

Aerangis appendiculata

Native of: Malawi, Mozambique, Zambia, Zimbabwe

Habitat: Epiphyte in evergreen forest in shade from 1100-1850m altitude.

Description: A small species with 8cm leaves and relatively 1cm flowers on stems carrying up to ten flowers.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow similar plants mounted and warm (min15°C) in low light.

Flowering season: Summer

Flask to flowering approx: 2yrs