number of stunning historic buildings, including Alnwick Castle, Paxton House, Bamburgh Castle and Chillingham Castle, as well as the Holy Island of Lindisfarne.

The campsite welcomes touring units; alternatively, you can also hire a wooden 'wigwam' or fully equipped caravan holiday home. Site facilities for everyone to enjoy and make use of include a seasonal splash pool, family-friendly restaurant and bar, a children's play area, licenced shop, a laundry and heated washrooms.

You say...

"We stayed in the wigwams for very first time because we aren't tent people, but these were a great alternative. Very clean with enough facilities necessary for our break."

"We loved the location, the facilities and the cleanliness of the site. The staff are also very friendly and make you feel very welcome."

"Our children loved the outdoor pool and games room. Great food in the restaurant and reasonably priced."

2015
REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

Last year's North-East regional winner has done it again for 2015: hundreds of you gave it the thumbs-up, telling us just how much you loved the site's setting, facilities, the welcome that you received and much, much more.

There's been a caravan site here – set in the grounds of Ord Manor House – for decades, and much care and attention has been given to the park over the past few years to keep the facilities at an impressively high standard. Touring pitches are arranged on attractive terraces, and all have electric hook-up. The washrooms are beautifully smart and heated, and there's a dedicated motorhome waste-disposal point.

You can also choose to stay in one of the 10 wooden 'Wishbone' lodges, which sleep four.

With exemplary facilities sorted for your stay, you won't have to head too far off-site to enjoy many of Northumberland's attractions; these include the Angel of the North, the Berwick Coast and Hadrian's Wall.

No wonder you voted Ord House as your favourite site in the region once again!

You say...

"This site was immaculate in every way, with exceptionally clean toilets and showers. The grounds were neat and tidy. The staff in the site shop were friendly, the food and drink in the clubhouse were cheap. I didn't have children with me but there were adequate facilities for them."

"The facilities were top-class and the staff were friendly."

All pitches have electric hook-up, the grounds are neat and tidy, the reception and shop are manned by friendly staff and there's a good little playground for children

A HILARY DEVEY DRAGONS' DEN INVESTMENT

North-West England

Many – or perhaps most – visitors to the north-west of England are attracted to the Lake District, and for good reason: it's one of the country's most breathtakingly beautiful areas. It's also perfectly set-up for visitors, with a slick, efficient tourism network that encompasses the host of top-quality campsites you'll find here.

This year, five of the six parks that have made it through to our Top 100 list are within easy reach of the Lake District, meaning that you'll be able to explore it with ease. Stanwix Park, meanwhile, is a little further north: it's perfect for visiting the Borders area, with its fascinating and turbulent history.

While you're here, though, don't miss the chance to head south and take in some traditional seaside locations, including Blackpool – known for its world-famous illuminations and sandy beach – and Morecambe. You'll also be able to enjoy a break in Liverpool; this historic and handsome city became a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2004.

We say...

Holgates' Bay View Holiday Park is a firm favourite with those who travel in either a tourer or prefer static accommodation, and for a number of good reasons. It's handily placed for exploring the many highlights in the area, which include Morecambe Bay, the Forest of Bowland and all of North Yorkshire. The original farm buildings on the site have been converted into a welcoming bar, restaurant and shop, and younger visitors are sure to enjoy the games room. There are also plenty of walking opportunities in the area.

Touring units (including tents) are welcome here. Alternatively you can rent one of the comfortable camping pods or a holiday home.

You say...

- “This is a fantastic all-round site. Such a beautiful place.”
- “Friendly staff combined with a spotless site make for a perfect holiday.”
- “Lovely countryside, clean site, excellent facilities, not too noisy or too commercial. This was a return visit, which should speak for itself.”
- “We liked the overall cleanliness and appearance of the site and also the warm friendly welcome. The site bar and restaurant have a good menu.”

We say...

Full-facility Silverdale - our 2014 regional winner - is a sister park to Bay View (see page 37) and Holgates' flagship site; there's a huge amount to do here, including making use of the fantastic leisure centre. The latter features an amazing heated pool complex, including sauna and steamrooms; you can even take part in aqua exercise classes. Alternatively, you can visit the well-equipped gym.

After a workout, why not head for the restaurant and bar? There you'll be able to enjoy a drink and tasty food; free Wi-Fi is also available in the bar.

Touring units are welcome here, but there is limited space for tents due to the undulating ground; large tents are not accepted. As an alternative, you could stay in one of the eight wooden camping pods, or even hire a luxury, six-berth holiday home.

You say...

"We have known this site for 30 years; it remains consistent in the way its facilities are kept. Its beautiful setting is one of nature's gems; you never tire of it."

"It's got everything a family could wish for: great pitches, super facilities and a fabulous location. We love how clean the site is and that it never feels overcrowded."

We say...

Family fun is guaranteed near the Cumbrian coast at Stanwix Park, which offers a great number of facilities to keep everyone - young and old alike - entertained for the duration of your trip. Much of the site is dedicated to static units, but there are two attractive areas set aside for tourers. All pitches are hardstanding and have 10A electric, water and waste hook-up points.

But it's the site facilities that really score highly here. You'll find a couple of swimming pools, a well-stocked shop, a great café, bars, amusements, snooker and pool tables, and even a 10-pin bowling alley. In addition, bikes, tennis equipment and even sunbeds are available to hire.

You say...

"The facilities were excellent and the evening entertainment is by far the best we have ever had. All the staff were friendly and helpful when you needed information. We would rate this park 100%."

"Good clean vans with good choice and pet-friendly ones also. Touring pitches are great; stayed on these before, as well as in Stanwix's own statics. Best site I have been on, and I've been caravanning for more than 40 years. Already booked for two more stays later in the year."

Address Pooley Bridge, Ullswater, Cumbria CA11 0JF Tel 01768 486 302

Web www.waterfootpark.co.uk Open 1 March-13 November

Touring pitches 31 (all hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £15.50-£28.50

We say...

There are many lovely campsites in the Lake District, but Waterfoot is one of the best - it offers a great location close to the village of Pooley Bridge and some fantastic facilities. The latter include 31 hardstanding touring pitches with electric hook-up, a children's play area, licensed bar, coffee lounge, beautifully clean toilets and showers, and a shop. Tents aren't accepted at the site, but those without a tourer can stay in one of a pair of wigwams, both of which are fully furnished.

Waterfoot is near the many attractions that the area has to offer, particularly those around lovely Ullswater.

You say...

- “We have two small children and felt it was a very safe and clean site with great facilities. The staff were excellent and very friendly, too.”
- “Flat site for tourers, friendly staff, very clean facilities, quiet at night.”
- “So clean and has everything you need. The clubhouse that is open in the evenings is lovely.”
- “We loved the helpfulness and friendliness of staff, the excellent showers and washblock and the site's location.”

We say...

If you fancy a little camping luxury in the Lake District, then a stay in one of Woodclose Park's wigwams would be a great choice: there are four types to choose from, some of which can sleep two adults and up to three children, and one even has en-suite facilities. Visitors – whether staying in a wigwam, touring unit or tent – can use the excellent on-site facilities, which include a pair of heated washrooms, a shop, bicycle hire, children's play area, Wi-Fi-connection (chargeable) and a tourist-information area.

In the local area you'll find the River Lune and Devil's Bridge, both of which are within walking distance.

You say...

- “We love visiting Woodclose Park and regularly stay in a wigwam. The staff are so friendly and welcoming, nothing is too much trouble. There is a great atmosphere at the park, which is relaxed, so you really feel as if you can get away from it all. I also feel safe, I let my children play freely which, in this day and age, is a blessing. I wouldn't consider any other caravan park because none would match Woodclose for its standards. I am a very satisfied and loyal visitor!”
- “We've been before and will always come back here. It is a beautiful campsite in the most beautiful of settings.”

REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

The North-West region in this year's Top 100 was particularly hard-fought. In the end, just 20 votes separated the top three sites. But it was Park Cliffe that you voted your favourite, and we have to agree with your choice.

The site, which is alongside Windermere, offers so much to visitors, whether they're in a touring unit, or hiring one of the park's comfortable static caravans or sheep's-wool-insulated camping pods.

Those with a motorhome or caravan will be able to enjoy the stunning vistas: most pitches have a view of beautiful Moor How. The facilities here are well-kept and extensive, including a shop, children's play area, and bar and restaurant. There are a number of four-berth, fully furnished static caravans, close to the site's amenities, and the camping pods come in standard- and family-sized.

Finally, do keep an eye out for Chester and Taylor, the site's two cats!

You say...

"This is a clean, well-managed site with good amenities and very helpful, friendly staff. It feels like returning home each year we come back."

"I loved everything about this site. The location was great for us, and all the staff were very helpful and friendly. All the facilities were spotless. We'll definitely be back."

"Friendly and efficient, but a relaxed atmosphere. Very clean facilities. We felt that we were so welcome to stay on this very pretty site."

"The site is maintained to an exceptional standard and boasts stunning views. There are beautiful walks from the campsite, which are designed by staff."

Eastern England

Wildlife lovers will really be in their element in this region of England: the waters of the Norfolk Broads are a haven for birds and other fauna, and you'll find a host of reserves where you can sit and observe them in peace. Other, more urban, attractions here are the handsome and historic towns and cities of Norwich, King's Lynn, Cambridge and Colchester: the last is the oldest recorded Roman town in the UK.

The stretch of coastline in this area is also not to be missed. It ranges from the pebbled beaches of Suffolk to the famous shores of Skegness and beyond, taking in the sands of Norfolk, too.

Eight great campsites have made it through to our Eastern England final listings for 2015, including a couple of new entrants – Walnut Lakes and Cherry Tree Touring Park – both of which are for adults only. Congratulations go to them, as they join other, more-seasoned regulars in this closely fought regional category.

only

We say...

The adults-only Cherry Tree Touring Park is a well-maintained, attractive site near a lovely stretch of Lincolnshire beach that's been awarded a Blue Flag: it's just a 20-minute stroll away. If you prefer your walks a little more strenuous, the Lincolnshire Wolds are within an easy driving distance. The nearest village to the park – Sutton-on-Sea – has pubs, a post office and a shop.

Back on site, you'll find 20 seasonal pitches, 40 hardstanding touring pitches, all of which have electric hook-up; 10 of these are fully serviced. Other facilities include tidy washrooms, a laundry room, washing-up facilities and Wi-Fi (for a small charge).

You say...

"Absolutely immaculate – such attention to detail. Nothing was too much trouble for them. The pitches were generous. A delightful site."

"Outstanding facilities, maintained to an exceptionally high standard by hard-working, friendly and enthusiastic owners. Large pitches, some of which are fully serviced. Layout of the site provides a variety of pitching areas, all with appropriate privacy so that the site feels 'open' but private."

Fen Farm Caravan Site

We say...

The seaside resort of Skegness has attracted visitors for hundreds of years, and it remains as popular today as it's always been; fortunately there are lots of campsites close to the town that will easily allow you to explore the area – and Eastview is one of the best. The 15-acre site is open to caravans, motorhomes and tents for up to eight people; if your tent is larger, you should contact reception before booking.

Clean washblocks, electric hook-ups, a small launderette and washing-up facilities are available, as is Wi-Fi, for which there is a charge.

You say...

- “Lovely staff. Clean shower/toilet blocks. Beautiful site, really friendly. Kids love it. So impressed with first stay, we are camping there every month!”
- “Very friendly and welcoming site, with lovely clean shower blocks and underfloor heating. The children’s play area is amazing. Nothing is too much trouble for the office staff.”
- “Great facilities, good prices, good location and friendly staff. It’s a five-minute walk from the beach and Chapel St Leonards centre. All round, this site offers great value for money. We have returned a number of times over the past three years.”

We say...

If you fancy a quiet and relaxing tour, you’ll find just that – and a warm welcome – at Fen Farm. It’s a family-run park that has been a caravan site for more than 90 years; its visitors have long-enjoyed the attractions of Mersea Island, and continue to do so.

Fen Farm is a peaceful site: you won’t find any bar or club here, but you will be able to see some lovely nature and birdlife. Facilities at the park include award-winning toilets – the washrooms have solar-powered water heating, too – 10A electric hook-up, a launderette, information centre, Wi-Fi and more.

You say...

- “It’s a lovely site – extremely clean and tidy, with fantastic washroom facilities. It’s peaceful and relaxed, with plenty of space, even when fully booked! It’s got lots to do in the area. Well worth a visit.”
- “The site has excellent ‘green’ credentials – not only wildlife areas but also solar power used to heat hot water. Staff are friendly and efficient. They also offer great local knowledge. Very family-friendly but, above all, not commercialised or tacky. Book early to avoid disappointment.”
- “The site was well maintained and looked stunning.”

Highfield Farm is a family-run site that's perfectly located for exploring beautiful Cambridge; it's just five miles to the west, and you can easily catch the No 119 bus into the university city if you don't fancy driving your car or motorhome in.

The eight-acre site has been carefully separated into distinct areas, allowing guests to be pitched in the best part of the park for their needs and wants. There are 10A electric hook-up points throughout Highfield Farm, a small shop, a dog-exercise area, a launderette, grass and hardstanding pitches, and a motorhome service point.

You say...

"We loved the friendliness of the staff, and the spotless shower/toilet blocks. The condition of the ground was excellent for a tent. Lovely walk for site users around the site on adjoining farm land. It had a happy, welcoming feel as soon as we arrived and this continued throughout our stay."

"The site is immaculate. The grounds are beautifully maintained and the facilities are excellent. The washrooms are kept extremely clean and constantly have hot water."

We say...

Petwood is a relatively large caravan park – it has almost 100 touring pitches – but it manages to retain a lovely, intimate atmosphere. That's thanks in part to the site's layout; those pitches are laid out in terraces, so you'll never be too far from the clean washrooms or the shop that can be found at the park's entrance. A motorhome service point is just another welcome feature here, as is the dog-walking area and a small lending library.

The village of Woodhall Spa itself has a number of attractions, including Kinema in the Woods, the interesting Cottage Museum, and the National Golf Centre.

You say...

"Staff were always on hand to help. We loved the cleanliness of the facilities. The site is obviously well cared for."

"We have stayed at and enjoyed this campsite in the past and found the standards to be consistently high, even during the peak season. The staff are very friendly and efficient: they make running a site look easy – I am sure that it is not!"

Walnut Lakes

Caravan Park

Address Station Road, Algakirk, Boston, Lincolnshire PE20 2LQ Tel 01205 460 482

Web www.walnutlakes.co.uk Open 1 March-31 October

Touring pitches 10 Pitch+2+hook-up £13 + pre-paid electric card (£1-£5)

We say...

Enjoy a relaxing holiday in this lovely area of Eastern England with a stay at the 10-acre Walnut Lakes Caravan Park; those who like angling will particularly enjoy their visit, because there's a pair of fishing lakes stocked with roach, bream and carp. The hardstanding touring pitches are around the lakes, and there are tidy washrooms for visitors to use. There are four lodges for hire at the park, too; fishing for two is included in the cost of the rental.

Walnut Lakes is within walking distance of the village of Sutterton, where you'll find a couple of pubs, restaurants and a chippie takeaway.

You say...

"This is one of the best-laid-out sites that we have ever stayed on in 30 years of camping – and that includes on both club and private sites. We found the entrance to the site to be well-marked."

"The site is well laid out, with plenty of space available between pitches, and plenty of fish in the lakes. We found the staff to be so friendly and helpful."

"The facilities here are very clean – we found the washroom amenities here to be pristine. The owners were very accommodating, too."

Web www.woodhallcountrypark.co.uk Open 1 March-30 November

Touring pitches 110 (80 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £19-£23

We say...

Those who enjoy watching wildlife will be in their element at Woodhall Country Park, which incorporates a series of paths and wetland meadows to create an area that fauna find irresistible. The 110 pitches are set amid the woodland, and the facilities have been designed to fit in well with their surroundings. Pods are available for hire if you'd prefer your camping to be a little more luxurious!

There's plenty to do on-site, including fishing at one of a trio of lakes stocked with carp, tench and rudd. Bike hire is also available, allowing you to take to one of the many cycle paths in the surrounding area.

You say...

"The staff are friendly, welcoming and informative about the local area. The site itself is set in a beautiful location with a big focus on nature and recycling. The facilities are clean and if any issues arise, the staff are always quick to respond and rectify them. They also patrol the site on a frequent basis, which helps make you feel safe and makes them more approachable."

"We just loved everything about the site. The price was very good and it was nice to have a good-sized, fully serviced pitch. The toilet/shower block is lovely and clean."

REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

Run Cottage was our regional winner last year, and it has continued to impress for the 2014 season: once more you voted it your top site in the area, and it takes our category trophy once again.

It's a beautiful, family-run site with 45 pitches that's in a lovely location close to Suffolk's Heritage Coast. It makes a perfect base for exploring the area's many attractions, including the Sutton Hoo archaeological site, the castles of Framlingham and Orford, Constable country and the towns of Aldeburgh and Woodbridge.

The focus at Run Cottage is very much on giving visitors a quiet, relaxing break, and that's exactly why it's so successful: there's no bar or restaurant, but you will find wildlife in abundance, modern washrooms, electric hook-up and lovely views over open farmland.

You say...

"This is an extremely quiet, very friendly and well-run site. It's very clean and tidy, and it provided a wonderful base from which to tour the area."

"This is our fifth visit in the two years we have been touring. We always receive a very friendly welcome. The site is spotless, with plenty of space for the van and awning. The information area has maps, books and DVDs to borrow."

Heart of England

This vast area of England offers so much for the visitor – it’s a true region of contrasts. One of the most popular areas to visit is the beautiful Peak District National Park, with its fine opportunities for walking and cycling, but there are also the less dramatic – yet equally beautiful – rolling hills of the Cotswolds, with their accompanying quaint towns and villages. Stratford-upon-Avon is a major attraction, of course, as is the historic city of Oxford. For a less-touristy break, try Hereford or Warwick. Birmingham, meanwhile, is fantastic for a day trip: you’ll enjoy good food and a spot of shopping while you’re there.

There’s a great range of campsites to choose from among this year’s regional finalists; often this category is dominated by parks in the Peak District, but this year there are plenty to enjoy towards the south of the area, too. Those touring without children are particularly well catered for: five of the 11 sites here are for adults only.

only

We say...

Those touring in the Peak District without children should seriously consider a stay at the adults-only Clover Fields Touring Park. It’s a wonderfully relaxing place to stay that is also compact. Improvements for the coming season include the opening at Easter of 15 fully serviced touring pitches to join the existing 25 fitted with 16A electric hook-up. Clover Fields also has tent pitches equipped with water and hook-up.

Despite the site’s size, the level of facilities here is of a really high standard. They include a shop, a motorhome service point and the Teapots Café, which is fully licensed and serves snacks, breakfasts and supper on Fridays.

You say...

“We loved the attention to detail here. We last visited seven years ago and thought it was a good site then, but now we feel it is excellent.”

“The whole site is run to a very high standard. I can’t speak highly enough of Clover Fields.”

“The site is clearly looked after by a family that takes pride in and loves what they do. The customer service is excellent with nothing being too much trouble. On our recent visit, the site took the time to order our tickets for Chatsworth.”

Adults
only

We say...

Those who enjoy angling will love a visit to Eye Kettleby Lakes. As its name suggests, there are bodies of water on-site. In fact, there are seven great coarse-fishing lakes that visitors can use for a small fee.

Accommodation is divided between comfortable luxury wooden lodges – of which there are 12, each of which has a private hot-tub – and a 61-pitch touring area with lovely views across the Leicestershire countryside. All visitors can use the clubhouse, where they'll find the site's reception area and lounge, and where you can get breakfast, enjoy a beer or play a game of pool.

You say...

- "We have been going there for the past year and we simply won't go anywhere else. We have been to see other sites but nothing can compare with Eye Kettleby Lakes, and my husband loves the fishing. We are spending the whole of Christmas and New Year there and we simply cannot wait!"*
- "All staff are lovely, cannot do enough for you. Everything was in perfect condition, everything you needed. Everything was spotlessly clean."*
- "Fabulous, fabulous, fabulous. Every year I go to Eye Kettleby Lakes and hate leaving. Couldn't wish for a better place to stay."*

Glencote

Caravan Park

Address Station Road, Cheddleton, Leek, Staffordshire ST13 7EE Tel 01538 360 745
Web www.glencote.co.uk Open 1 February-31 December
Touring pitches 100 Pitch+2+hook-up £25

We say...

'You'll end up wanting to stay longer!' claims Glencote Caravan Park's website, and with so much on offer to enjoy both on-site and further afield, we can fully understand why you would. There is a number of privately owned static caravans on site, but also a separate touring area laid out on tidy terraces. There's a well-stocked and pretty fishing lake, and a dedicated play area that children will love.

The park is well-located for exploring this lovely part of the Midlands; it's handy for visits to Alton Towers, Chatsworth House, the town of Bakewell and more.

You say...

- "This park was clean and very tidy. The staff were very friendly and helpful. The grounds were kept to the highest standard. I couldn't find anything that wasn't absolutely perfect."*
- "The campsite was beautifully laid-out and very attractively landscaped."*
- "Very well-kept site, owners extremely friendly and helpful. Lovely walks along the canal."*
- "A very neat site with good facilities."*

The Green

Caravan Park

Address Wentnor, Bishop's Castle, Shropshire SY9 5EF Tel 01588 650 605

Web www.greencaravanpark.co.uk Open 27 March-1 November

Touring pitches 140 Pitch+2+hook-up £18.50

We say...

The Green Caravan Park is an attractive 15-acre site located in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, with the River East Onny as a highlight. The shallow waterway runs through it, and a number of the touring pitches are along its banks.

The site is subdivided into various pitching areas, each of which has its own distinct atmosphere. You'll spot wildlife in abundance here, and part of the park has been left wild to attract plant and animal life.

If you fancy a trip off-site, you'll find plenty to discover in the area. Among the attractions are the handsome towns of Shrewsbury and Ludlow, and the castles of Stokesay and Montgomery.

You say...

"The reception staff were friendly and informative, while the washrooms were clean and were regularly checked."

"I loved the location alongside the stream, which looked very clean. The goods in the site shop were reasonably priced and the park staff were friendly."

"The park has a friendly but quiet atmosphere, and the facilities here are good."

"The Green Caravan Park is situated in a beautiful location, and feels very spacious."

Lincoln Farm Park

Address Lincoln Farm Park, High Street, Standlake, Oxfordshire OX29 7RH

Tel 01865 300 239 Web www.lincolnfarmpark.co.uk Open 6 February-8 November

Touring pitches 90 Pitch+2+hook-up £22.30-£30.80

We say...

There are few sites in the UK that offer facilities as smart or as comprehensive as those at the nine-acre Lincoln Farm Park. Its inventory of amenities includes tidy luxury washrooms, a games room with pool table, site-wide Wi-Fi, a children's adventure playground, dog-walking areas and a shop.

The highlight of the park has to be the leisure centre, though, which features a pair of indoor heated pools, a fitness suite, two saunas and more. (Additional charges apply for using the centre.)

Off-site there are a couple of good pubs that are just a comfortable walk away, while Highclere Castle, Blenheim Palace and Bourton-on-the-Water are all within comfortable driving distance.

You say...

"From booking to leaving, the staff here take exceptional care of you. The site is beautifully kept and pitches are situated to optimise privacy. The toilet facilities are immaculate and look as clean now as they did when we first visited four years ago. We arrive at the site and leave feeling relaxed and smiling."

"Plenty of things to do both on and off site. Everything you could need for a lovely break seems to be taken care of."

We say...

You'll enjoy a comfortable stay in the Cheshire countryside at adults-only Royal Vale. It's a well-maintained and tidy site that's also a sister park to another of our Top 100 finalists, Glencote Caravan Park (see page 55).

Royal Vale has all-weather touring pitches with 16A electric, fresh- and waste-water hook-ups; a clean washblock; tourist information; and indoor sinks for your washing-up.

The park is close to junctions 18 and 19 of the M6, so it's easy to access no matter where in the UK you're travelling from. Close by you'll find the Jodrell Bank Discovery Centre, and the towns of Northwich and Knutsford. The latter has a nice shopping centre, as well as a good selection of places to enjoy a drink and a meal.

You say...

"On our visit to Royal Vale, we appreciated the owners' willingness to help, and the quality of the facilities at the park."

"We loved the locality and the local scenery, as well as the easy access to nearby towns."

"This is a well laid-out site with good services and very helpful people."

only

We say...

If you're a couple planning to visit any show at Birmingham's NEC, you should seriously consider pitching up at the impressive, adults-only Somers Wood Caravan Park. It's well placed for a trip to the exhibition centre. In fact, it's great to visit at any season, because it's open all year, and is also close to the historic city of Coventry and county town of Warwick.

There are 48 pitches at Somers Wood, all of which have 10A electric hook-up; there are also four fully serviced pitches. Heated washrooms, dishwashing sinks, a launderette and Wi-Fi are available. There is an information cabin that stocks local maps and leaflets about attractions in the area.

You say...

"This site is always clean, tidy and well-kept. The staff are very helpful and welcoming. The site is remarkably quiet even though it is so near to main roads."

"It's such a friendly site, as well as very clean. It also seemed that nothing was too much trouble for the staff, who were always there to help. It is a beautiful place."

"We loved everything about Somers Wood. It is a pretty site with easy access, the site and facilities were spotless and staff were lovely. One of the best sites we have used."

Swiss Farm

Touring and Camping

Address Marlow Road, Henley-on-Thames, Oxfordshire RG9 2HY

Tel 01491 573 419 Web www.swissfarmcamping.co.uk

Open 1 March-1 November Touring pitches 120 Pitch+2+hook-up £19-£26

We say...

Fancy exploring the beautiful Oxfordshire town of Henley-on-Thames, or are visiting one of the many events that take place there each year? Swiss Farm makes a great base to do so because it's only a short walk away, while offering a great level of facilities. These include an outdoor swimming pool, a coarse-fishing lake (you'll need your own rod), a coffee shop, a launderette and motorhome service point.

Touring and tent pitches are available. Alternatively you can hire one of the site's six-berth static caravans, which are fully furnished and equipped with heating, a flatscreen TV and a microwave.

You say...

"There's a lovely bar and coffee shop here that was great on a rainy day. The shower and toilet facilities are always clean and there are plenty of them. There is fishing on-site for those who wish, and the five-minute walk into Henley makes this a perfect site if you are in a motorhome. There are good restaurants in the town and transport links if you wish to travel further afield."

"The welcome was friendly and any help we needed throughout our stay was cheerfully given. The location is fantastic, too."

Touring pitches 53 (all hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £23-£26

Open
all year

Adults
only

We say...

Those touring without children are sure to love a stay at The Trotting Mare Caravan Park, which is right on the border between England and Wales. It's ideal for a quiet, peaceful getaway, and those who enjoy fishing will definitely appreciate its lake, which is stocked with roach and carp. All pitches at the park are hardstanding, while there are also full-service pitches, which are equipped with mains-water supply and waste-water drainage, as well as 16A electric hook-up.

A pub of the same name, The Trotting Mare Public House, is right beside the touring site and serves good ales and food. There are also 11 static caravans for rent.

You say...

"Very nice and very clean facilities; the pitches were very good, too."

"Everything on the site is kept to a very high standard, including the shower block, which was very clean and well-maintained. Most important of all, the site owner was great!"

"The staff here were friendly, while the site has a nice layout and attracts wildlife. Good food is available at the pub; the guy running it was so helpful. We loved it at The Trotting Mare and will be back."

Web retreats.csmclub.co.uk Open 23 January-2 January

Touring pitches 110 (55 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £12-£53

We say...

Whitemead Forest Park offers a huge range of top-notch facilities to keep all members of the family – no matter what their age – entertained and happy. There's a lovely pool and spa, a gym, the Foresters restaurant (Sunday carverys are available) and even a health and beauty salon. For the youngsters, there's a fantastic programme of events at weekends and during the holidays, including parties, clubs and discos.

All of the touring pitches have 16A hook-up, and half of them are hardstanding. Other accommodation offered by Whitemead comprises a few self-catering options, including wooden lodges, smart apartments and a woodland glamping pod.

You say...

“The layout of the site is excellent, giving you a wide variety of pitch types in two areas. It's in the Forest of Dean and the surroundings are second to none. The site facilities are very good and they're all included in your pitch price so there are no extras. They include a large indoor swimming pool, a steam room, a sauna, a Jacuzzi and a well-equipped gym.”

“Amazing facilities that are really clean, with lots of activities available. A lovely Sunday carvery is served, too!”

REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

Last year, hundreds of you told us just how much you loved Callow Top Holiday Park, and this year hundreds more of you have said exactly the same thing. Once more, this popular site near Ashbourne in Derbyshire tops the hard-fought Heart of England region.

The amount of thought that's gone into making the site a comfortable place to stay is evident from the high level of facilities: there are clean and heated outdoor pools, a shop that stocks a good selection of groceries, a trio of sparkling washrooms, a motorhome service point, a pub/restaurant and a café/bar (at which you can enjoy seasonal entertainment), and even an amusement arcade. Accommodation is primarily on touring pitches, but there's also a six-berth static caravan for hire.

Callow Top makes an ideal base for exploring the beautiful Peak District; youngsters will also appreciate the park's proximity to Alton Towers.

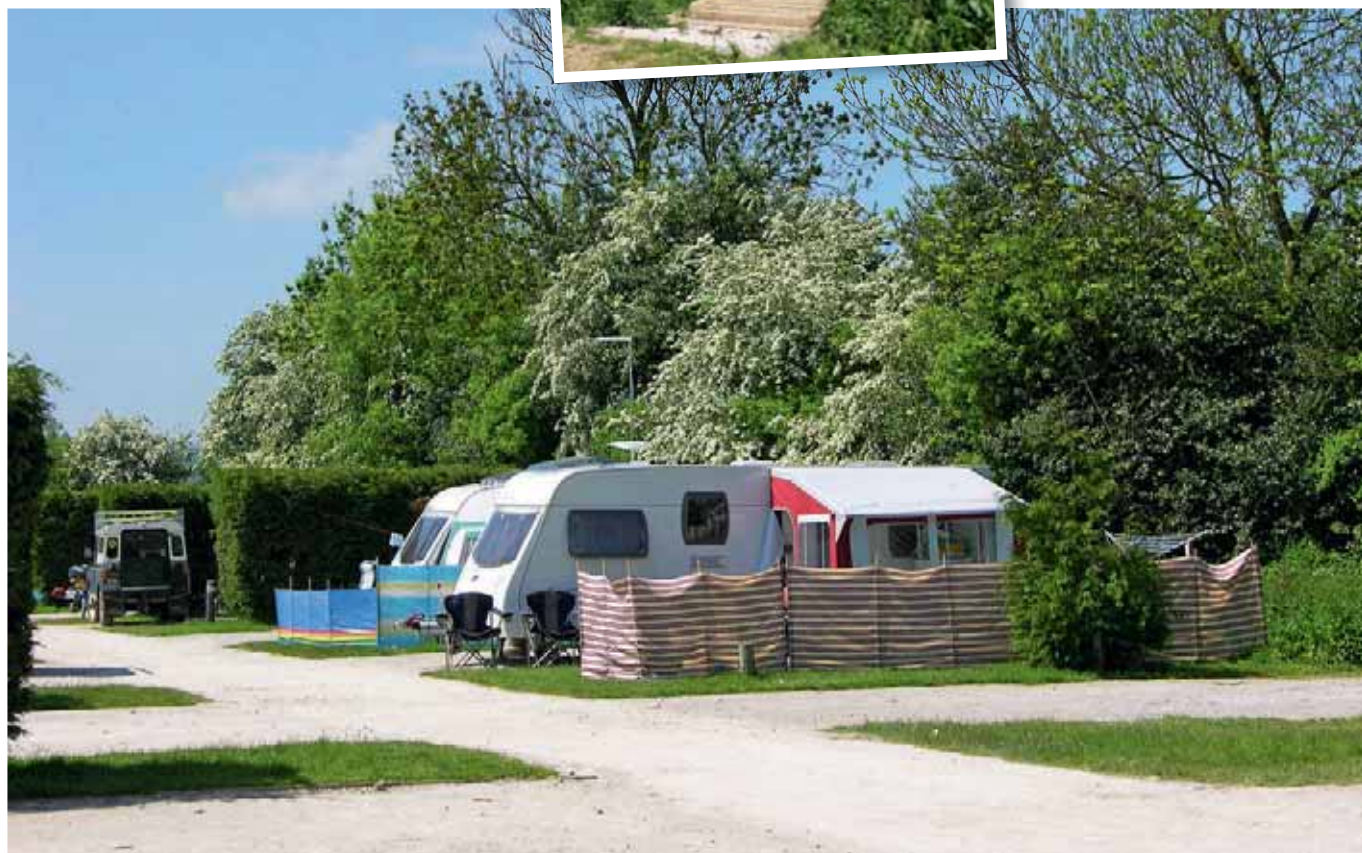

You say...

"This is just a fantastic all-round family site with everything you could want! As well as its amazing location and the stunning views, it's very clean and has the bonus of the outdoor pool. We've been visiting for years and will continue to do so."

"It had everything that you need on a site. The staff were really friendly and took care of you."

Callow Top has two outdoor swimming pools and a lake for coarse fishing (left). The pitches are part-hardstanding, so you have a grassy area for pegging your awning and windbreak

South-East England

London is one of the biggest draws in this region, of course, but South-East England has so much more to offer the visitor. For starters, there's beautiful Kent, also known as the Garden of England (and where you can visit one of our 2015 finalists, Broadhembury Holiday Park). Meanwhile, Sussex has friendly Brighton and the South Downs.

But it's the west of the region that's perhaps the most popular with those staying on a caravan park. For a start, it's where you'll find the stunning New Forest National Park. Its gentle landscape of heath and woodland are perfect for walking or cycling; a stay at Hill Cottage Farm will allow you to get out and about with ease.

And why not combine a trip to the New Forest with a visit across the Solent to the Isle of Wight? That's where you'll find two of our regional finalists for 2015.

We say...

Broadhembury's website proudly claims that the caravan and camping site is 'everything you could ever want for a holiday to remember and repeat', and, judging by the comments that it received from many of you this year, you agree wholeheartedly.

In particular, you praised the warmth of the staff and the high quality of the facilities. These include heated washrooms with softened water, a herb garden with produce for guests to use, and a games room that has its own skittles alley.

Accommodation here comes in the form of touring pitches – tents are also accepted – including an adults-only area. Six-berth, fully furnished static caravans are also available for hire.

You say...

"We were first-time caravanners and found the staff helpful and polite. The facilities were first-class and the site was very well-kept."

"We couldn't find one thing that we didn't like at Broadhembury Holiday Park."

"We are new to camping, and my family and I had a fabulous time here. It was a real pleasure to stay at the park."

A quiet, peaceful break is sure to be had by everyone who stays at the lovely Hill Cottage Farm in Hampshire. It's set in 40 acres of beautiful countryside within easy reach of the New Forest National Park. Hardstanding touring and grass camping pitches are available, along with a unique shepherd's hut for a spot of luxury if you don't want to sleep under canvas.

Keen anglers should be sure to bring their rods with them to Hill Cottage, where there are three well-stocked fishing lakes. Other facilities at the park include woodland and dog-walking paths, a large launderette, a games room and a children's play area.

You say...

"Being disabled, I needed a bit of help, and the friendliness and helpfulness shown us by the staff was outstanding, from our initial contact and booking."

"This is a very friendly park; the people here couldn't be more helpful. The hedges between caravans provide some privacy, and the shower block is very clean. Hill Cottage is a fantastic site."

"The site and organisation of the caravans and park facilities were excellent. The toilets and showers were very clean and well-kept."

We say...

Whitefield Forest was the overall winner in our Top 100 Sites Guide 2014, and it received a very high score for the 2015 guide, too. You continued to enthuse about the helpfulness of the site owners, the quality of the facilities – which include large pitches, a small book-swap area and a motorhome service point – and the peace and quiet that you enjoyed during your stays.

The emphasis at Whitefield Forest is firmly on the environment, and particularly on conservation of the lovely red squirrel; feeders and even special road-crossing points are just some of the fantastic initiatives here. Birdlife is in abundance, too, thanks in part to nesting boxes placed around the park.

You say...

"It was beautifully clean and well-run. The pitches are levelled in terraces, defining each pitch. The playground in the woods was lovely for the children. Even the nature walk was entertaining."

"I never had to wait to use one of the showers, which were impeccably clean. Definitely the best facilities on any campsite I have stayed at!"

"This is a peaceful and tranquil woodland site. There are lovely tracks to explore."

TOP 100 SITES 2015 REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

This year's winner of our South-East England category is the superb Orchards Holiday Park on the beautiful Isle of Wight. You can choose to stay in one of a number of spacious holiday caravans, which have up to six berths and are fully furnished and equipped with a DVD player, a microwave and more. The static caravans are close to the site's main facilities, which include a shop, a pair of swimming pools (one of which is indoor) and a takeaway.

The touring pitches are set on the other side of the main amenities; all have electric hook-up. They're also handily close to the facilities centre, which houses underfloor-heated washrooms, a washing-up area and even a room for drying clothes after you've been walking. With miles of rambling trails available to explore on the island, you're sure to find a route that's just perfect for you.

You say...

"A very clean and well-managed site that allows you to relax without hassle. The facilities are spotless at any time, no matter how full the site is. The staff greet all visitors as though they were friends or regulars."

"Excellent facilities on this great, family-friendly park. The children loved the two swimming pools. The amenities were immaculate."

"We have stayed on this site for around the past 20 years and we just love going back - it is our second home and we look forward to returning every year. We like the views, the set-up of the site, the facilities (which are good) and the very pleasant staff."

"The owners of The Orchards really have tried to do everything possible to give you a fabulous, stress-free holiday, and they have succeeded!"

Set in over 20 acres of tranquil parkland, South Lytchett Manor is the ideal base for exploring the heritage coastline, outstanding local countryside and attractions. It is a friendly, family-run park just three miles from Poole and 20 minutes from Bournemouth, offering top quality amenities in a village location. A local village pub serving bar meals is only a five minute walk away.

Dorset

Fans of hit television show Broadchurch are likely to feel right at home on Dorset's beautiful (and UNESCO World Heritage-listed) Jurassic Coast – it's where many of the drama's scenes were shot. The rest of the county's coast is equally attractive, though, from the sandy shores of Weymouth – with its safe and clean waters – all the way to Bournemouth in the east.

Venture a little inland and you'll begin to get a feel for Dorset's true beauty: rolling hills that are interspersed with picture-postcard villages and handsome, welcoming towns. The latter include Blandford Forum, Sherborne and Bridport. Don't miss a visit to Poole, either; from there you can take a boat trip across the harbour to Brownsea Island, home of red squirrels and the place where the Scouting movement was born.

Four top Dorset sites make it through to our category finals for 2015; any of them would make a good base for exploring what this stunning county has to offer.

We say...

Enjoy a tour to Dorset's stunning historic coast with a stay at Bagwell Farm Touring Park, which offers fine views out to sea. It's easy to explore even if you want to leave your car or motorhome on-site: the X53 bus stops close to the site, and runs all the way from Poole in the east to Exeter in the west.

The park has an impressive level of facilities, including a children's play area, a laundrette, a shop and an off-licence. If you fancy eating on site, you'll receive a warm welcome at the Red Barn bar and grill; it's open during the high season and at selected times in spring and autumn, and serves good home-cooked food.

You say...

"The staff were so friendly and helpful and had infectious smiles! They were the cherry on top of a beautiful site that has breathtaking views."

"Quiet with superb facilities and excellent pitches. There were two car-boot sales that were held over the weekend. There is a vast dog-exercise area, and great views out to sea and the beach. The best campsite I have ever stayed at – we will return when we get the chance!"

"At night-time there wasn't excessive noise (which is part of the site's policy) allowing for a good night's rest."

We say...

Those touring without the company of children will be able to have a relaxing, comfortable break at the adults-only Bingham Grange, set in the grounds of a Victorian house in west Dorset. It makes a great base for exploring this pretty region, including the two nearby and handsome towns of West Bay – location for TV series Broadchurch – and Bridport.

Guests at the site can enjoy a drink or a meal at Bingham Grange's own Buzzards restaurant; a takeaway menu is also available. Elsewhere at the park, they'll find underfloor-heated washrooms, a kitchenette featuring a microwave, and a motorhome service point.

You say...

"This is a very well-looked-after site. Spotless toilets and showers, friendly team, with a great site restaurant. Pitches are spacious and very well-maintained. Plenty of walks from the site, too. We will be returning soon."

"Consistently welcoming, with excellent facilities and very high standards of cleanliness. The pitches are good and easily accessible, the staff are knowledgeable and the Buzzards restaurant serves very good food at reasonable prices."

We say...

Springfield Touring Park, in the pretty Stour Valley and close to the historic town of Wimborne, has regularly appeared in our Top 100 Site Guides through the years, and does so again for 2015. That's because many of you told us how impressed you were with the standard and cleanliness of the facilities here, particularly in the washrooms. You also appreciated the tourist-information area and launderette.

Wimborne itself has lots of pleasant pubs and restaurants to enjoy, as well as a fascinating indoor market. You can also cycle or walk to the beautiful New Forest from Springfield.

You say...

"This is a quiet, well-run site that is well-placed for local sights of interest. It is close to Wimborne and Poole, and well-served by local bus services."

"The Wi-Fi reception is excellent. A clean, secure dog-walking area is provided. Gorgeous hot water in the showers and underfloor heating made our stay a real pleasure. No expense seems to have been spared to provide first-class facilities."

"We had a good-size pitch, and the owners were helpful. The site was kept very tidy, and is close to a bus route."

REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

South Lytchett Manor Caravan and Camping Park, near Poole in Dorset, grabs our regional gong again for 2015. It won the category in 2014, and remains as popular with you now as it was then. It's a family-run touring site where a huge amount of care has clearly been lavished on the facilities and surroundings.

The top-class amenities here include modern and heated washrooms, a children's adventure playground, a dog-walking area, a motorhome service point and a licensed shop selling organic meat. There's a bus stop close to the entrance from where you can travel to Swanage or Weymouth, if you're not keen on taking your campervan or car off-site.

All of our Top 100 finalists are the cream of the UK's campsites, but it's the little details at South Lytchett – such as the herb garden, the produce of which can be used free of charge by guests, and the piped music in the washrooms – that make this park such a worthy category winner once more.

You say...

“This was our fourth stay; we have always received a great welcome. The staff keep the site in perfect order – toilets, showers, pitches and all walkways – and the flower displays were excellent. No matter how busy the staff are, they are more than happy to stop and help if needed, let campers know what is happening in the area, or give information about the great bus service from outside the gates.”

“Extremely well-maintained site: neat, clean, but not sterile and clinical. Exceptionally clean loos and showers at all times, even when the park was full.”

South Lytchett is a great site with top facilities; the washrooms even have piped music

Somerset, Avon & Wilts

If you fancy a low-season break, you'll be really spoiled for a choice of campsite in this region – all but two of our Somerset, Avon & Wiltshire finalists for 2015 are open all year. Those touring without children are well catered-for here, too: four finalists are for adults only.

Myth and legend are ever-present in this fascinating region, from the mysterious white horses of Wiltshire to the numerous ancient monuments, including (most notably) Stonehenge and Avebury. Then, of course, there's Glastonbury, an extraordinary town that should be on everyone's must-visit list.

Walkers will love a trip to Exmoor, where they'll be able to wander along many fantastic trails. Those who prefer the bright lights of cities will also be in their element: cosmopolitan Bristol and sophisticated, cultural Bath are the primary draws, but historic Salisbury and Winchester are also beautiful.

We say...

One of the many highlights of Bowdens Crest is the beautiful view across Somerset that you get from behind the Old Vineyard bar; on a good day, you should be able to see up to 30 miles. If you fancy a trip off-site to explore the surroundings, you'll find that you're within easy reach of many of the county's attractions, including the towns of Street, Glastonbury and historic Langport itself.

Facilities for those in a touring unit include well-drained pitches with 16A electric hook-up and clean and tidy washblocks. A number of static caravans are also available for hire. The site's games room was revamped for the 2015 season, and now includes an arcade with game and sweets machines.

You say...

"The shower, laundry, shop, bar/restaurant were clean, tidy and friendly. The caravan was really clean and tidy and comfortable, with plenty of equipment provided. I stayed there with my elderly parents for a week. Although there were families staying there, too, the noise was minimal."

"We were impressed with the whole site. The amenities were great, the setting was really peaceful and you could see for miles. Absolutely brilliant site – we will be returning soon."

all yearWe say...

The beautiful New Forest is one of the most popular touring destinations in the UK, and there are lots of campsites in and around it. However, Greenhill Farm, which is at the edge of the historic woodland, is one of the best. It's a relatively big site, with 160 pitches spread over more than 50 acres, but it has been cleverly landscaped to create distinct camping groves, including one that is for adults only, and another that is reserved for adults only and is also dog-free.

Green Hill Farm provides 16A electric hook-ups throughout the site, a licensed bar (open seasonally), a children's play area, a motorhome service point, a games room and fishing lakes.

You say...

"I was impressed with the friendliness of staff, cleanliness of facilities and general upkeep of the site. Also, every year brings new improvements to the site."

"There were a lot of large fish in the lakes and we managed to catch something each time we went!"

"The setting was beautiful, the space was plentiful and the facilities were well-maintained, especially the washblock, which was the best I have ever used as a camper! In addition, the staff were always friendly and helpful."

Set close to the historic and fascinating town of Glastonbury, Old Oaks Touring Park makes a perfect place for adults to enjoy a quiet, relaxing break. Glastonbury Tor is less than a mile from the site, and a footpath will take you straight to the top, from where you can enjoy the outstanding views.

The standard and cleanliness of the facilities at Old Oaks has impressed us over the years, and continues to do so for 2015. The washrooms are always spotless, while the TV room, pair of microwaves for guests to use and fishing lake are all very welcome additions. Camping cabins are available for hire, too.

You say...

"Fantastic facilities, excellent pitches and shop. Staff very friendly and helpful. This is my favourite site in the UK."

"Facilities are the best that we've ever enjoyed - and we've done a lot of camping over the years."

"We stayed in a camping cabin. From our initial telephone booking through to check-out, everything was very professional. With more than 25 years in the hospitality trade, I'm a firm believer in credit where credit is due!"

"This site is absolutely immaculate - there is nothing you can fault. I challenge anyone to stay and say otherwise."

We say...

Fifty level pitches, all with 16A electric hook-up, are the order of the day at Plough Lane Caravan Site, a lovely adults-only park close to the thriving Wiltshire market town of Chippenham. Those pitches are attractively laid out in terraces, providing a nice level of privacy no matter where your unit is set-up. Half of them are fully serviced, providing fresh-water connections and waste-water drainage, as well as mains electricity.

Elsewhere on site, guests can use the comprehensive tourist information point (which includes a library), a dog-exercise area and free-of-charge showers in the spotless and heated washblocks.

You say...

- "We keep coming back because the site is just perfect. We haven't found anywhere better."*
- "We loved the cleanliness and attention to detail, such as shower gel and shampoo in the shower cubicles, and hand cream and aftershave on the washbasins. The owner even came round with Easter eggs on Easter Sunday. Can't wait to go back."*
- "The owners were extremely welcoming but not intrusive, helping us to park up and locate the best satellite reception. They were more like friends."*

Stonehenge Campsite was a finalist in our Top 100 Sites Guide 2014, and it makes it through once again in 2015. There are 15 touring pitches available, as well as plenty of space for tents in a pair of camping fields. Other facilities here include clean and tidy washblocks, and a refurbished washing-up area. Traditional pubs, a farm shop and other amenities are in nearby villages.

If you fancy a special getaway, why not book one of the two lovely glamping pods at the site? They're cosy and feature plenty of equipment to make your stay comfortable, including a kettle and crockery.

You say...

- "This is a green and quiet site, and is perfect for visiting both Stonehenge and Salisbury. We will be back!"*
- "We liked everything about this site. The wardens were very welcoming and helpful. The campsite is very well-organised and has good facilities, too. We really enjoyed our camping and the whole experience."*
- "We have been visiting this campsite for many years. It's clean and friendly, and we have been made to feel as though we are part of the family."*
- "We stayed in the Fox glamping pod – it was great, and the facilities here are top-class."*

Stonehenge Touring Park may be relatively small, but it offers a really good level of facilities – no matter how long your visit here, it's sure to be a comfortable one. Twelve hardstanding pitches are available for those in a caravan or motorhome, while there is plenty of additional space for those staying under canvas (20 electric hook-up points are available in total).

Free Wi-Fi is offered to guests, and the showers are free to use, too. You can even have your own campfire during your stay – mobile firepits and chimenea can be rented for just £5 per night (plus refundable deposit).

You say...

“This is a lovely site all round, but particularly brilliant for my seven-year-old daughter. It is nice and small with an area where she can go and play – and we can still keep an eye on her.”

“Everything impressed me about this site. Its location was ideal, it was a perfect size and it was extremely well-run. The owners were very friendly and helpful and they were more than happy to assist in any way. The on-site shop was well-stocked and catered for many needs and requirements. I would definitely use this park again and highly recommend it to all caravan/camping enthusiasts.”

There are few UK parks in as lovely a location as adults-only Waterrow Touring Park; its 38 all-weather touring pitches are set in beautifully landscaped grounds, with trees and shrubs providing a good level of privacy. All pitches are within a short distance of the sparkling River Tone, where you can fish.

It's not just the quality of the facilities and the location near Exmoor that make Waterrow so worthy of inclusion here, though. It's the warm welcome you receive from owners Lynette and Jamie Cook, and the small touches – such as the regular painting courses available – that impressed you and us.

You say...

“We have been to this site a few times now, and intend going back again, because you get a very warm welcome from the new owners every time you visit. Wildlife and walks from the caravan site are a bonus. It's great for those who just want to relax and have peace and quiet.”

“We were made welcome as soon as we arrived and taken to our pitch by the owner. All the pitches are very well laid-out with plenty of room for car, caravan and awning. Loads of well-maintained mature trees and shrubs all around the site and the facilities are first-rate.”

REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

Beautiful adults-only Bath Chew Valley is hugely popular with Top 100 Sites voters. It has won our overall award a couple of times – and for many very good reasons. So much thought and effort have gone into maintaining and improving the site that you can't help but be impressed by it. Whether you choose to remain on site for the duration of your break, or simply use it as a base, you're sure to enjoy your time here.

All pitches have electric hook-up, and you'll receive assistance in siting your caravan. Once set-up, you'll be able to appreciate how carefully the site has been landscaped and how well it's cared for. The washblocks are spacious and beautifully clean, too.

As with all of our regional winners, however, it's the finishing touches that make them so special. In Bath Chew Valley's case, it's the fact that you'll also find a motorhome service point, a clothes spin dryer that's free to use, a book lending library, a conservation area and even on-site car hire – perfect if you want to leave your motorhome on your pitch.

You say...

"This is a well-kept site with lovely pitches and it's set in nice surroundings. The location is excellent for visiting Bristol, Bath, Wells and nearby areas. The site, showers and toilet facilities are immaculately kept."

"The whole site is well laid-out, clean and very tidy. The woodland walk is excellent."

"The best site I've ever stayed at by far. It's quiet and beautifully set-out, with generous pitches; no one is squeezed in. The toilets and showers are spotless. Five stars!"

"The staff park your caravan – that was brilliant, because I am totally new to towing!"

Devon

There's no doubting that Devon is a popular holiday destination; it has a vast number of campsites and, for 2015, an amazing 18 have made it through to our category finals. There really is something here for everyone: from full-facility, all-singing-and-dancing parks with hundreds of touring pitches, right through to smaller sites that offer a completely different camping experience. Those visitors planning to tour the beautiful sandy beaches of the south coast are particularly spoiled for choice: lots of top parks line this stretch. But they'd be foolish to miss the north coast, which, with its rugged rocky shores, has a beauty all of its own.

Venture inland and you'll be able to take to the pathways of both Exmoor (which Devon shares with neighbour Somerset) and Dartmoor. If you fancy more of a city break, you can set your sat-nav for Exeter or Plymouth: both have some great restaurants and shopping opportunities to enjoy.

You've a choice of accommodation options at Beverley Park: if you own a touring unit you can choose from a variety of pitch types, many of which offer lovely views of the sea. If not, you can opt to stay in one of the site's comfortable static caravans, which sleep up to six people, or one of the luxurious wooden lodges at sister site Beverley View nearby – some even have a hot tub!

No matter where you stay – which also includes Beverley Bay's statics – you'll be able to use the site's impressive facilities. There are swimming pools, a children's playground, a snooker room, cafés, a restaurant, crazy golf, a tennis court and much more.

You say...

“We have been going to this site since the 1960s – I even met my wife there in 1976. Our children and grandchildren join us each year. To us, the homely, friendly, non-commercialised feel of Beverley Park makes it the reason that we return so often.”

“This site is probably the best in the country and has never dropped its standards in the 28 years that we have been visiting. The facilities are second to none and it has improved each year thanks to the continuing hard work and dedication of all the staff.”

The beautiful county of Devon offers so much for visitors, but there's such a plethora of activities to enjoy at the full-facility Cofton Country Holiday Park that you may find yourself never wanting to leave the site. There's a lovely indoor pool with bubble loungers (charges apply), great places to eat and drink, a well-stocked shop, an amusement arcade, outdoor adventure playground, and lots more for those of all ages to enjoy.

If you can tear yourself away from the park, you'll find that it's within easy reach of Powderham Castle, Crealy Great Adventure Park and the fabulous Paignton Zoo.

You say...

- "It's just lovely! We have had some amazing times here."*
- "This is a big park that feels like a small family-orientated site. It has all the perks of a commercial site but without the noise, mess or bad behaviour. We have been twice and would recommend it to campers of all types."*
- "We were impressed by the cleanliness of the facilities, and the more-than-adequate number of toilets and showers; we never once had to wait to use either, even though we were on site during August bank holiday. My husband did a lot of fishing during our stay, and was pleased with the well-stocked lakes."*

We say...

The pitches at Dornafield Farm are set in three sections; beside two of them are fantastic children's play areas – one of which boasts a play fort and a willow den – to make this a great site for families. The adults aren't left out, though: they can use the well-stocked and licensed shop, motorhome service point, Wi-Fi access and two dog-walking areas during their stay.

Visitors to Dornafield will find that the handsome cities of Exeter and Plymouth are within easy reach, as are the towns of Dartmouth and Totnes. You'll also be close to Exmoor and all the attractions that the National Park has to offer. An 18-hole golf course is just one mile away.

You say...

- "The site owner was extremely helpful when we booked, advising us which pitch would best suit our requirements. The site is extremely well laid-out, with immaculately mown grass and beautiful, bright floral beds and planters all around the site. The children's play area is extensive and well-equipped, and kept my seven-year-old daughter amused and supplied with friends for our holiday."*
- "The site was very pretty, with hanging baskets and flowers everywhere."*

- “The staff here are very friendly. This is a very clean site with fantastic views over the River Dart. The facilities are good and it is great for transport networks.”*
- “I called by telephone speculatively and was handled in such a courteous manner. On arrival, I was given a lovely welcome, too. The site is also a fantastic space, with lovely views, large pitches and great facilities. I would recommend it to anyone.”*
- “There's a very friendly and happy crew here, the site was immaculate and very well maintained, and there are fantastic views.”*

Hele Valley

Holiday Park

Address Hele Bay, Ilfracombe, Devon EX34 9RD Tel 01271 862 460

Web www.helevalley.co.uk Open 1 April-31 October

Touring pitches 28 Pitch+2+hook-up £22-£30

We say...

On the outskirts of the popular resort of Ilfracombe is Hele Valley Holiday Park; it welcomes touring units of all kinds through its gates, as well as those opting for a stay in one of the site's holiday caravans, lodges and cottages, or its three wooden camping pods. There are lots of interesting attractions in town, including an aquarium and a museum, but if you'd like to venture further afield you'll find that you can easily catch a bus to Barnstaple or Combe Martin.

Back on site, though, be sure not to miss the Hele Valley Nature Trail. Along the way you should see lots of wildlife, attracted by the greenery and the bird boxes and feeding tables that have been erected here, along with owl, bat, and dormouse boxes.

You say...

- “A lovely site with great facilities and very helpful and friendly staff, close to the beach and within walking distance of Ilfracombe.”*
- “It is such a beautiful and well-maintained site. It is always clean, has gorgeous flowers and it's only a short walk to a lovely beach. The staff work so hard and are so friendly; they always have time for you.”*
- “Very clean and tidy, also very well-organised.”*

Hidden Valley

Touring and Camping Park

Address West Down, Ilfracombe, Devon EX34 8NU

Tel 01271 813 837 Web www.hiddenvalleypark.com Open All year

Touring pitches 100 (42 for tents) Pitch+2+hook-up £10-£25

We say...

The number of awards that Hidden Valley has won over the years – including an AA 5 Pennants, a Gold David Bellamy Award and a five-star Visit England rating – just goes to show how good this site is. Now it can add to its gongs inclusion in our Top 100 Sites Guide 2015. You told us that you particularly loved the location, and we can understand why: it's beautifully located in a quiet valley, but is close to the town of Ilfracombe.

You can pitch up in one of two areas at the site: either in Otter's Creek (mostly hardstanding) or Kingfisher Meadow (a grass meadow). Wooden holiday lodges are available for hire; they sleep up to four people

You say...

"The facilities and staff were the best we have encountered in a while. They helped us find what we were looking for and ensured the site was clean and tidy at all times. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend it to others."

"I love the fact that you can get a bus right outside the site – it was great not having to drive the motorhome every day. A lovely time was had by all."

"It is a wonderful, family-run site that is immaculately presented, and the staff are very helpful. It was the second time that we had stayed, and we will be returning."

Oakdown

Touring Park

Address Gatedown Lane, Sidmouth, Devon EX10 OPT Tel 01297 680 387

Web www.oakdown.co.uk Open 20 March-1 November

Touring pitches 104 Pitch+2+hook-up £17.10-£24.80

We say...

Oakdown Touring Park is a family-run park close to Devon's stretch of the Jurassic Coast, and there's no denying its quality: it took the AA's prestigious overall Campsite of the Year 2015 award, and many of you voted it into our latest Top 100 shortlist. The facilities here are certainly some of the UK's best, and include a comfortable coffee house, a well-stocked shop and spotless washrooms.

Accommodation options here including setting up on a spacious touring pitch, or staying in one of the centrally heated luxury lodges or the four-berth wooden camping pods, which are new this year.

You say...

"We have been staying at Oakdown for the past 24 years. The site is always very clean and tidy, and the staff friendly."

"We have been regular users of this site for more than 15 years and every year there has been improvement in the facilities offered and the amenities. These upgrades have been done thoughtfully and with holidaymakers' comfort and convenience in mind. Their concern for the environmental issues around the area is to be applauded."

"We love this site – the facilities are the best that we have ever seen. It is a peaceful place and the staff are extremely pleasant and helpful."

Parkers Farm

Holiday Park

Address Higher Mead Farm, Ashburton, Devon TQ13 7LJ Tel 01364 654 869

Web www.parkersfarmholidays.co.uk Open 28 March-31 October

Touring pitches 100 (25 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £14-£22

We say...

Parkers Farm has been a family-run campsite for 60 years and, even after all that time, it's sure to remain really popular with families. Young and old visitors are catered for with a cosy bar and restaurant, trampolines, farm tractor rides and live entertainment (during the high season). The park is at the edge of Dartmoor, so there are plenty of lovely walking routes to take.

Parkers Farm is primarily made up of touring pitches – including extra-large, full-service super pitches surrounded by hedges. There are also 16 holiday caravans, some of which can sleep up to eight occupants.

You say...

“The facilities for young children and the welcome for families with dogs exceeded all my expectations. The staff were both friendly and accommodating.”

“Parkers Farm is a clean, welcoming, and safe site. All the facilities are kept clean and tidy at all times; the site pub is a bonus. The countryside location is well-suited for exploring Devon. We have visited this site numerous times with our two children. You are always welcomed with a smile and return home smiling.”

“Simply A1 for everything, and reasonably priced. We have referred other people to this site, too.”

Ross Park

Caravan Park

Address Park Hill Farm, Ipplepen, Newton Abbot, Devon TQ12 5TT

Touring pitches 110 (all hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £16.25-£27.90

We say...

Our 2014 Devon regional winner, Ross Park, has continued to impress you throughout the year; it's well-deserving of its inclusion in our Top 100 shortlist for 2015. It's strictly a touring site – although tents are welcome here, too – with 110 pitches, each featuring a handy 16A electric hook-up connection. Most have a water-connection point, too.

The facilities list certainly doesn't end there. Elsewhere on site you'll be able to visit the New Barn restaurant, play a game of snooker in the dedicated room (adults only) or purchase a range of goods in the site shop. Nature is very much in evidence at the park, with plenty of wildlife attracted to its expanses of green space, while a tropical conservatory forms part of the restaurant. What's more, it's a real haven for pet-owners thanks to the four-acre dog-walking area; there's even a dog shower and hairdryer.

You say...

“This site is very well-run and maintained by the owners, and the facilities are five-star. The owners have spent a great deal of money in ensuring the site is maintained to the highest standard.”

“My stay at Ross Park was excellent. The owners and staff were extremely helpful and pleasant. I've never seen toilet blocks cleaned twice a day – no wonder they sparkle.”

Touring pitches 44 (16 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £16-£27

We say...

There has been a manor house here – from which this popular site takes its name – since 1066; these days the 23-acre site is an attractive place to spend time away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. There is a trio of attractive log cabins available for hire, which are centrally heated, and a wooden pod – called ‘Escape’ – that will sleep a pair of adults. Those with caravans and motorhomes will appreciate the tidiness of the dedicated field; the pitches are hardstanding or grass and have electric hook-up.

Beyond the gates, you’ll find Smytham Manor well-placed for visits to Barnstaple, Bude and Ilfracombe.

You say...

“Beautifully clean, in lovely countryside. Site is well laid-out. The owners are very friendly and very helpful. Nothing is too much trouble for them and they supplied very useful local information.”

“This is a quiet site that’s only a five-minute walk from the Tarka Trail. The owners were very friendly and helpful.”

“There are fabulous surroundings here, and a super dog-exercise space. A friendly and helpful family run this site. It’s a wonderful place to escape to.”

We say...

Stowford Farm Meadows – current home of the Practical Caravan and Practical Motorhome Reader Rally – is a firm favourite with us, and with you as well. There are many great reasons why we return every year. There’s just so much for all the family to see and do here, with on-site amenities including a 22-metre heated swimming pool, a horse-riding centre, an animal-petting area, a couple of bars that host live family entertainment in season, a takeaway and a well-stocked shop.

Visitors will also appreciate the sparkling washrooms that you’ll find in each touring area, as well as the dedicated motorcaravan service point.

You say...

“This is a lovely, well-kept family site, with excellent facilities that will be appreciated whether you’re in a tent, or a tin tent with wheels!”

“The site was easy to access and the pitches were a good size. We found that there were lots of activities to take part in, all for a reasonable price. The shop was well stocked with a large range of products, too.”

“This was the cleanest site that I have visited for a while; it’s very well maintained. I will highly recommend this site to all of my camping friends.”

We say...

Fancy a relaxing, quiet break in the Exeter area? If so, you'll find Webbers Country Park to be a great place to stay. There aren't any bars or restaurants here, but there's plenty to make your visit a comfortable one, including a shop offering basic supplies, lovely clean washrooms and a launderette. Youngsters in particular will enjoy making use of the play area, while they can come face to face with farm animals at the dedicated enclosure.

A short walk from the site will take you to the Maltsters Arms, where home-cooked food is served. The lively city of Exeter is around six miles from Webbers, and visitors to the site are also within easy reach of the lovely sandy beach at Exmouth.

You say...

"We really loved the static caravan that we stayed in – the park was very well-maintained, too. This really is a lovely site to stay at."

"There are large pitches here, and the facilities are good and clean – the showers in particular are brilliant and spotless. There's a good children's play area, too."

"This is a small and quiet site, but it's great for children, thanks to the pets-corner."

"It's in a very nice setting, with well-maintained dog walks."

We say...

Self-catered accommodation doesn't come much more varied than at Welcome Family Holiday Park. Visitors can choose to stay in Spanish-style lodges, spacious apartments, modern bungalows or fully heated statics.

You and your family will be spoilt for choice for things to do. Among the attractions are an amusement arcade, a licensed bar and restaurant, evening entertainment, a children's playground, the Tropicana pool complex and crazy golf. That should be plenty to keep you entertained for the whole of your holiday but, if not, you'll find lovely Dawlish Warren beach close by, as well as the beautiful Dartmoor National Park.

You say...

"Just wow! I've been coming here since I was 12, and now at 22 I'm still excited to go to Welcome. There's an amazing entertainment team here, too."

"The whole site is clean and very tidy. There's enough going on to keep every family member busy. The entertainment is superb, the staff are friendly... I could go on forever!"

"The staff are amazing, the shows are absolutely the best, the caravans are so clean and tidy, as is the whole site, and the swimming complex is a huge hit with my boys. We return year after year and it is like going back to family."

only

We say...

Couples and other adults touring together are sure to enjoy a restful break at Widdicombe Farm Camping Park: the emphasis at this site really is on peace and relaxation. You can unwind over a drink and listen to live entertainment in the Old Hayloft Bar (open from Easter until mid-October), and have a tasty meal in the site's Poppies Restaurant; a takeaway service is also available.

Other top-class facilities here include smart washblocks, a dog-exercise area, a launderette and a small shop. Accommodation here is mainly on touring pitches, but there is also a trio of six-berth holiday caravans for hire.

You say...

"The staff are fantastic: nothing is too much trouble. The clubhouse has lots of different acts on, so there's plenty for everyone. The site is central to everywhere, so you can visit lots in the surrounding area. We have stayed on a few sites around Devon, but this is by far the best one."

"The site was clean but not too regimented. This is a proper country retreat that's just far enough from the hustle and bustle; however, you can easily get to the action by taking public transport."

BEST SITE
Family

We say...

Woodlands Grove is a first-class destination for those touring with children: guests get free entry to the delightful Woodlands Family Theme Park for the duration of their stay, and there are family bathrooms for those with youngsters to make use of.

That's not to say that adults won't feel that this site is a real home-from-home for them, too. Special offers for anyone 21 or over provide a discount on five-night weekday stays at certain times of the year.

Other facilities for all ages to enjoy at the park are the gift and coffee shops, wildlife quiz trail, games room and Wi-Fi (for a charge).

You say...

"All the staff were very helpful. The neatness of the pitches and free use of a groundsheet made pitching up very simple, even though I was on my first solo trip."

"This site is always lovely and clean, while the wardens and reception staff are very friendly and helpful. The pitches are all level, while the modern shower blocks are cleaned regularly. We really cannot fault anything. It's also great value for money, with entry to the park included. We have stayed at Woodlands Grove for several years running and my two children, aged 14 and 11, love it."

Woodovis Park

Address Woodovis House, Gulworthy, Tavistock, Devon PL19 8NY

Tel 01822 832 968 Web www.woodovis.com Open 20 March-30 October

Touring pitches 50 Pitch+2+hook-up £24-£36

We say...

Fancy learning some circus skills while staying on a full-facility site in Devon? You can do just that at Woodovis Park in 2015: classes take place on most Tuesday evenings and Friday mornings during the high season. If that doesn't take your fancy, you can relax in the heated indoor swimming pool, take a stroll in the lovely dog-walking area, or enjoy a tasty hog-roast (available on Mondays and Wednesdays).

Three wooded areas of the park are home to a series of luxury static six-berth caravans available for hire; you could also stay in the on-site self-catering cottage or glamping pods. All touring units plus tents are also welcome at Woodovis.

You say...

“There’s a friendly team here – nothing is ever too much trouble for them. There are excellent facilities, including the pool, hot tub and infrared sauna. The toilet block is clean, and there are excellent showers.”

“The park was beautiful, so well-kept, and had plenty to do. The staff were amazing and just so friendly. We had a fantastic holiday and will definitely be back!”

“Everything was perfect! Could not fault the park in any way. We have recommended it to our friends and family.”

Web www.yeatheridge.co.uk Open 15 March-1 October

Touring pitches 100 (10 hardstanding) Pitch+2+hook-up £13-£24

We say...

Take a relaxing break in the heart of Devon at Yeatheridge Farm, which is more or less equidistant between the north and south coasts. As such, it makes a great base for exploring all of the county's lovely beaches, as well as the Dartmoor and Exmoor National Parks.

The majority of the park is made up of touring pitches, but there is also a small number of holiday caravans available for hire, close to the reception area and amenities, including the two heated indoor pools and the bar and restaurant. Fishing lakes, a riding stables and a games room are also on the long list of amenities at Yeatheridge Farm.

You say...

“It’s not easy to keep teenagers content, yet at Yeatheridge they swim, fish, ride horses, play pool and kick a ball around. Everyone’s happy, which is why we’ve returned for the past 10 years during the Easter school holidays.”

“The staff are absolutely exceptional. You will not get a better site for your family. I highly recommend this site to everyone!”

“I really love this site. I have been going there now for more than a decade.”

2015
REGIONAL WINNER

We say...

There are so many activities at the family-friendly Ladram Bay Holiday Park that you could stay here for weeks and still not run out of things to do. No matter what your age, you're sure to remain entertained during your visit.

Accommodation here is primarily in self-catering static units available for hire: visitors can choose from a wide selection of large, modern lodges, comfortable holiday homes (some with hot tubs), and three luxury apartments. The remainder of the park – around a third of it – is dedicated to touring pitches; these vary in size, and some offer tremendous sea views.

No matter how you choose to stay at Ladram Bay, you'll be able to make use of the fantastic facilities, most of which are centrally located. These include a heated indoor swimming pool, a bar, a restaurant, a shopping complex, an adventure playground, a takeaway, evening entertainment... The list goes on. The site even has its own private beach.

Great amenities, a warm welcome and stunning views – no wonder Ladram Bay tops the crowded field in the Devon region for 2015.

You say...

- “Excellent, well-maintained site in a superb location. Staff very friendly and helpful. Caravans of good quality.”
- “Everything about this site is impressive, especially the location, facilities provided and the staff. They go out of their way to make you feel welcome and especially when there is a problem that needs solving.”
- “We were impressed with everything, from how clean everywhere was to how polite and helpful the staff were. We really could not fault it at all.”
- “This is the best site I have ever stayed on.”

Cornwall

What comes to mind when you think of the Cornish landscape? Chances are that your mind will turn to the county's ruggedly beautiful coastline, which has attracted visitors for years; stay at any one of our Top 100 Cornwall finalist campsites and it'll be within easy reach, too. This year most are situated close to the northern shores, but there's also a good selection in the south of the county.

Atmospheric and beautiful Bodmin Moor is another of the county's many attractions: it's great for walkers, but its derelict mining buildings also offer a fascinating insight into Cornwall's industrial heritage.

Fishing remains a vital part of the area's economy; pay a visit to pretty Falmouth or Penzance and you'll be able to watch the local fishermen bring in the day's catch. For a really wild and windy experience, take a trip to the Lizard or Land's End, where you can look out across the Atlantic.

Atlantic Coast

Holiday Park

Address 53 Upton Towans Hayle, Cornwall TR27 5BL Tel 01736 752 071

Web www.atlanticcoastpark.co.uk Open 1 March-4 January

Touring pitches 15 Pitch+2+hook-up £25-£35

We say...

Atlantic Coast Holiday Park has one of the loveliest locations of all Cornish sites: it's set close to the sea on the pretty northern shore. The touring pitches, which have 16A electric hook-up, are situated in a sheltered position behind sand dunes, but are nicely landscaped to provide privacy for guests. Other amenities for all to use are the site shop, launderette and Wi-Fi.

If you'd prefer to rent a static unit here, you'll find that you're spoilt for choice; there are lots of different holiday homes to choose from, which feature various levels of luxury. For a real treat, go for the Platinum units, which feature flatscreen TVs, furnished verandas and kitchens fitted with great appliances.

You say...

"The scenery is beautiful, and we had a lovely new caravan with a balcony. This is a well-kept, peaceful and very clean site. It's also pet-friendly."

"This really is a peaceful, quiet, clean, tidy and beautiful holiday park."

"We really appreciated the site's proximity to both the beaches and the town. There are also panoramic views here and friendly, professional staff."

We say...

Beautiful Eden Valley Holiday Park has become a real regular in our Top 100 Sites guides; it has featured for the past six years, and does so again for 2015. It's simply a lovely Cornish park at which to stay and relax, while enjoying some of the wildlife that is attracted here. Eden Valley is also the proud holder of a Gold David Bellamy Conservation Award, and has a room with details of local nature walks.

Children are well catered for here. There's a dedicated area with rope bridges, a fort and a timber trail where they can play in safety. The adults, meanwhile, will appreciate the large, clean washrooms, launderette facilities and dog-walking area.

You say...

"This is a fantastic site – everything is perfect. There's wonderful birdsong each morning, too. But I wish I could have seen the two owls that we heard!"

"This campsite is by far the best that we have ever been to. The facilities are modern and well-kept. The site is very well laid-out and obviously well cared-for, and the owners are lovely, friendly people."

"It's handy for visits to the town of Lostwithiel, and a great base for exploring this lovely part of Cornwall."

We say...

Globe Vale's website proudly proclaims that it's 'the friendliest family campsite in Cornwall', and we think that you'll find it hard to disagree after a stay here. It's a beautifully maintained park, and has lots of great-quality facilities for visitors to enjoy, including a bar and restaurant (a takeaway service is also available), an undercover washing-up area, a motorhome service point and a family shower room.

Other services available for those in a tourer include a full unit washdown (£40 + VAT). For £5 you can also choose to have your caravan towed and positioned on your pitch.

You say...

"The facilities here were very clean, and the site was very well-kept and maintained. The site owners were very pleasant, approachable and willing to help if required. At night the site was quiet, too."

"We loved everything about this place, including the way the site is kept. The cleanliness of the facilities was great, and the staff were first-class. We would go again tomorrow."

"It's a well-organised park with good facilities, helpful and friendly staff, good drainage and great dog walks."

Touring pitches 32 Pitch+2+hook-up £17-£26

We say...

The Laurels Holiday Park is primarily a site for those with a tourer or tent, but don't despair if you're travelling with friends or family who don't have their own caravan or motorhome: there are four lovely country cottages here that can accommodate up to six people, in comfort.

Back on the main part of the park you'll find pitches that have shrubs and ornamental trees to offer privacy to guests; the Gold examples give you access to 16A electric hook-up. There are indoor washing-up sinks, a launderette, fridges and freezers.

The younger members of the family will love the well-equipped children's play area, which has a large trampoline (with safety net) for them to enjoy, and the separate area where ball games are permitted.

You say...

- “The Laurels is very clean and well-run. The staff are friendly and we were made to feel very welcome.”
- “The site is well-located for visiting the whole of Cornwall. The staff here are superb – nothing was too much trouble for them.”
- “All aspects of the site are excellent!”
- “There are well-kept pitches, very clean showers and a lovely children's play area. The site was peaceful, too.”

ADAM GIBBARD/VISIT CORNWALL

We say...

The Tummon family has operated a campsite at this location, near pretty Trevoze Head (pictured), since the 1930s. Over the years, it has grown to become a fantastic, relaxing park that clearly impressed you over the past year. Visitors can stay in one of the holiday park's spacious, comfortable static caravans, or pitch a motorhome, caravan or tent in one of the numerous dedicated touring areas.

Aside from giving guests an enjoyable stay, the emphasis here is on the environment – low-energy lighting and motion sensors are used where practical, while some hedges are allowed to grow to encourage wildlife.

You say...

- “The views from the park are stunning and the private beach is otherworldly. If there was ever an example of a location in the UK that makes you feel as though you're sunning yourself in the Maldives, this would be it. We've stayed here several times previously and this most recent visit certainly won't be our last.”
- “So clean and well-kept, with stunning flowers, wildlife and litter-free beaches. My favourite place in the world.”
- “We have family members who have rented statics here. We have all been thoroughly impressed with the site.”

We say...

The pretty harbour town of Padstow has become a real Cornish highlight for food-lovers over recent years, and there are few better sites to stay at if you're planning a visit than Padstow Holiday Park – it's just a mile or so away. A footpath will lead you straight there, allowing you to enjoy a drink before strolling back to your hired static caravan. If you're travelling with a touring unit, you'll be staying right alongside the holiday park at the sister Padstow Touring Park. Facilities here include a heated washblock, coffee lounge, site shop, children's play area and motorhome service point.

You say...

- “Each time I have stayed here enhancements have been made – even when you didn't think that there was anything more to be done!”
- “We have just booked a return holiday, which will be our fifth stay. The staff are so friendly and helpful, and nothing is too much trouble. The site is beautifully clean and tidy, and they are always making additions to the site. Most of all it is peaceful and has great views of the Camel Estuary and surrounding countryside.”
- “It's beautifully maintained and, despite being popular, it remains peaceful.”

Penmarlam

Caravan and Camping Park

Address Bodinnick, Fowey, Cornwall PL23 1LZ Tel 01726 870 088

Web www.penmarlampark.co.uk Open 1 April-31 October

Touring pitches 77 Pitch+2+hook-up £17.50-£29.50

We say...

Penmarlam is another much-loved site that regularly appears in our Top 100 Sites Guide; the south Cornwall park has been a finalist every year since 2010, and now makes our shortlist again, for 2015.

There are two areas where you can pitch up: the first has lovely views across the surrounding hills, while the second is more sheltered. All pitches have electric hook-up, and you can choose your own spot when you arrive. Among the tidy amenities that you'll be able to use here are a launderette, a shop/off-licence and modern, heated washrooms.

On your approach, avoid using a sat-nav after leaving the A390 and follow the directions on the park's website.

You say...

- “The relaxed, happy atmosphere here was just lovely. The site was clean, tidy and very well-kept. The site owners are very friendly and helpful, while the facilities were everything that we expected and more.”
- “We have three young children, and this campsite gives us everything that we need. There's a beach, a swimming pool, a soft-play area, a clubhouse and a shop – all on site. It's perfect for us and our young family!”
- “The small shop had everything we needed.”

Touring pitches 80 Pitch+2+hook-up £14.50-£23.50

We say...

Campers, caravanners or motorcaravanners who enjoy walking will love a stay at Porthtowan Tourist Park: it's close to the fabulous South-West Coast Path, as well the Mineral Tramways Trail, which takes you past some of Cornwall's fascinating and historic mining buildings.

If you prefer your activities to be slightly less strenuous, you can relax in the sunshine on pretty Porthtowan Beach, which has been awarded a Blue Flag and is only a mile from the park.

The site itself encompasses three touring areas over six acres of lovely countryside. Eighty electric hook-up pitches are available, each with a 10A connection; there's also a wetsuit-rinsing area for surfers.

You say...

“Porthtowan is in a great location with easy access to the north and south coasts, as well as west Cornwall. It's peaceful and quiet at night, and has spotless, modern toilets and showers. The owners were always available but remained unobtrusive. Best site we've been to in a long time. We'll definitely return!”

“This is a fantastic site in a great location. The facilities are second to none. I really don't want to say any more, because I want to be selfish and keep this gem to myself!”

Touring pitches 195 Pitch+2+hook-up £12-£53

We say...

Cornwall is a hugely popular destination for those with children, so they'll be looking for a site that offers something for all ages – and they're sure to be delighted with a stay at Seaview International Holiday Park. There are caravans with up to three bedrooms for hire, while family pitches are available in the touring park: these are hedged on three sides and offer full electric and water connections.

The fun isn't limited to your accommodation, though: Seaview also has family barbecue areas, sports facilities (including badminton), a large heated pool, a café/bar and a well-stocked shop.

If you have an American-style RV, you'll also be welcome here, because extra-large service pitches are available.

You say...

“As you drive through the entrance you can see how well kept this site is. The grass is regularly cut, which is great for the awning floor and for the children. The pitches have great views, too. The staff are excellent and it is very reasonably priced – all pluses in my book.”

“This is an amazing site – always clean, with friendly staff, a great shop and a swimming pool.”

Silver Sands

Web www.silversandsholidaypark.co.uk Open 21 March-1 November

Touring pitches 15 Pitch+2+hook-up £15-£23

We say...

Beach lovers will be spoiled for choice for pretty shores and bays to visit with a stay at Silver Sands. There are lots to explore in the area, including Mullion Cove and the beautiful Kynance Cove. Other attractions within easy reach are the towns of Helston and Falmouth, as well as the National Seal Sanctuary and Flambards Theme Park.

Two grades of holiday home are available for hire at Silver Sands, sleeping up to six occupants, and there's also a lodge for rent. Touring pitches, meanwhile, have electric hook-up, and there is a separate camping field.

You say...

"It's so peaceful and quiet – it's somewhere that we go year after year to get away from it all. The site is always well-maintained, too."

"There is so much space for the children to play. It's a very, very clean site with great facilities – it's a treasure chest that we have discovered. We will be going back and back again. We are looking at buying a caravan, and this will be the first site we go to."

"It's small and friendly, and run really well. The owners are a lovely couple and nothing is too much trouble for them. We came home with lots of happy memories, and we will be returning again next year."

Trevella Park

Address Crantock, Newquay, Cornwall TR8 5EW Tel 01637 830 308

Web www.trevella.co.uk Open 27 March-31 October

Touring pitches 137 Pitch+2+hook-up £18.80-£27.60

We say...

Fancy spending a break under canvas, but hate having to put up a tent and take it down? Trevella Park has a series of options to suit you, including a selection of Safari Tents – pre-erected units that come furnished, including a fully equipped kitchen and even a TV. Touring units are also welcome here, or you can stay in one of the luxury lodges or holiday caravans.

There's plenty to keep you entertained during your stay, thanks to the heated outdoor pool, children's adventure playground, a pair of fishing lakes, the site café and a crazy-golf course. Trevella is also located close to the sandy shores of Crantock Bay.

You say...

"We have stayed at Trevella for more than 30 years and the high standard of cleanliness has never faltered. The staff are always friendly and helpful, too."

"It is small, extremely well-landscaped and welcomes us every time we visit with such an abundance of colour throughout the seasons. We have sampled sites similar to this throughout the country over the past 40 years, and have yet to find another as good."

"This year we stayed in the Safari Tents – we had such a fun week, and will be back again next year!"

Trevornick

Holiday Park

Address Holywell Bay, Newquay, Cornwall TR8 5PW Tel 08434 535 531

Web www.trevornick.co.uk Open 28 March-12 September

Touring pitches 636 Pitch+2+hook-up £21.10-£36.26

We say...

Youngsters will love a stay at Trevornick Holiday Park – there's just so much for them to do here that parents will never hear cries of "I'm bored!" during their stay. Most popular is sure to be Holywell Fun Park right next door to the park, but they're also sure to enjoy the site's games room, dedicated kids' activities, swimming pool, indoor soft play and lots more. Older guests, meanwhile, will appreciate the Tranquility Spa, three fishing ponds and a golf course.

Six different types of touring and camping pitches are available, spread over seven fields; you can also hire a fully furnished, pre-erected 'Eurotent'.

You say...

"We have been coming here for four years now, and every year it just gets better. We even went on our honeymoon here. Love this campsite!"

"The facilities are the best that I've seen on a site. There is regular security to check everything is OK, and the staff are very friendly and helpful. You are even taken to your pitch when you arrive! Quality service."

"We have visited for three years running, and stayed in the Eurotents – they provided everything that we could need for the week."

Trewan Hall

Camping and Caravanning

Address Trewan, St Columb, Cornwall TR9 6DB Tel 01637 880 261

Web www.trewan-hall.co.uk Open 1 May-14 September

Touring pitches 200 Pitch+2+hook-up £19-£27

We say...

Family-run Trewan Hall – around a mile from the historic market town of St Columb Major – has been a campsite for almost 50 years; over that time it has grown to become one of the top sites in Cornwall.

More than 110 10A electric hook-up points are available, and guests can choose their own pitches. Facilities at the park include a shop, modern and clean washrooms, a 25m heated pool that is covered in bad weather, a peaceful library room, and the Barn, which hosts free entertainment throughout the year. If you don't fancy cooking, you'll be able to order from the fish-and-chip van that visits once a week.

You say...

"Not only were the toilets and showers (and bath!) clean and spacious, but there was so much more on offer than just the basics. The people who run it are friendly and the kids loved the play area and swimming pool. It was such a safe area for them, and we even managed to forage for firewood for the evenings."

"Trewan Hall is unique – this site delivers a very special experience for families."

"This is a friendly site that lets you escape from the fast-paced modern world."

Tehidy Holiday Park

Address Bassett Road, Illogan, Redruth, Cornwall TR16 4JQ

Tel 01209 216 489 Web www.tehidy.co.uk Open 28 March-31 October

Touring pitches 28 Pitch+2+hook-up £17-£26

We say...

Congratulations go to Tehidy Holiday Park, which is our regional winner in Cornwall for the second year in succession. Once again, you told us just how much you loved the site's location, its facilities and the warm welcome that you received.

If you're staying here in a touring unit, you can use the clean, modern facilities, which include a games room with TV, sparkling washrooms, a launderette and a shop that stocks local produce. If you camp under canvas, you may opt instead to hire out one of the lovely wooden glamping pods – they're warm, cosy and even have TVs!

There is also a whole host of self-catering holiday caravans to choose from, which have up to three bedrooms. These smart units are set in small groups on the side of the valley. (No dogs are allowed on-site.)

There's plenty to see in the area; if you fancy leaving your car or motorhome on-site, explore the area by bus. There's a stop just outside the site and the line goes to Bodmin, St Ives and Falmouth.

You say...

"The site is immaculate. The owners are constantly working to maintain their high standards. Our static caravan was spotless with new duvets and pillows. And it's so quiet here!"

"Each pitch is enclosed and feels private, in comparison to those on other campsites we have visited."

"Beautiful, quiet and family-friendly."

The first thing that strikes you at Tehidy Holiday Park is how pretty it is. Its location near the coast, facilities and staff all make it a regional winner again

Overall winner

The Orchards Holiday Caravan and Camping Park

Even if you haven't yet visited family-owned The Orchards, near Yarmouth on the beautiful Isle of Wight, a quick look at the long list of accolades that it's won – which include a David Bellamy Gold Award, a Platinum Loo of the Year prize and the AA's award for South-Eastern Campsite of the Year 2015 – will give you an idea as to just how good it is. And now this fabulous park can add another gong to that impressive list: it's our Top 100 overall winner.

From the moment that you arrive to the minute you drive out the gates, you'll be made to feel welcome here. Once you're on site, you'll find that the facilities are tidy and well-kept. They include a great heated indoor pool, a fantastic children's play area, a takeaway food bar serving tasty fish and chips, a shop that stocks all of the essentials, and an attractive coffee shop.

If you're touring in your own unit, you'll be pleased to discover that the pitches here are of a good size, and many have lovely views of the surrounding countryside. The static holiday caravans are just as impressive, too: they're nicely fitted-out with a variety of equipment to help make your stay a comfortable and memorable one. There is also a good selection of sizes, so you should easily be able to find one that will suit your needs.

We really love this site, and you do, too. As one happy visitor enthused: "We have stayed on this park for around the past 20 years, and we just love going back. It is like our second home, and we look forward to returning every year."

Congratulations to all at The Orchards, our worthy overall winner for 2015.

■ For contact details and pricing information, see p66.
