Education Programme to benefit from Union's Greyhound Racenight

Dransfields CIU Greyhound Racenight takes place on Tuesday, September 18

Sheffield's iconic Owlerton Stadium will be hosting the Dransfields CIU Racenight on the evening of Tuesday, September 18 (the first race goes off at 6.22pm).

This great event is a fantastic opportunity to witness some top-class dog racing on one of the best tracks in the country and have an enjoyable night out with some club colleagues.

What's more, tickets for the evening are free to CIU members and include a drink, nachos and a bet.

If you would like to attend this annual Union event, simply fill in the form that you will find on page 15 of this issue and post it to us at Club Journal.

In addition, National Account companies and other suppliers to CIU clubs are being offered the opportunity to become race sponsors on the night in order to raise money for the Union's Education Programme.

Any suppliers wishing to sponsor a race should contact Head Office.

Sid Hicks to step down from the NEC

Sid Hicks has announced that he is stepping down from the Union's National Executive Committee (NEC).

Mr Hicks, who represented Northumberland on the NEC, submitted his resignation in July after several years on the Committee.

There will now be a by-election for the newly vacant position.

Union President George Dawson CMD said: "Sid has shown real dedication during his many years on the NEC in representing the views of the Northumberland clubs at a national level."

Club of the Month: Leigh Park TUWMC

This month's Club of the Month is Leigh Park & District Trade Union and Working Men's Club in Havant, Hampshire. .

Founded in 1966 but moving into its current premises in 1971, the club has been at the heart of its local community for over 50 years with a full programme of entertainment, activities and events on offer to its membership, including darts, snooker, pigeon racing and cribbage.

For the full profile of the club, turn to page 11.

EDITOR'S LETTER

Welcome to the August edition of Club Journal.

As you'll see from the front page, Sid Hicks has tendered his resignation from the National Executive Committee (NEC) after many years of helping to steer the overall direction of the Union in his role as the NEC member for Northumberland.

I am sure that all Union members will join me in expressing our gratitude for Sid's service on the NEC.

Next month will see the Dransfields CIU Greyhound Racenight taking place on the evening of Tuesday, September 18 at Sheffield's Owlerton Stadium.

This annual event is free to attend and is always a great night of sporting action under the floodlights of this famous dog racing venue so we would love to see as many CIU members as possible coming along.

In addition, the Union is hoping to attract sponsorship on the night from National Account companies and other traders with CIU clubs to help raise a donation for the Union's Education Programme.

As well as each sponsor receiving two free hospitality tickets to the racenight, the names of all sponsors will be shown on the race card and photographs of the event with a report naming sponsors will be published in the November edition of Club Journal.

Please contact Head Office if you would like to take advantage of this sponsorship opportunity.

Meanwhile, a reminder that the timetable for the new Award in Club Management (ACM) day courses is currently being drawn up and will be published in subsequent issues of the Journal once it is finalised.

Launched during Conference Weekend in Blackpool back in April, the new course consists of three self-contained units, each taking one day of classroom-based study to complete and will give members an excellent grounding in club administration and finance.

Our 'Club of the Month' for August is Leigh Park Trade Union & Working Men's Club in Havant, Hampshire.

As you'll read (p11-12), the club is rooted in its local community, providing plenty of live entertainment, sport and other leisure activities seven days a weeks and all year round for its growing membership.

Hope you enjoy the issue.

Heineken invests £40m in North London craft brewery

Heineken, the Official Supplier of beers and ciders to the Union, has taken a minority stake in the North London-based Beavertown Brewery, investing £40 million in the 'craft' beer company.

Beavertown produces a range of beers, including the Gamma Ray pale ale, and will use the cash injection to build a 450,000 hectolitre brewery in London that will allow it to expand.

Last year saw Heineken invest in some other smaller brewing businesses, including the Brixton Brewery in London and the Lagunitas Brewing Company in California.

Anthony Joshua to fight at Wembley on September 22

Anthony Joshua will defend his IBF, WBA 'super' and WBO titles against Alexander Povetkin at Wembley Stadium on September 22, live on Sky Sports Box Office.

The unified world heavyweight champion faces his WBA mandatory challenger Povetkin as he returns to the scene of his epic victory over Wladimir Klitschko in April 2017.

Joshua's last two world title fights had been at the Principality Stadium in Cardiff, with the unbeaten 28-year-old firstly stopping Carlos Takam before adding the WBO belt in a points win over Joseph Parker in March.

Defibrillator installed at Garforth Working Mens Club

Members of the Garforth Working Mens Club Committee with the defibrillator machine which was recently installed outside the club

Garforth Working Mens Club in Leeds has installed a Community Public Access Defibrillator (CPAD) on the outside of its premises.

The device is designed to save the life of victims of sudden cardiac arrest by restarting the heart's normal electrical system through a shock.

The CPAD cabinets have a key code lock which can be accessed 24/7 by calling 999 and obtaining the code.

"Being a club that is at the heart of the community – excuse the pun – we see this as a valuable contribution to the community," said Club Secretary Keith Varley.

"It is a facility donated by the club and its members for the benefit of everybody in our community. Hopefully it is something that won't be needed, but will be there if required."

OBITUARY

Stuart Barnes

It is with great sadness that The Leigh Park Trade Union & Working Men's Club have to announce the sad passing of our Club Secretary Charles Stuart

Barnes, known to all as Stuart.

He passed away suddenly in June from a heart attack. Stuart was a long serving club member before joining the Committee and he was the only member to achieve the status of holding all four officer positions: President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary.

Stuart was a kind-hearted gentle man who always had a smile on his face and had time for everyone no matter what their needs.

His smile and kind nature will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Weoley Castle WMC stages Zumbathon for local hospital

Weoley Castle Working Men's Club in Birmingham staged a charity Zumbathon on July 1 in aid of a local hospital.

The three-hour event was organised by Sarah Codling who underwent a heart transplant in 2015 at Queen Elizabeth Hospital (QEHB) and now works tirelessly to raise funds for heart patients at the hospital with regular events.

The funds were raised to help buy a Heart in a Box machine for the hospital's heart and lung transplant department.

This state-of-the-art machine keeps a retrieved heart alive outside of the body, by pumping blood around it, and irrigating it ready for transplantation.

This radically increases the amount of time that surgeons have to perform the transplant, compared with the more traditional method of storing the heart in ice.

The Leigh Park & District Trade Union & Working Men's Club was founded in 1966

LEIGH PARK TUWMC, HAVANT

The Leigh Park & District Trade Union & Working Men's Club in Havant, Hampshire, was founded in 1966 and is a thriving community club which offers its members an array of entertainment and activities

Founded in 1966 but moving into its current premises in 1971, Leigh Park & District Trade Union Working Men's Club has served its local community for over 50 years and continues to thrive as one of the key entertainment and leisure hubs in the area.

The club is currently in mourning after the sudden loss of Secretary Stuart Barnes, who passed away from a heart attack in June and his successor in the role, Tricia Banachowicz, pays tribute to this stalwart who did so much to make the club a success.

"Stuart would do anything for anyone and was a really caring man who worked really hard for the club and for the members," says Tricia.

"We held his wake in the club in July and over 600 people turned up to pay their respects – with all of our bars packed – which is a testament to the esteem he was held in by club members and the local community."

In the immediate aftermath of the loss of Stuart, the club wasted no time in installing a community defibrillator on the outside of the building and instituted training sessions to teach members how to use this potentially lifesaving piece of equipment if someone in the vicinity suffers a heart attack.

"Stuart obviously leaves a huge void in the club but the Committee and members have all pulled together to ensure that we build on his legacy," says Tricia.

It's clear that the future of the club is in extremely safe hands with a focused and very capable Committee that knows exactly what it takes to run a modern club.

"Our aim is to have something going on at the club seven days a week to cater for the different age ranges and interest groups," says Tricia.

"We basically have four rooms – our Lounge Bar, which is where members can go and have a quiet drink; our General Room which is where we have several TV screens, a pool table, kids area, dartboard, juke box and gaming machine; our Small Function Room, which holds about 100 people and can be hired out for functions and our Main Hall which can accommodate up to 350 people."

The club works hard to put on plenty of high-quality live entertainment for its members with regular bands and solo singers performing at weekends.

"We aim to be the premier venue for tribute acts on the South Coast," says Tricia. "We have regular tribute nights throughout the year – normally on a Friday night – featuring a variety of acts and most of them have been sell-outs.

"Recently, we've had Pink Floyd, UB40, Abba, Oasis, Motown and Michael Jackson tribute acts which have been really well received by members and you'll often see members buying several tickets for friends and family.

"Then, twice a year – in March and September – we have a big Rock 'n' Roll Night which brings in people from all over the county and beyond.

"In October, we'll be staging a Halloween Extravaganza which will have a band performing songs from The Rocky Horror Picture Show.

"Aside from the Tribute Nights, we try to have live entertainment every Saturday night and one Sunday a month. Next year, we're looking to move the Tribute Nights to Saturday and put a disco on the Friday as sometimes when we've had a big tribute night on a Friday, it's quieter the following night."

CLUB OF THE MONTH

Live sport is also shown in the club on various TV screens, including a giant screen.

"The World Cup went really well for us with a fantastic atmosphere in here for all the England games," says Tricia. "Live sport is available throughout the year on Sky Sports and BT Sport and we have a big screen for major events.

"We get good numbers in for Premier League and midweek Champions League games and we'll also show golf, boxing and whatever live sport members want to watch."

But it's not just about watching sport and the club has some very effective teams of its own playing in the local leagues.

"Our Wednesday Men's darts team have done very well this season and took seven out of the nine League trophies, while the Wednesday Ladies team won the League Plate," says Tricia.

"We also have teams which play on Mondays and Thursdays so darts is very strong for us. We're looking to get a professional player in to do an exhibition event at the club in the near future.

"One of our crib players achieved the highest aggregate score overall in the League and last season the team took all the prizes and finished runners-up this season.

"Snooker, pool and billiards are also very

The club aims to be the premier tribute act venue on the South Coast popular at the club and we have golf, fishing, and pigeon racing sections."

The club's members are keen fundraisers for both local and national charities – charities supported in the past include MIND, Cancer Research, Victory Hants, Hampshire Air Ambulance, the Chernobyl Children Lifeline and the annual RBL Poppy Appeal.

At the end of August, the club will be holding its first Inclusion Disco which is aimed at young people with special needs.

"We discovered that youngsters who have just left special needs schools can often become socially isolated from people of the same age," explains Tricia.

"This event means that young people of varying abilities can come along with their carers and meet others of a similar age to themselves.

"We're hoping that it will take off and become a regular thing as it serves a real need in the community."

The club has franchised out its kitchen with hot and cold food available to members in the evenings, as well as for functions, with a number of wedding receptions and other celebration taking place in the Main Hall throughout the year.

In terms of marketing itself both to members and the wider community, the club has a very significant online presence with a new website carrying all the latest news from the club, including details of upcoming events and a downloadable membership form.

"We're very active on social media," says Tricia. "We're on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram and it really helps with the club's profile.

"If we have a tribute act on, I'll often put a video clip live on Facebook so that people who haven't come along can see what they're missing.

"For those members who perhaps aren't as attuned to social media, we also put up posters inside and outside the club showing what's coming up.

"We also have several multimedia TV screens around the club and these can be programmed to display all the upcoming events as well as advertising what services club members can offer each other, for example, if you need a plumber or a builder."

With so much going on within its walls, it's no wonder that Leigh Park TUWMC continues to be such a vital part of its local community.

Sheffield's iconic Owlerton Stadium will be hosting the Dransfields CIU Greyhound Racenight on Tuesday, September 18.

This great event is a fantastic opportunity to witness some top-class dog racing on one of the best tracks in the country and have a good night out with some club colleagues.

What's more, tickets for the evening are free to CIU members and include a drink, nachos and a bet, so there's even more reason to come along and enjoy yourselves.

As in previous editions of this annual event, a total of 14 races will take place throughout the evening, making for a fast-paced night of action.

Owlerton is one of the key centres for greyhound racing in the UK with its kennels producing many famous champions in the blue ribands down the years.

Union President George Dawson CMD, Union General Secretary Kenneth D Green CMD and other members of the NEC will be attending the event, along with representatives of many of the Union's Preferred Suppliers, including racenight title sponsors Dransfields.

Even if members of your club can't make it to Sheffield on the night, you can still get involved in the action by taking part in the annual CIU Greyhound Sweepstake by picking the winning dog in the Dransfields CIU Final. Forms for this will be sent out to the clubs before the event.

Owlerton Stadium itself is very easy to travel to, being just five minutes away from Sheffield's City Centre so don't miss out on this great CIU event.

For more information, please call the venue direct on 0114 2340374 or visit the stadium's website at:

www.owlertonstadium.co.uk

If you are interested in a race sponsorship or hospitality package on the night, please contact Sean Ferris at: sean@alchemymedia.co.uk

Service Award Application Reminder

Please remember to allow sufficient time when applying for your Service Award Certificates as all applications are approved initially by your local Branch Office then approved at the monthly NEC meeting in London (see page 14 for dates of NEC meetings).

All certificates take around six to eight weeks to be approved, engraved and signed.

Timetable for ACM currently being finalised

The timetable for the rollout of the Union's new Award in Club Management (ACM) is being finalised and will be published in upcoming issues of Club Journal.

The ACM has been developed by the CIU's Education Committee working in tandem with CPL Training and consists of three self-contained units, each taking one day of study to complete.

Unit 1A of the course covers Law & Regulation, Licensing. Unit 1B covers Other Law and Regulations. Unit 2 covers the topics of Management, Finance and Administration.

Candidates will get an understanding of licensing law and regulations relating to members' clubs, as well as a whole host of other laws and regulations that govern the running of a club.

Informative articles which affect our life

What is the Glycemic Index and what does it mean?

The Glycemic Index, known as 'GI', is a number associated with the carbohydrates in a particular type of food that indicates the effect of these carbohydrates on a person's blood glucose (also known as 'blood sugar').

The GI represents the rise in a person's blood sugar level two hours after the consumption of the food.

If we consume too much sugar or indulge in over processed foods not only can sugar increase our weight, it can sometimes have significantly bad effects on a person's long term health.

Checking ingredients by reading labels at the supermarket may seem like an extra task but it is important because we may not be aware just how much sugar many of our favourite foods contain.

This includes many children's cereals, breads and pastries while soft drinks often contain a lot more sugar than we may realize.

With the Government's increasing worries about children's eating habits and the general rise in obesity, scientific research shows by understanding the value of eating a low GI diet you will have a better shopping guide for your groceries and which foods to try to avoid or eliminate from your shopping list.

Eating a sensible well-balanced, low GI diet can significantly reduce the risk factors associated with developing Type 2 diabetes, heart disease and other degenerative diseases.

In the UK we have so many different food venues, it can be extremely hard to avoid fast food chains altogether, but you can check menus to make healthier choices.

If possible, avoid food high in saturated fats, additives, flavourings or preservatives, as they do not have any real nutritional value and as science has proved are not good for maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

CIU Events

DRANSFIELDS CIU GREYHOUNDS RACENIGHT, SHEFFIELD

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

The Dransfields CIU Racenight 2018

Dransfields CIU Racenight takes place in Sheffield on Tuesday, September 18

Sheffield's iconic Owlerton Stadium will be hosting the Dransfields CIU Racenight on Tuesday, September 18.

This great event is a fantastic opportunity to witness some top-class dog racing on one of the best tracks in the country and have a good night out with some club colleagues.

What's more, tickets for the evening are free to CIU members and include a drink, nachos and a bet, so there's even more reason to come along and enjoy yourselves. There are also upgrade packages available. (Please contact Sean Ferris for details – sean@clubjournal.co.uk)

As in previous editions of this annual event, a total of 14 races will take place throughout the evening, making for a fast-paced night of action.

Owlerton is one of the key centres for greyhound racing in the UK with its kennels producing many famous champions in the blue ribands down the years.

Union President George Dawson CMD, Union General Secretary Kenneth D Green CMD and other members of the NEC will be attending the event, along with representatives of many of the Union's Preferred Suppliers, including racenight title sponsors Dransfields.

Even if members of your club can't make it to Sheffield on the night, you can still get involved in the action by taking part in the annual CIU Greyhound Sweepstake by picking the winning dog in the Dransfields CIU Final.

Owlerton Stadium itself is very easy to travel to, being just five minutes away from Sheffield's City Centre so don't miss out on this great CIU event.

For more information, please call the venue direct on 0114 2340374 or visit the stadium's website at:

www.owlertonstadium.co.uk

If you are interested in a race sponsorship or hospitality package on the night, please contact Sean Ferris at:

sean@clubjournal.co.uk
